H. McE. In this office he succeeds Gordon Grant who was successor to Mr. Lumsden.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A tea the novelty of which proved highly attractive to a gathering which was large when the weather is taken into consideration, was held last evening under the auspices of the Guild of St. Monica, the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist. Supper was provided from changing dishes, of which Mrs. E. T. Sturdee was in charge of that dispensing kidney sauce, Mrs. M. H. Emery and Miss Emma Jack in charge of that dispensing creamed chicken, and Miss Helen Jack in charge of that from which fish chowder emanated. Among the ladies who acted as waitresses were Mrs. Mackenzie, Miss Portia Mackenzie, Miss Shadob, Miss Williams, and Miss Marshall.

DEATH IN A SCRATCH

Simple Injuries With Serious Results.

Morris Quatman, an eleven year old Windsor boy, has just died as the result of a scratch on his wrist. Poison entered the wound, which was caused by falling off his bicycle, and despite the physicians, the boy died. Such incidents as these—by no means infrequent—ought to make people realize the danger that may lie even in the smallest flesh wound.

Takes a simple illustration. When a dirty knife, a rusty needle, a splinter of dirty wood, a barbed wire fence, or a thorn, scratches the hand, the latter is inoculated with germs, of which the air about is full. Directly these germs are introduced through the breach in the skin, a battle royal ensues between them and certain organisms in our blood.

When the invading germs are too strong for Nature's defenses, in a few hours the finger will become hot and throbbing. A little later the wound may exhibit a whitish appearance in the middle of the swelling, and we have what is known as a festering serious wound.

The way to avoid such serious results is to cleanse the wound and apply Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk is a powerful yet painless germ killer, and when applied to the broken skin is absorbed into the tissue, instantly destroying the germs that spread the disease and inflammation.

The flesh is thus soothed and purified, the wound made perfectly healthy, and all poison and cause of festering removed. Having done this, Zam-Buk then proceeds to heal the wound or sore with new healthy tissue—a quick, an easy, and perfect manner.

Zam-Buk must not be confused with ordinary ointments. Zam-Buk is a unique preparation, possessing antiseptic, soothing, and healing qualities that are not to be found together in any other preparation. It is not only a unique healing and healing qualities that are not to be found together in any other preparation. It is not only a unique healing and healing qualities that are not to be found together in any other preparation.

Before Judge Armstrong in the Probate court yesterday the matter of the estate of Robert S. Jones, a colored man, was up for hearing. The estate is valued at $800 and as no person having applied for admission since the death, and there being a debt to the commissioners of the General Public Hospital to the amount of nine dollars, the commissioners through Dr. A. W. MacRae, applied for administration. The application was objected to by Cyrus P. Inches, who represented M. Rooker, a great-nephew of the deceased. The judge decided to grant administration to Rooker and the question as to whether K. J. MacRae, who represented Dr. A. W. MacRae as proctor, would get costs was left over until today. Mr. Inches objected to the costs on the ground that the estate belongs to Undertaker Powers and others.

Mr. Everett L. Holland, a well-known Canadian, moved to the United States some time ago. The change of climate brought on a serious and painful illness, which three physicians said was Stone in the kidneys, but were unable to relieve his terrible sufferings.

In his agony Mr. Holland thought of an old and reliable remedy which had a great reputation in his Canadian home—the famous Gin Pills.

He wrote a former neighbor and secured a supply. On March 29th last, Mr. Holland is a letter to the National Drug & Chemical Co., Toronto, said: "I am well."

He is now anxious to have Gin Pills put on sale in the United States in order to cure his new friends of kidney and bladder troubles.

If you have any kidney or bladder trouble take Gin Pills and we guarantee the cure or your money refunded.

SPECTACULAR BLAZE ON THE SOUTH WHARF

There was a rather spectacular blaze on the South Wharf between midnight and one o'clock this morning. Damage to the extent of $1500 was done to the store and stock of Chas. M. Kerrison, ship broker and lumber merchant, at South Wharf, and the balance was to the building which is owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson and to the furniture of John Nelson, who keeps a boarding house in the upper stories of the building which is the last on the wharf.

All the persons who lost by the fire are covered by insurance. Mr. Kerrison carried $500. The others carried amounts sufficient to cover the damage.

The blaze started in sheathing near a chimney in Mr. Kerrison's office and at about 12.30 the upstairs were alarmed by volumes of smoke which poured up through the floors.

