N. R. C. BALL.

The Assembly Rooms of the York Theatre are handsomely decorated for the occasion.

The annual invitation ball of the Napier Bowling club will be held this evening in the assembly room of the York theatre, formerly the Mechanics' Institute. The rooms have been extensively decorated and present a very pretty appearance. Red and white, the club colors, predominate in the decoration of the assembly room itself. Bunting of this color is hung from each of the pillars and crossed in the centre, where shields with the club emblems are placed. Other pieces of bunting are strung from the tops of the pillars toward the centre, while the pillars are draped from the top pillars to the centre of the ceiling, forming two canopies. From the corners of the room to the centre posts streamers are draped. The whole effect is very pretty, and the blending of colors is exceedingly harmonious.
The alcove formerly used by the orchestra has been made into a cosy corner, and another door has been cut into the reception hall, with a platform leading up to it. The orchestra will be placed on this platform tonight.
As a result the music will be equally well heard in either room. The reception and supper rooms too, have been in the hands of the decorators. The super room, especially, is beautifully arranged. Here, as throughout, the prevailing colors are red and white.
The club committee in charge is composed of John I. Robinson, Heber Vroom, F. A. Kinner, Douglas Sutherland, Roland Frith, Fred E. Hanington.

The death occurred at Bear Island yesterday from heart trouble of Mrs.
Phoebe Hagerman, aged 63 years, leaving four sons and one daughter.

It is estimated that there are as many as eighty American sportsmen hunting big game in the Tobique woods at the present time.

J. H. Carville's milk wagon got in the way of an electric car on Main street this morning and was bumped. The milk from the overturned cans assisted the rain in washing the pavement.

W. A. Trueman has resigned the offices of judge and registrar of probates in Albert Co. W. O. Weight is gazetted judge of probate and Miles B. Dixon registrar. J. V. Magee is appointed deputy registrar of deeds in York.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. A. of the Brunswick street Baptist church will be held next Thursday evening. It is the intention of the association to make the rooms even more inviting than they have been before.

The matter of catering for the Royal party and their suite while they are in St. John is in the hands of J. J. Mc-Caffrey, the manager of the Dufferin hotel. Mr. McCaffrey leaves today for Boston and New York to engage the help required for that purpose. Mr.
McCaffrey says he will bring here the best men obtainable.

J. N. Harvey, the Union street clothier, is showing a fine range of the newest and most up-to-date cloths at his fine tailoring department. He makes great claims in this department, as to quality, make, fit and low prices. An examination of his goods and prices is invited. Attention is called to his ad. on the first page of this issue.

The supply of fresh fish is scarce in the local market, partly on account of the gales that have been prevalent off the Nova Scotia coast this week. Halibut is selling at twelve to fifteen cents a pound, cod and haddock four cents smelts eight to ten cents, pickerel six cents and herring eighteen cents a dozen.

TODAY'S FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late James Stack took place at half-past two o'clock this afternoon from his late residence, Erin street. The body was taken to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, where the burial service was conducted by the Rev. Fr. Coughlan, after which interment was made in the old Catholic burying ground. The pallbearers were George Seely, Edward Moore, David McKenna, John Irvine, George Rednor and Melville Clark.

There was a large attendance this afternoon at the funeral of the late James Henry O'Regan, which took place at half-past two o'clock from his father's residence, 72 Elliott row. The funeral service was conducted in the cathedral by the Rev. Fr. Coughlan.
The pallbearers were Joseph O'Brien, Charles O'Neill, George Kelly, Humphrey Sheehan, Frederick Roderick and Frederick Gilman of Moncton.

The body of the late Charles Mc-Frederick, who was killed at Sand Point on Tuesday, was today laid to rest. At half-past two o'clock the body was taken from his late residence at Blue Rock to St. John's church, where a most impressive service was conducted by the Rev. G. F. Scovill. The members of the Ship Laborers' Union walked in the procession in a body.
Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

BODY FOUND.

The body of Bugler Redden of the R. C. R. L. who was drowned, while sailing on the river near Fredericton on the 29th of June, was found today by a party of workmen, slightly below the waterworks pier at that city. The body was badly decomposed, but was recognized by parts of the clothing, which still remained on it. Mr. Redden's brother at Kenville has been communicated with as to the disposition of the body.

SUDDEN DEATH.

William Lawlor, the well known lime burner at Brookville died very suddenly this morning. He was in the yard at his house attending to some ordinary duties, when he suddenly fell to the ground and died in a very few minutes. Mr. Lawlor was eighty years of age. He leaves two sons, Michael and Peter, and three daughters, Mrs.
Henry Dolan, Mrs. John Rex and Miss Elizabeth Lawlor.

MRS. J. A. BELYEA DEAD.

Mrs. Jas. A. Belyea died at the private hospital on Hazen street this evening. She was a daughter of the late P. O. Inspector McGillican.

