THAT Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine possesses unusual merit as a treatment for Throat and Lung Diseases has been proven in a score

It has stood the test of time.

It has gradually grown more popular year by year.

It has at least three times the sale of any similar preparation.

It is to be found in the homes of the great majority as the favorite treatment for COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, Etc.

'Tis Merit That Brings Success.

TS it any wonder that there are many imitations of so successful a family remedy?

What we would emphasize is the necessity of care in buying.

You cannot afford to risk health, or life itself, to an imitation or substitute which has not sufficient merit to work its own way.

Look for the PORTRAIT and SIGNATURE of DR. A. W. CHASE on the bottle you buy.

These are the best guarantee which any medicine can bear.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

Is wonderfully successful as a cure for CROUP, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, and SEVERE CHEST COLDS; 25 Cents a Bottle, family size (three times as much), 60 Cents. IN WOMAN'S GARB. Michigan Student Goes to a Coed's Ball Ball and is Suspended for the Prank.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Dec. 2-Just be fore the Thanksgiving recess, the woman's league of the university gave a fancy dress party. In order to give the young women more latitude in choice of costumes at these functions, men are not admitted, even as spectators. At the last party an upper classman disguised as a negress, and, accomsummoned into Dean Jordan's office panied by a coed, gained entrance to the Adamless Eden. After some time suspicion fell upon him, and he was Mrs. Jordan demanded to know who "she" was. The fellow stood mute, and of the headgear. Upon this he conhe had been taken into the dressing room, where 300 coeds were running in and arranging their costumes, some of which were of male attire.

The culprit and the coed who brought him to the party have been suspended for an indefinite period. Neither President Angell nor Dean Jordan will reveal the identity of the it Escaped. NEW YORK, Dec. 5.-The American body of Miss Virginia L. Thornton, a well-known artist, was found at full length beside the bath tub in her apartments on the second floor of No. 22 East 16th street Great mystery surounds the case because though room was filled with gas, the single jet in the room and the gas heater were burning brightly. The police, after a most searching investigation could not discover whence the gas was escaping. Miss Thornton was apparently pre paring to retire. The bath tub was filled with water, which was yet warm. Dr. Reid, who responded to a call from the New York hospital, said the young woman had been dead only about five or ten minutes.