The successor of Rev. George Titus in the pastorate of the Coburg Street Christian Church has already been practically chosen. Rev. Mr. Brennan is the man decided upon. When Rev. Mr. Titus leaves his charge, after the second Sunday in October, when his farewell sermon is to be preached, Rev. Mr. Brennan will assume charge. He has been engaged to act for some time upon probation, but his permanent pastorate is understood to be practically assured. Rev. Mr. Brennan has been in the ministry of the Christian Church for some years, his last pastorate, having been at East Point, P. E. Island. Rev. Mr. Titus will assume charge of his new church, at Fort Williams, N. S., on the first Sunday in November. His neomancy to Acadia University will enable him to take theological studies there. Before going to Fort Williams he plans a trip to Montreal.

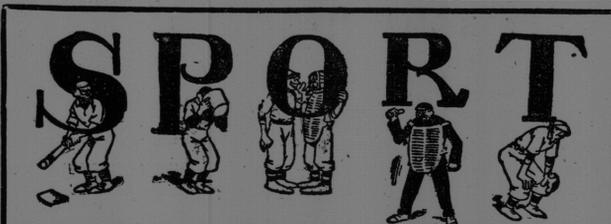

THE GREEKS AND NEWCASTLE

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 27.—Your correspondent in talking with W. J. McNeil, manager of the Newcastle baseball team, this afternoon learned that he had made all arrangements for his team to leave on Friday morning's Maritime express for St. John, but on last Wednesday morning he received the following telegram: "St. John, N. B., Sept. 22: W. J. McNeil, Newcastle, N. B.—After consideration cannot recognize your club to compete for championship. Signed D. B. Donald."

When Mr. McNeil received this message he understood that Mr. Donald did not want to spoil his chances for the provincial championship by allowing Newcastle the privilege of playing in St. John for fear that Newcastle might defeat them. "We were not looking for the provincial championship," Mr. McNeil went on to say. "But just wanted to show the people that the Marathons were not the undisputed champions of the province unless they defeated every team that challenged them." Mr. McNeil sent the following reply to Mr. Donald's telegram but received no answer: "Newcastle, Sept. 22: D. B. Donald, manager Marathons baseball team, St. John, N. B.: Being able to win here us the right to compete for provincial championship. Signed W. J. McNeil."

THEY DECIDED TO LET THE SKUNK ALONE

Augusta Citizens, at Earnest Plea of Mayor, Forbear to Slay an Umpire.

The six best hated men in the United States, if it were possible to pick them out from so many likely candidates, would undoubtedly be the six baseball umpires who have officiated in the six closest games before the largest attendance, says the Atlanta World-Herald.

They mobbed one down in Augusta, Ga., the other day, and after he was rescued from the indignity of the mob, the police the Mayor of Augusta came to his defence in a public address that was a real classic. The fair city of Augusta had been foully wronged by this man, said his Honor the Mayor, but for the good name of the city he pleaded with his people to "let the skunk alone." And the people, with a due sense of humor, for the unfortunate criminal, forbore to do more than slug the umpire in the face, hit him in the head with pop bottles and choke him.

In addition to identifying the riotous and despised among our population, this incident also illustrates the fact that when a leader appears with convincing arguments he can stay the hands of even an infuriated mob and protect even a man who is suspected of having called a "jail a skunk." It is a pity that the famous animal, both in propria persona and in figurative human representation, but after all, there is a point in the vengeance of society where justice must pause and be succeeded by mercy. This point may be properly said to have been reached when the offender has been choked by the neck and excited by pop bottles. The wronged and injured are to be pitied and tempered justice with mercy.

CELLULOID BOOMERANGS USED IN THIS COUNTRY

Americans Booming Experts in Handling the Peculiar Weapon of the Australian Bushman.

The skill of the Australian bushman in boomerang throwing is not exaggerated in the least, for the boomerangs, welded by an expert in a "thing of air like a bird, now high up, now just skimming the surface of the ground, turning in circles, first falling just where it has been aimed to fall.

The boomerang can be fashioned of wood, but can also be cut or stamped out of celluloid and hard rubber. Boomerangs are now being held in two or three American cities. Several expert throwers in this country have fashioned their own boomerangs out of celluloid, but of heavy cardboard.

If the cardboard does not get wet it makes a serviceable boomerang. It is excellent for the purpose, because it is light, very hard to break and can be worked into a peculiar curve and twist which are so necessary to give the boomerang its forward direction.

LOOKS TO ATHLETES FOR FUNDS TO BUILD CHURCH

Rev. John D. Morrow, Once Famous Quarter-Miler, Now in Montreal on Unique Mission.

The Reverend John D. Morrow is in Montreal, the scene of so many of his athletic triumphs.

He is there to collect money for his new Athletic Church in Toronto, and the goes about as fast as if he were on one of his famous quarter-mile runs.

