Wanted—Waitress and chambermaid at Victoria Hotel.

Ladies to Meet.

The ladies' committee of the Protestant Orphans' Home will meet at the Home on Thursday at 3 o'clock.

Girl Arrested.

A girl aged 17 was arrested on Germain street between 10 and 11 o'clock last evening, and charged with not being able to give an account of herself.

Will Hold Tea.

A meeting of the King's Daughters' Guild was held last night when plans were made for the holding of a tea at a later date. Full arrangements were not completed.

Natural History Society Lecture. On this Tuesday evening Dr. G. U. Hay will deliver his interesting lecture on the medicinal plants of New Brunswick, at the rooms of the Natural History Society, Union street.

Home With Spring Fashions. Miss MacNeil and Miss Dunham, milliners for Messrs. F. W. Daniel and Co., corner King street, have returned from the openings in the west and expect to be ready for their early customers on Thursday next with the latest New York ideas for spring business.

Game Society Met. The Fish Forest and Game Society met last evening and adjourned until Monday, 18th inst., when a smoker will be held at which a number of prominent speakers will address the members on subjects of interest to the association.

Looking Over Damage. A survey of the damage sustained by the river steamer Hampton will be commenced today. When asked as to the amount of damage done to the Lily, R. C. Elkin stated last evening that at present he was unable to say what it would be, but that the work of repairing the ship would be begun in about two weeks' time.

St. Stephen's Guild. At the meeting of the Guild of St. Stephen's church last evening, W. F. Hatheway delivered a very interesting address on "Some Famous Women," after which the following musical programme was carried out: Vocal solo, Miss Drake; readings, Barry Doig and Mrs. C. E. Patterson; vocal solo, H. Dunn; reading, Mrs. Daly.

No Harm Meant. The Standard a few days ago printed a news paragraph furnished by the Canadian Press, in which reference was made to David Russell of Montreal. Mr. Russell takes exception to the wording of the paragraph which he believes referred to him slightly. The Standard very freely takes this opportunity of stating that by the publication of the paragraph it had no intention whatever of injuring Mr. Russell in the public esteem.

Habitual Loafers. Policeman McCollum has reported James Riley, of Hilyard street; Wm. Sylvester, 25 Norman street; Samuel Jones, 12 Edgart street; Charles Baird, 17 Brunswick street; James Alexander, 3 Courtney street; James Fleming, 9 Brunswick street; Patrick McCollough, 18 Smith street; Henry Carr, 214 Duke street, for being habitual loafers on the north side of the King Square.

Protesting Ferry Rates. Nothing definite was done at the meeting of the West Side indignation committee which is making arrangements to petition the legislature to disallow the action of the city council in raising the ferry tolls. About half the petitions which have been in circulation were returned to the committee signed by between 2,000 and 4,000 names. Another meeting will be held today when it is expected the committee will complete arrangements for presenting the petitions to the legislature.

East Wins. A debate was held last night in the Kilmouth Street Methodist Church Sunday school rooms by the Epworth League and there was a large audience. Three young men a side from the Y. M. A. of the Glad Tidings Hall took up the debate on the resolution "that the East furnishes better advantages for the young man than the West." The speakers on either side gave an excellent presentation of arguments, the leaders being Walter Adams for the affirmative, and Mr. Drake for the negative. The judges, J. King Kelsoy, R. C. John E. Wilson, M. P. P., and Rev. Robert Smart, decided in favor of the affirmative. During the evening solos were rendered by Miss Minnie Myers and Miss Maida Smith.

Boards of Trade Convention.

W. E. Anderson and W. H. Allison of the Board of Trade of this city, returned home last night from Fredericton Junction where they conferred with a delegation from the Fredericton Board of Trade relative to the convention of the boards of trade which is to be held in Fredericton. At a meeting yesterday the final details for the convention were arranged. The convention is to last one day. Several matters of importance will be taken up at the convention and the programme for the day was drawn up yesterday. It is the intention to invite a number of prominent outside men to deliver addresses at the convention on subjects of importance to the province. Among those whom it was decided to ask to speak are Arthur Hawkins, Jas. Edwards, of the G. N. P., and other transportation men.