FIRST WINTER BOAT.

The Hamburg American Packet company's steamship Saxonia is the first winter boat to sail for Portland, Me., this season. She was due to arrive there last night.

POLICE COURT.

William Goldsworthy was arrested for drunkenness on St. John street last night, and explained to the police that some unknown person had hit him on the apple of his back. The blow had upset his stomach and made everything turn white. William looked blue this morning when he was fined four dollars.

Michael Sullivan, a sailor, was going across, was just about to cross, and would have crossed the river to join his ship only he was unfortunate enough to get scooped. He also was requested to settle for his night's lodging.

Another drunk was already over the river and used some very naughty words. He paid two dollars for the attempt to quench his thirst and eight for his freedom of speech.

Three young boys who were arrested last evening by Detective King on suspicion of stealing a valise from the I. C. E. pleaded not guilty and were remanded until tomorrow. A. W.
Baird appeared for them.

ODDFELLOWS AT INDIANAPOLIS.
Dr. C. A. Murray of Moncton and Mrs. Murray have just arrived home from a trip to American cities. At Indianapolis Dr. Murray attended the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I. O. O.
F., which was in convention there for one solid week. There were about 300 representatives present from every state in the union and every province in the Dominion of Canada. This lodge is the head of the organization of Odd-fellows throughout the world. The business related to Oddfellowship exclusively, the drafting of laws governing subordinate lodges in different jurisdictions throughout the world. Dr.
Murray says that at the opening of the convention a procession was held in which 25,000 Oddfellows joined.

was called to St. John this morning, owing to the death of his little child.
Yesterday's Moncton Transcript.
Miss Nicholl, of 116 Charlotte street, is gone on a visit to her brother, E. T.
Nicholl, in Manchester, N. H., also to friends in Boston.

Miss Della Conness, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Jean Wilm, York street, Fredericton, returned to her home at St. John yesterday.

Attorney General Fugatey returned at noon today from "vacation." J. J. McCaffrey will leave this afternoon on a trip to New York and Boston.

Timothy Fitzpatrick, of Waterloo street, returns this evening by the street of Maine from Boston, where he has taken a course in the Police school of Embalming. Mr. Fitzpatrick was very successful, having won second place in his class.

Canon Roberts, of Fredericton, is in the city today.

MISSIONARY MEETING.
In the schoolroom of St. Luke's church the first of a series of missionary evenings to be held on the first Wednesday of each month during the winter season, under the auspices of the Gleasons' Union, was given last evening, and greatly appreciated by the large audience present. The following was the programme:- Opening address, Rector, Rev. R. P.
McKinn; selection, choir; solo, J.
Brown; solo, J. Watkins; duet, Miss Thompson, Mr. Ross; solo, Miss Edwards; solo, R. Holder; selection, choir; address-On Sunday schools and their needs, by Rev. R. P. McKinn.

THE CORPORATION DRIVE.
(Fredericton Herald.)
There was a heavy rainfall up river on Saturday of last week, and as a result there has been a slight rise of water. Messrs. Morrison and Noble started a crew of men at work near Andover this morning on the corporation drive, and Contractor Pond has started at Big Rapids. They will move Kilburn's stranded lumber. The directors of the St. John River Log Driving Company, have been giving the corporation contractors a waking up, and the latter have orders to get out the stranded lumber, if it is at all possible to do so.

MISS McRAE'S DEATH.
The young lady, whose death on the train yesterday between here and Hampton, was mentioned in yesterday's Star, was Miss Jennie McRae, 26 year of age, and belonged to Tracade, Gloucester Co. She was under the care of Miss Doyle, matron of the city hospital at Portland, Me., and was on her way to her uncle's home at Tracadie, where her remains are to be sent.

SECURE YOUR SEATS.
The sale of tickets for the MacLachlan concert is now on, and those who desire to hear the Scotch artist, for what will be the last time in St. John, should attend at once to the selection of seats. Monday's programme will be published Monday morning, and those who can possibly attend should not miss it, as it will include her best numbers. Plenty of good seats can yet be procured.

SEAMAN'S MISSION.
Rev. H. H. Common yesterday, evening addressed the Portland Methodist church, explaining the work done by the Seaman's Mission for the sailors visiting the port. He gave an interesting address, soon to be followed by a visitation of the churches, with a view of bringing them more closely in touch with the mission.

BULL OWNED THE TOWN.
Five black looking bulls were grazing quietly in King square this morning.
They did not seem to be at all excited at their new pastures, and had no visible attendants. When last seen they were standing on the Dufferin corner, presumably waiting for a car in which to take a ride about the city.

KINGSTON, Oct. 2.-Principal Grant continues in the same condition. The progress toward recovery is perceptible, but the physicians are hopeful if no complications arise.