He has hosts of friends and he looks forward both in athletic circles and outside of them and looks forward to his former associates at McGill and the M. A. A., holding him out in his lifework.

He looks as hale and hearty as when he made his celebrated fastest quarter mile in 49 3-5 and represented Montreal athletically at New York and Milwaukee.

The new Athletic Church is to be called the Dale Presbyterian Church, and is to be on the corner of Hillwood Avenue and Queen St. The congregation realized $14,000 from the sale of a building property. The bequest of the late Mr. Dale amounted to $10,000. Their own contributions are bringing up the total of their resources to $25,000. The church planned, when fully equipped will cost $35,000. He is asking help to raise $8,000, to give the equipment.

KETCHELL IS UNABLE TO POSTPONE FIGHT

Johnson and Coffroth last on Bout Being Decided on October 12.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—When Stanley Ketchell and his manager, Will Britz, arrived in Frisco they set no store on postponing the fight with Jack Johnson to October 22.

Just why this delay was sought is not clear. It is known that Ketchell had been disabled in the recent bout with Fiske. But it is also known that Johnson is a pugilist of the first class, and that Ketchell was not ready to go on when Johnson would receive a $5000 forfeit, which Coffroth holds.

So Ketchell will have to meet Johnson on the original date or lose the above sum together with a chance to win the heavyweight championship. Johnson is very decided in regard to this. He is generally known as a pugilist of the first class, and that he will be in the ring the appointed day in good faith.

JOHNSTON UNDER FITZPATRICK'S WING AGAIN

Word comes from Frisco that Jack Johnson has patched up his differences with Sam Fitzpatrick, his former manager, who has agreed to supervise the negro's training for the Ketchell fight in addition to acting as chief second. Fitzpatrick made Johnson a manager, who has agreed to supervise the negro's training for the Ketchell fight in addition to acting as chief second. SCHOOL ATHLETES

Undoubtedly a great work is being accomplished in Toronto by the organization which controls sports in the public schools.

The publication today of the fall football schedule of games, which will bring hundreds of boys of all ages out upon the fields in the fresh autumn air, striving to wrest athletic honors from one another cannot but be beneficial to an even greater degree than is generally known. The games begin next Monday, and continuing week after week in the first week of November.

In that time a good deal should be accomplished toward giving strong constitutions and correct ideas of sports to a vast number of youths who will be the better for it the rest of their lives. No more commendable work is being done in Toronto than is so successfully conducting athletic sports in the schools.

"BURGLAR'S CONFESSION"

On April 22 Davis appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeal in London, and then the first step was taken in this act to procure the release of Davis, although at that time the other three prisoners had, as far as he knew, nothing whatever to do with it.

Davis wrote some instructions on the back of his depositions, and handed them to a friend named Ellis, who was interesting himself in Davis's case. The important thing for Davis to make out was that original deeds had existed, and he endeavored to persuade Ellis to forge a document and commit an offence which he himself had committed.

Ellis was wise or honest enough to refuse to fall in with Davis's request. The appeal was dismissed, and Davis was sent back to Wornwood Scrubs, and subsequently transferred to Lewis gaol.

There he commenced to do, with the help of other people, what Ellis had refused to do. Letters were sent out from the prison which were not authorized, and he believed he should succeed in proving that Davis corrupted one of the warders.

Various things were smuggled into the prison, including a fountain pen and a sheet of parchment. With these Davis manufactured a deed of the kind he wanted. In order to get over the difficulty of the stamp of the deed he cut off the corner where the stamp should be.

Having completed the document, it was smuggled out of prison, and on July 15 it came back addressed to "St. C. Davis, c/o the Governor." It was enclosed in a letter which purported to come from a burglar, who was supposed to have broken into Davis's house some time before and found the deed in a coat and torn off the stamp to sell it; then, seeing the report of Davis's trial in the paper, the supposed burglar wrote the following letter:—

Sir, I see in an old Bromley paper that you are in the clink for something to do with deeds. Well, when we broke into your crib at Hildrey some time ago we found this paper in the pocket of a coat we took, and thought it was a will and would be paid for handsome.

We tore the stamp off to sell, and hope it does not matter. We are sorry you are doing time, and hope it is not through us. We were going to have another go at your house, but ain't going to now. Last time we both got boozed with your whiskey and slept in your bed. As we did not do bad we hope this will do you a bit of good. Good-bye, and back up, old cock.

Counsel said that great pains had been taken to carry out the instructions Davis had suggested to Ellis. The parchment was dried and crumpled, and there were marks upon it as if a glass of water or other liquid had been accidentally placed upon it.