REGRET DEPARTURE OF ADJUTANT CARTER

Salvation Army Holds Farewell Service When Comrade Departs for New Field of Service.

In connection with the departure of Adjutant Carter of the Salvation Army, who is leaving for Winnipeg, a farewell service was held at the Citadel last evening. The service was conducted by Major Taylor, assisted by a number of local officers. In the course of the addresses many flattering references were made to the work and character of Adj. Carter as well as expressions of regret at his departure from the city.

MRS. BARTLETT IN RECITAL OF POEMS

Interesting Programme of Readings From Own Writings Held in St. David's Schoolroom Last Night.

A large and representative audience heard with pleasure the recital given by Mrs. Mary Bartlett in the schoolroom of St. David's church last evening. The recital was given under the auspices of the St. David's Tennis Club and the programme was made up of poems written by Mrs. Bartlett herself.

PERSONAL

Hon. Josiah Wood, who is to be the next Lieut. Governor of the province, passed through the city last evening from Sackville and proceeded to Fredericton. Hon. D. V. Landry passed through the city last evening en route to Fredericton. L. C. Deagle went to Fredericton last evening. N. C. Scott left on the Halifax express last evening for Truro to attend today the funeral of Roy Odette, who died recently in Moose Jaw. Rev. Gordon Dickie left on the Halifax express last evening for New Glasgow to attend the meeting of the Presbytery of Pictou. E. E. Bishop, formerly manager for Austen Bros., has joined the firm of J. C. Mackintosh and Co., at Halifax. He took up his new connection yesterday. It is understood that Mr. Bishop will come to St. John in a short time. Miss Helen Leah Reed, of Boston, author of the Brenda books, and other fiction, is spending a week or two with her aunt, Miss Berryman, of Coburg street. Mr. H. G. Marr, Miss Gallagher, Miss King, and Miss Driscoll, of the Marr Millinery Co., have returned from attending the wholesale millinery openings in New York and Toronto.

WEDDINGS

Day-Elliott. A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's church, in the North End, when Rev. R. P. McKim united in marriage Miss M. Lillian Elliott and H. E. Day. The bride who is the daughter of James Elliott, and a sister of Ald. Elliott, was gown in a pretty travelling suit of grey with a hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. The couple were unattended and after the ceremony they left on the Montreal express to tour the western and southern states for three weeks after which they will reside in Edmonton, Alberta, where the groom holds the position of Dominion government surveyor. The popularity of the happy couple is attested by the large array of presents received by the bride and groom by the large crowd that completely filled the church during the ceremony.

AVIATION SCHOOL TO BE ESTABLISHED BY THE GOVERNMENT

London March 4.—When introducing the army estimates in the House of Commons today, Lieut. Col. John Edward Bernard Seely, Under Secretary of State for War, announced that the aviation school to be established at Salisbury Plain, the great manoeuvring ground in England, would be for the training of soldiers, sailors and civilians. One hundred and eighty officers would be passed through the school annually. After first learning to fly at their own expense they would receive when they presented their pilots' certificates and before appointment to the flying corps, 375.00 per month for the expense they had incurred. The government, he said, was purchasing 151 aeroplanes.

NEW SETTLERS KEEP OFFICIALS BUSY

Twenty Immigrants Invaded Offices of Supt. of Immigration—Will be Sent on to Positions in Province.

The office of the Superintendent of Immigration was a busy place yesterday. About 20 new settlers arrived, and most of them were sent on to positions in various parts of the province. Among the new comers was Jas. Joubert from Saskatchewan, and W. J. Simms from Ontario, both of whom intend to settle in New Brunswick. Mr. Joubert, who is accompanied by his wife and two children, has spent seven years in the west, and has decided to come east because he believes it is a better place to bring up a family. Mr. Simms has had a large farming experience in Ontario, and will look over the situation in this province with a view to taking up a farm.

