LOCAL NEWS.

Dr. Pugsley returned from Montreal today.

Mrs. William N. Collins will receive on Wednesday, May 15th, at her home 627 Main street.

Commencing on May 15th, the I. C. R. will attach to their Montreal train a through sleeper from St. John.

Mrs. A. A. Watson and Miss Watson left last night for New York, to spend the summer with Dr. O. Watson.

Major A. H. MacDonnell, D. S. O., will be the first commander of the new permanent cavalry corps to be established in Alberta and Saskatchewan. He served in Africa with the first contingent and afterwards in the South Nigeria Constabulary.

Frank Stead, a C. P. R. messenger collided with a horse and carriage on Charlotte street at noon and fell between the carriage wheels. The prompt action of the driver saved the boy from injury.

It is announced that Colonel R. B. Steel, C. H. M. V. O., formerly of the mounted police afterwards commander of Strathcona horse, and lately commanding a division of the S. A. Constabulary, is to return to Canada as district officer commanding for Saskatchewan and Alberta.

John McMullin was arrested on Saturday on a warrant for abusive language. The magistrate heard his case Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock at what the police book terms a special session of the court and the prisoner was discharged.

John Lahey, a patient at the Provincial Hospital Annex at Sand Cove, left the place without permission Saturday and early Sunday morning found his way into the central police station, where Policeman McLaren took care of him. He was returned to the institution yesterday.

The funeral of the late William Gallagher took place at 2:30 this afternoon from his residence Germain street to St. John the Baptist Church, where Rev. Father Gaynor read the burial service. Interment was in the New Catholic cemetery.

Two drunks were before the magistrate this morning. One Thos. Dunlop was arrested last week but got out to conduct the sale of his mother's house. He asked to be allowed to go this morning as he was going to move his furniture. He was told by the court that he was not in a fit condition to be out and was accordingly remanded to jail.

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. N. Livingston took place at 2:30 this afternoon, from her late residence Middle Ave. Rev. A. G. Graham and W. Foster officiated and interment was in Fernhill, a quartette composed of S. J. McGowan, Rev. L. A. McLean, Henry Shaw and Miss Elenda, Thomson rendered several hymns at the service.

A Winnipeg paper reports the marriage there last week of Karl M. Creelman, of Truro, now of the C. P. R. employ, to Miss Maxine M. Monk-gomery, of Winnipeg. The groom was supported by A. E. Evans, of Halifax. Mr. Creelman, a few years ago, encircled the globe on a bicycle, meeting with many adventures and returning after two years to Truro, from whence he started, during which he covered 50,000 miles.—Halifax Echo.

W. S. Fisher arrived home today from a trip of several weeks through the Canadian West. Mr. Fisher states that the weather in Western Canada still remains cold. From Vancouver to Toronto he did not see one blade of green grass. The stories of the rapid growth of the western country are not exaggerated. In the vicinity of Edmonton the new settlers are arriving in such large numbers that many of them have to live in tents, there being no houses available. Mrs. Fisher accompanied her husband on the trip, she arrived home last week. Mr. Fisher finding it necessary to spend a few days in Toronto.

THINK ST. JOHN MEN WERE NOT ON THE WRECKED TRAIN

Local Shriners Left Los Angeles on Friday, But Were Probably on Another Train—Several Telegrams Received

Word of the wreck of the special train carrying a large number of Mystic Shrine members which occurred near Santa Barbara, California, on Saturday, in which thirty-one persons were killed and a large number injured, has caused great anxiety in the minds of the many friends of V. E. Raymond, George Blake and E. J. Everett, the St. John men who attended the meeting of the Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Los Angeles.

Despatches from the scene of the disaster did not mention the names of the St. John men, but it was feared that they were on the wrecked train. Through today's developments, however, it appears that the local Shriners were not passengers on that train, and in all probability they are on their way home in safety.

