The Telegraphers' Club will hold a dance tomorrow night at the "Ferns," returning to the city about midnight in special cars. These dances will be held

A meeting of the harbor facilities committee will be held this afternoon to receive the report of the Ottawa delegation. The report will be along the lines already outlined, the most important recommendation being that to put the west side facilities under government commission.

Nearly the entire morning session in the police court was taken up with the Kierstead assault case. J. B. M. Baxter for the defence, called a few witnesses in rebuttal and Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the prosecution, called one witness. It was after one o'clock when court adjourned. The case will be resumed tomorrow morning and after another witness for the prosecution is heard the case will close.

Mr. W. H. Dunham received this morning two boxes of native strawberries picked on the farm of John Dougan at Hampstead. Mr. Dunham, was of the opinion that these were the first native wild strawberries brought to the city. He was mistaken. Ferries were brought in on Saturday by the Boston express, having been picked at the St. Stephen branch line, They were probably the first of the summer. The berries were of a large size.

KNIGHTS DRILLING

The monthly meeting of Victoria. Company of the Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias was held last night with a good attendance of Knights. After the business had been disposed of the company drilled for an hour in preparation for the Boston trip. After this a drill will be held every Thursday night in which both companies will take part.

Companies are also being drilled at Fredericton, Moncton and St. Stephen. It is the intention of the Fredericton company to take part in the drill competition at Boston in which a six hundred dollar prize is offered for the best drilled company.

Several Others Charged With Leaving the Chain Bang Have Been

James McCaustland, who was doing a two months' sentence in jail with hard labor, escaped from the chain gang on May 13th, and thus left himself liable to a term in Dorchester penitentiary for a few years as an escaped convict. Policeman Hughes arrested McCaustland on Thursday, June 11th, and he was remanded to jail. Unlike three others who have gone to Dorchester for escaping from the chain gang, McCaustland is now enjoying the life of freedom as he was given his liberty last Saturday night.

PLAGUE OF MOSQUITOES

People at McAdam are saying very uncompilmentary things about the man who selected the site for that village. During the past couple of weeks life has been a burden owing to the plague of mosquitoes. McAdam is built next door to an extensive marsh which forms an excellent breeding ground for mosquitoes and these birds—for they have passed the insect stage—are so numerous that even persons on trains passing through suffer for hours after leaving the junction.

The station is, of course, the prin-returning to the city about mining to special cars. These dances will be held every Wednesday night unless other wise announced.

In the examinations in this year's work in the law school, four of the students made averages of over eighty per cent. in the seven subjects. The students were J. King Hazen, R. H. Howard, G. Earle Logan, and W. B. Farris.

WHEN TEETH BEGIN TO DECAY they should be seen to at once, so as to arrest the process of rotting. If taken in time decay can be prevented in the teeth of old or young. But there must be no delay. Once decay starts the whole set is liable to become contaminated. My specialty is to care for your teeth. I look after them in

PROBATE COURT

During the month of May the C. P. R. shops at McAdam, ran for only three weeks. During the remainder of the month the shops were open for only eight hours of the day. So far in June the eight hour day has prevailed for five days a week so that the men got in only forty hours weekly instead of fifty-five as was the case when the shops were on full time. It is not known whether they will be shut down for a week during June or not. Lack of work is given as the reason for the short time, but the employes of the shops believe that the company is getting back at them for the part they took in the recent labor difficulty. The McAdam unions as against the company.

The dredge New Brunswick, which has been working upon the Kennebeccasis has not only cut through the sand bar separating Long Island from Mather's Island but hus dredged out the steamboat approaches at Reed's Point, Clifton and Gondola Point. The steamer Premier, the local passenger and team ferryboat was able to start het regular trips this morning. The Premier has been ready for the route for some time and during the winter had her machinery so adapted to the route and work she has to do that there is no delay or uncertainty now. The work of the dredge and the driving of spiles to make entry slips at the different wharves have removed many of the difficulties of making stops in the heavy winds that sweep the broad Kennebeccasis. The Premier leaves Reed's Point at 6.30 a. m. and 4 p. m. to connect the same old offender, was in court that sweeps and be was sent to jall.
