NICKEL'S WEEK-END ATTRAC-

There will be a whole programme of new pictures at the Nickel today, and by special request a return engagement of the magnificent historical picture, The Origin of Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata, a film that will live a long time as a motion picture classic. During the showing of this requested feature Beethoven's sonata will be played, a music feast in itself. The new list of pictures includes a pretty home-life comedy entitled His First Girl, something that will hit the youths as somewhat familiar no doubt. There Girl, something that will hit the youths as somewhat familiar no doubt. There will be new comedies and dramas. The Silibers will continue in their triple programme and Miss Evans is singing Just Some One most acceptably. The Saturday matinee is an assured bumper, when two western pictures will be shown extra.

On Monday the Nickel will open its doors at 10 o'clock and will have several shows before dinner hour. Shows will be resumed at 1 o'clock. The stellar attraction is to be Lucien Kesney of England, society entertainer, pianologist and humorist. He talks and piays whilst you laugh and cry. There will be talking pictures as well and new song and films.
