OBITUARY

Mrs. Annie Wiggins.
Gagetown, Dec. 31.—Friends here heard with regret of the death of Mrs.
Annie Wiggins at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Morrison in Boston last week. Mrs. Wiggins, who had reached an advanced age, was still bright and active until a week before her death, when she fell on the stairs of Mrs. Morrison's home, and was not able to survive the injuries received, although she was conscious until a short time before her death.

Accompanied by her two daughters who reside in Boston, the remains were brought to Gagetown on Saturday last, and on Sunday after prayers at the home of her son, Robert Wiggins, the funeral services were held at St. John's Church, Rev. H.

T. Buckland officiating. The pallbearers were James Wiggins, Willington Wiggins, Rodney Wiggins, John Norwood, George McKay and William McKay. Mrs. Wiggins was much respected and the large number who attended the funeral and the beautiful floral tributes sent testified to the esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Wiggins is survived by one son, Robert Wiggins of Gagetown; and three daughters, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Chisholm of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. George F. Allen of Lawfield.

Clyde Case.
Hatfield Point, Jan. 2.—This community was greatly shocked on Tuesday last, when a telegram announced the death of Clyde Case.

Mr. Case left Hatfield Point last fall to find work in the United States, and to pursue studies in a night school. He was successful. Everything went well till Christmas day, when sudden sickness demanded a physician who ordered him to be taken to a hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis. He died on the Tuesday following.

Mr. Case was a young man whose life gave large promise of great usefulness. He became a Christian several years since, and was fully devoted to his Lord and Master. He leaves a father, mother and one sister here, and four sisters and one brother in Massachusetts, beside a very large circle of relatives and friends to mourn. The body will be interred at Bay View Cemetery.

Doyle Now Enjoys His Breakfast, Too

Eats Three Hearty Meals
Every Day Since Tanlac Restored His Appetite.

"Before I began taking Tanlac my seven years of troubles had pulled me down until my daily work was torture for me," was the statement made recently by Philip Doyle of 240 Paradise Row, St. John, New Brunswick.

"I had suffered so long from indigestion, rheumatism, backache, constipation and headaches that my wife was in constant fear of my passing out and I had about given up hope myself," continued Mr. Doyle. "I had such a poor appetite that I hardly ever wanted any breakfast and I would go off to work without touching a bite. Whenever I did eat, gas pressed around my heart until it cut off my breath and often at night I would have to get up and walk the floor for trying to get to sleep. I was badly constipated and was troubled a great deal with headaches and dizzy spells.
I had rheumatism in my arms and shoulders something awful and I had pains across my back that were so bad they almost laid me out. I couldn't sleep well at night, felt tired-out all the time and I was planning to give up and go to the hospital."

"But before I went, my wife, as she had heard a lot about Tanlac, got after me to try it and I took her advice.
And I am certainly glad I did it for I hadn't it would have been the mistake of my life. I have taken four bottles in all and now all my troubles have disappeared. I eat three hearty meals a day and digest everything perfectly.
Gas has stopped forming and my heart action is normal and my breathing is free and easy. I am no longer constipated and I am never troubled any more with headaches and dizzy spells. The rheumatism in my arms and shoulders has left me entirely and the pains in my back are gone. I get up every morning after a good night's rest and sleep, eat breakfast and go off to my work feeling fine. My strength and energy has come back and I have been built up so remarkably that I am feeling like my old self again."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

Captain J. K. Livingstone, who formerly commanded the tug Lord Kitchener at this port, was in command of the tug Sarnia City, which was responsible for the releasing of the U. S. Shipping Board steamer Lake Galewood, which ran ashore near Port Hood, N. S., last month. In the face of a blinding snowstorm and with a gale blowing, the Sarnia City succeeded in pulling the Lake Gale-is now receiving a new propeller at ST. JOHN MAN PRAISES "LIV-RITE"

Walter Anderson, 200 Waterloo Street, Says He is Much Improved Since Taking
This Great Tonic—Read
His Letter.