Among the immigrants who have recently arrived in the province are the following:—Wm. Parter, P. S. Norton, E. S. Neal, V. May, Wm. Neal, Chas. Cook, A. E. Matthews, W. J. Willis, J. E. Green, F. Golding, Edward McKeman, F. White, Percy Bates, W. C. Nile, J. A. Barton, Miss M. McCulloch, Miss Gertrude Hakely, Miss E. M. W. Parry, Robina McLeod, Elizabeth Elrix, C. Hanson, A. Withers, Jos. Suston, Percy Lea, Chas. Howard, Jack Gardner, A. G. Blease and wife.

FREDERICTON NEWS IN BRIEF

Citizens' Ticket Nominations Provide Surprises — Hon. Josiah Wood Reaches the Capital.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, March 4.—Today was civic nomination day here and there were the usual eleven-hour surpluses, chief among these being the nomination in Kings ward of William Crookshank, formerly of St. John, who will run as a colleague of Alderman Hugh Calder on the citizens' ticket. There was another surprise in Wellington ward where ex-Alderman Michael Ryan was nominated as the colleague of Alderman P. A. Guthrie. Ryan, his father, then came forward and generally expected that Fred Ryan would run with Alderman Guthrie, but at the last moment it was found that he was not qualified as a candidate.

This was due probably to an error on the part of the assessors, as Mr. Ryan owns real estate and has been assessed on it, but this year the assessment was overlooked. Michael Ryan, his father, then came forward and accepted the nomination in his son's stead and the contest promises to be an interesting one. The full list of nominees is as follows: Citizens' Ticket. Wellington ward—P. A. Guthrie, Michael Ryan. St. Anne's ward—A. B. Kitchen, Edward Moore. Carleton ward—T. S. Wilkinson, C. A. Burchill. Queen's ward—Hugh O'Neil, H. C. Jewett.

Good Government Ticket. Wellington ward—R. T. Baird, Moses Mitchell. St. Anne's ward—J. J. Weddall, A. V. Bart. Carleton ward—Robert Smith, H. P. Baird. Queen's ward—T. H. Collier. King's ward—W. G. Clarke. The nominees for mayor are as expected: Alderman W. S. Hooper and ex-Alderman W. J. Osborne. Hon. Josiah Wood, who will be the next Lieutenant Governor of the province, arrived here tonight accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Frank Black. They were met at the station by R. S. Barker, who will be the private secretary of the new governor and driven to the Barker House where they have engaged a private suite of rooms for the session. It is understood that the new governor will spend more time in Fredericton than has been the custom of his predecessors. He will be sworn in Wednesday of Thursday. Hon. L. J. Tweedie, the retiring governor, will arrive here tomorrow and it is understood that he will leave on Wednesday night for his home in Chatham.

Premier Flemming, Hon. W. C. H. Grimmett, Hon. John Morrissey and Hon. Dr. Landry and Hon. Robert Maxwell are here tonight. Hon. H. P. McLeod left this afternoon for Ottawa. A meeting of the government will be held tomorrow morning. Gold Fleh. W. & K. Pedersen, 49 Charlotte street have received a fine lot of gold fish which they are selling at extremely low prices. They have also on hand a special display of cut flowers which will be sold at reduced prices for the remainder of the week.

A Fine Display of Waists. F. A. Dykeman & Co. are showing a very fine display of Spring and Summer Waists, all the 1912 styles. They are the daintiest and most attractive waists that have been shown for some time, and the prices are so very reasonable that everyone should buy a good supply of waists for the coming season. Now the supply is large which gives you an opportunity of giving you a satisfactory selection. When the stock gets lower it will not be so satisfactory for you to make your selection, so the best thing for you to do is to buy now.

Grand Sailors Concert. A grand concert will be given in the Seaman's Institute tonight at eight o'clock. A special programme will be submitted by talent from the Empress of Britain and Gramplan, 10 cents.

Key at Police Station. A key found on Prince William street yesterday afternoon by Sgt. Caples awaits the owner at the police station.
