

WITNESS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER (Cont'd):

to what they were saying.

Q- Was Lamonte excited?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- Was DiPaolo excited?

A- I wouldn't know for sure whether he was or not.

Q- If you were only three feet away and they were talking, can you tell us anything about what was said either by DiPaolo or Lamonte?

A- No, sir, I don't think I can.

Q- You didn't hear the subject they were talking about?

A- They were talking about windows; I know that. They were talking about windows but I didn't pay any attention to what they were saying.

Q- Did you see them separate?

A- Do you mean, go back into the other hut?

Q- No. Did you see the accused leave go of the coveralls?

A- Yes.

Q- What happened then?

A- Lamonte started to put on his equipment.

Q- Where did DiPaolo go?

A- He was out in the centre of the aisle.

Q- You are positive there was no blow struck?

A- Yes, I am positive.

Q- With which hand was DiPaolo holding Lamonte's coveralls?

Q- Where was his right hand?

A- Down by his side.

Q- Did you notice anything in his hand?

A- No.

Q- Was Lamonte screaming or shouting or using foul language or anything like that?

A- Sir, I couldn't say, but I know they were talking loud.
