

CHARACTER AND AIM.

Woodstock College is designed to be, above all else, a Christian school of learning. Its aim is to surround the student with Christian influences; to guide him sympathetically in the pursuit of knowledge, and teach him the Christian way of seeing things; to keep before him Christian ideals, and by word and life commend the knowledge of God and Christ-like character as the highest possible attainment.

For this purpose thorough class-work is essential. In harmony with the two-fold aim of building up Christian character and ensuring thorough scholarship are the principles of government and the courses of study.

ADMISSION.

Application for admission should be made to the Principal before coming to school. Such application should be accompanied by a certificate of character and statement of the age and scholarship of the applicant and of the studies he desires to pursue. None, however, need apply for admission but such as are prepared to comply heartily with all the requirements of the College, and devote their entire time and energy to the work prescribed. The superior advantages for study and for the development of true manhood which the College affords are intended for such only as desire to make the best possible use of their school life, and who can therefore enter fully into the spirit of earnest work which pervades every department of the institution.

To gain admission into any one of the regular courses of the College, the applicant must pass a satisfactory examination upon a full equivalent to what is required to enter a Provincial Collegiate Institute or High School. A certificate of having passed such examination will be accepted. Applicants who are not prepared to enter any of the regular courses of the College will be admitted into the Preparatory Course.

PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNMENT.

1. In seeking to develop a symmetrical character and the power of self-government in each student, the Golden Rule, "Do