More words of praise for "Liv-Rite Tonic" have come from another local resident, Walter Anderson, 200 Waterloo street. He was in ill-health and tried this new tonic which has already made so many friends. He has written to the Maritime Drug Co., 168 Prince William street, the following letter.

"Dear Sirs:—I feel compelled because of the great improvement which your 'Liv-Rite Tonic' has made in my health to write you in praise of what I consider a wonderful remedy. I was for some months in very bad shape physically, was run down, nervous, and irritable and unable to eat.
I had tried several medicines with little or no result when I noticed your advertisements. I purchased a box of 'Liv-Rite Tonic' and must say that it has made a remarkable improvement in my health. I have just begun upon the second box and already feel ever so much better. It helped me when I was beginning to despair and I consider it the best tonic I have ever used. I strongly advise any one who is run down, to try it and I shall be pleased to let you publish this letter with my name if it will be of any service to some other sufferer who may find relief in the good that 'Liv-Rite Tonic' can do."

If your druggist can't supply you, send his name to the Maritime Drug Co., 168 Prince William street, or send them a dollar and they will supply you. If you send or bring them an empty 'Liv-Rite' box they will furnish you with an order entitling you free of charge to a consultation with a reliable local physician.—Adv.

Returned Soldiers' Committee Suggest Deal With Local Government to Fill Vacancy With Their Nominee—Expect Opposition and United Farmers to Keep Out of Contest.

The Hartland Observer says:
"During the past two weeks there has been an active movement among returned soldiers of Carleton County pressing their claim to representation in the Legislature. A committee has interviewed the Local Government and they say the Government is willing to accord them the vacant seat in Carleton if the other parties will agree to allow their candidate to take his seat by acclamation. The name of S. G. Barter, of Hartland, is mentioned as the candidate most likely to be selected at a convention to be held in Woodstock, January 14. Mr. Barter has given January 14, 1920, as the date when he was after the nomination, or would accept it. On the contrary he named several other returned soldiers who could easily fill the seat."

Mr. Barter says the movement is not under the auspices of the G. W.
V. A., and has addressed a letter to the press, of which the gist is printed herewith:

"The Federal Government has passed and placed before us a 'Farm Settlement Board' to enable returned soldiers who wish to farm to obtain farms, and now the Provincial Government of New Brunswick has notified us that they are preparing a Bill to come before the next session of the Provincial Parliament to help the returned men who do not wish to farm, to secure small lots of land up to 25 acres and to help them to build homes, and in this way returned men who follow other trades will be placed in a way that they may have homes quickly and pay back in an easy way. Now this is a vital question to us, and there are no returned soldiers sitting in the Provincial Parliament. When the Government wants information from us they must send to us outside the House."

"We have every right to expect our petition to open Carleton County to be granted, so we will call a convention of returned soldiers to meet on January 14 to choose a man to represent us."

"This is a very vital matter to us and let us reason together over the matter."

"The Bill coming up next session is most important to us. We greatly need a representative in the House and we have none there. You must admit that it is only justice that at least one returned soldier should be present and help in preparing a Bill that is entirely for us, and we do not expect the Government party to oppose our nominee, for it would be most unusual to grant a petition and try to defeat the aim of the petition.
Neither do we expect to be opposed by the loyal opposition, for already they have a vigorous party in the House and the election of one more member would not materially alter the standing in the House, so the matter is not vital to them. We do not expect the United Farmers to oppose us, for this is only a by-election and there are already several farmers in the House."

"So we confidently look forward to a peaceful entry of our candidate into the House."

"Electors of Carleton, we do not want to stir up strife. We want away from our homes and all that was dear to us to fight for our homes, our loved ones and for you, and now we expect no fight to be put up against us when a question so vital to us and a question minor to the three parties who now hold aloft their banners in this county, and we hope no man will allow his personal ambition to run to such an extent as to allow himself to place or to cause himself to be placed in opposition to us."

"We are aiming to keep clear of partisanship, we aim at choosing one of our comrades who will be strictly independent, and who will faithfully help to promote any measure beneficial to our county. We returned men turn confidently to our own people and ask your support."

Jennie, was united in marriage to Mr.

the Rev. Millard D. Webster. The bride and groom entered the parlor
