

Met at 3 o'clock, P. M. The Rev. G. R. Neale read Psalm xxviii. Prayer was offered by Rev. R. Langford.

Moved by the Rev. G. R. Neale seconded by Brother James Smith that the Association be held with the Digby Joggins Church the last Saturday in September 1874.

It was voted that the Rev. Randolph Langford preach the Introductory Sermon and that the Rev. Henry Frances be his alternate.

Voted, That Brother James Thomson be collector for Home Missions for Yarmouth Church. Adjourned.

Met at 7 o'clock, P. M. Preaching by the Rev. George R. Neale from Mark v. 4, followed by Bishop Smithers, Rev. H. Frances, Rev. R. Langford.

WEDNESDAY, October 1st.

Met at 7 o'clock. Preaching by Rev. Henry Frances. Exhortations by a great many of the brethren. Truly we had a happy time.

THURSDAY, October 2nd.

Met at 7 o'clock, P. M. Business meeting.

FRIDAY, October 3rd.

Met at 7 o'clock, P. M. Preaching by the Rev. R. Langford from Acts xxii. 10, followed by a great many of the brethren.

SATURDAY, October 4th.

Met at 7 o'clock Prayer meeting.

SUNDAY, October 3rd.

Met at half past 10 o'clock, A. M., in the field. Preaching by Rev. R. Langford, followed by Rev. G. R. Neale and B. B. Smithers.

Met at 3 o'clock in the church. Preaching by the Rev. G. R. Neale from Acts xx. 32, followed by the Rev. H. Frances and the Rev. B. B. Smithers. Then Ministers and Delegates and Deacons joined hands and formed into a ring, the Doxology was sung. Prayer offered by Rev. R.