H. A. Doherty of the Royal Hotel sent a telegram to the Alexandria Hotel at Los Angeles, last night, asking for particulars concerning the safety of Mr. Raymond. This morning Mr. Doherty received an answer, which read:

"Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles: 'V. E. Raymond' left here Friday. He is not among the dead. We have not got a complete list of the injured." The special train which was wrecked left Los Angeles on Friday, but it is believed that the local men left on another train.

Charles Everett of C. and E. Everett, sent a telegram this morning to Mr. McCain, manager of the Shriners' Tour. He has as yet not received a reply. Mr. Everett stated that he felt satisfied that the St. John men were not on the wrecked train. He was in possession of a pamphlet which contained the hours at which the members of the different temples were to leave Los Angeles. The St. John men were to leave on what was known as the Mecca special, and those on board the wrecked train were members of the Iamania and Rajah Temples, billed to leave on a different train. It is quite improbable that the St. John men would leave with the members of the New York and Reading Courts.

Mr. Everett when told that the telegram received by Mr. Doherty stated that Mr. Raymond left Los Angeles on Friday, stated that all of the trains probably left within a few hours of each other. The fact that Mr. Raymond is not among the dead is almost conclusive proof that Messrs. Everett and Blake are also living as the St. John men would in all probability be together. The conclusive proof that the St. John men were not in the accident is that D. C. Dawson, local superintendent of the Wern Union Telegraph Company, received a telegram from Santa Barbara this morning stating that no Canadians were on board the wrecked train.

It is generally believed that the local men were on another special which left Los Angeles shortly after the wrecked train. The second special passed the wreck of the Iamania and Rajah Temples, billed to leave on a different train. It is quite probable that the occupants were not aware of the wreck. It is probable that the St. John Shriners know nothing more about the disaster than that the papers they probably learned of it after they were well on their journey home. Mr. Everett expects an answer to his telegram this afternoon.

FOUND A BICYCLE THAT WAS STOLEN LAST YEAR

Machine Hired in September Never Came Back Until a Few Days Ago—Trying to Straighten Out Tangle

Last September during the time of the Exhibition and while there were many strangers in the city, a young man who gave his name as Fred Strean, was a customer in Daniel Coles' bicycle livery on Charlotte street. He hired a 25 machine but failed to return with it, and Mr. Coles was unable to locate the machine or the thief.

A few days ago Gus Loncrist left a bicycle with Mr. Coles to be repaired and was to return for it on Friday. While repairing the machine Mr. Coles discovered it was the wheel that had been stolen from him last September. When Loncrist went for his wheel Mr. Coles refused to let him have it and explained the situation.

Mr. Loncrist said he purchased the wheel for eight dollars from Harris Gilbert, a second hand dealer on Mill street. Loncrist and the Jewish dealer Gilbert were in the police court this morning in an attempt to straighten the matter out. Gilbert showed by his books that he purchased the bike from a man last September and that man gave his name as Fred Baker of No. 4 North street. Gilbert also told of selling the wheel to Loncrist. The three men concerned were sent by the court to the police office to report all they knew about it to the officers who would endeavor to locate Strean alias Baker. From the present outlook it appears that Coles will retain his wheel. Loncrist will get his $8 and the Jew second hand dealer will be a loser.

THINK ROBERT MCGILL MAY HAVE BEEN DROWNED

He Had a Habit of Loitering About the Wharves.

Robert McGill who disappeared from his home on Paradise Row on Thursday last is still missing and the parents of the young man now fear that he is not alive. Mr. McGill, sr., this morning said that he had been talking to Detective Killen last night, and he promised to do his best towards locating the young man. Mr. McGill said that his son, a few years ago, had been in the habit of loitering about the wharves at the foot of Britain street and it might be possible that he was in that vicinity on Thursday night. The young man was in a downcast mood through his long illness and the theory that he committed suicide now seems stronger than ever. The police have kept a sharp lookout for him but they have little assistance in their search as the missing man had no companions who would be with him after he left home. He was of a reserved disposition and had never been very sociable.
