

OBITUARY.

James Harper, Jacksonville. Woodstock, N. B., May 9.—(Special)—One of the oldest and most thrifty farmers in the county, James Harper, passed away yesterday at his home in Jacksonville in the 83rd year of his age.

John J. Fox. The sudden death of John J. Fox occurred at his home, 44 Queen street, Thursday evening. He was about to leave for his shop when he was taken with a hemorrhage and died a few minutes afterwards. He leaves a mother, father, son and daughter.

Annie Arnold, Sussex. Sussex, N. B., May 9.—The death of Annie G. M., daughter of Wm. Arnold, of Waterford, occurred on the 9th inst. She was aged seven years and six months. The funeral will be Sunday at 9 o'clock a. m.

Mrs. William McMahon. The death occurred Friday at French Village, Kings county, of Mrs. Mary Jane McMahon, wife of William McMahon. Deceased was 52 years of age and is survived by her husband and four children. Her illness was of comparatively short duration, she having suffered only since last Friday with pneumonia and was not thought seriously ill until yesterday morning. She was the daughter of James Henderson, of Rothbury.

David McAlpine. The death occurred early Sunday morning of David McAlpine. The deceased was born in this city in 1823 and has resided here his whole life. He was for many years engaged in the directory business which has been continued by his sons. He retired from business 12 years ago. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth McAlpine, and five children. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at St. John's church.

Rev. Principal Grant. Rev. Principal Grant, of Queens University, died at Kingston (N. S.) Saturday. Deceased was a representative Canadian and was born at Pictou Academy and Glasgow University, after which he became a laborer in mission matters. He was a member of the Presbyterian church at Georgetown (P. E. I.) and later at St. Matthew's church, Halifax. When Senator Fleming, his friend and parishioner, began his survey for the C. P. R., Doctor Grant accompanied him for a much needed rest. As a result the public was given the book "From Ocean to Ocean" which is a graphic account of a canoe trip through "the great lone land." In 1877 Doctor Grant was called from his pastorate at Halifax to take up the duties of principal of Queens University, Kingston. Deceased was an enthusiastic supporter of confederation and in later years he strongly advocated imperial federation. He was known all over Canada as a powerful preacher, an interesting lecturer and keen critic of public affairs, and his death will be sincerely regretted.

Hon. F. D. M. Dechene. Quebec, May 10.—Hon. F. D. M. Dechene, minister of agriculture in the late government, died this morning. He had been ill only a few days, having suffered a hemorrhage and complications followed which mystified the physicians. Mr. Dechene's brother, Senator Dechene, was buried last Monday.

John E. Perks, Formerly of Fredericton. Fredericton, May 10.—(Special)—A telegram from Houlton says: John E. Perks, formerly of Fredericton, died this morning. He had been ill some time, but was around till yesterday. Deceased was formerly a well known and respected citizen of Fredericton and for some years was warden of the black rod in the legislative council. He is survived by one son and one daughter, the latter living at Houlton and unmarried.

Mrs. Rebecca Hamilton, Fredericton. Fredericton, May 10.—The death occurred last night of Mrs. Rebecca Hamilton. She was in the 71st year of her age and was the widow of Hugh Hamilton, of this city. She leaves two adopted daughters, Mrs. Ernest Parke, of Lower St. Mary's, and Miss Annie Hamilton, at home.

Mrs. William Magee, Marguerville. Fredericton, May 10.—Mrs. William Magee, of Marguerville, died on Friday afternoon from the general debilities of old age, she being 80 years old. A sorrowing husband, one son, Wm. R., of Marguerville, and two daughters, Misses Mary and Annie, both residing at home, survive. Two brothers also survive, Messrs. Robt. Cochran, of Moncton, and Hugh Cochran, of New York. Major J. H. Melville, of St. John, is a nephew.

James Findlay, Halifax. Halifax, N. S., May 11.—(Special)—The death occurred Saturday of James Findlay, grocer for 49 years. He leaves a widow and family.

Hon. R. M. Wells. Toronto, May 11.—(Special)—Hon. R. M. Wells, K. C., of Wells & McMurphy, solicitors of the Canadian Pacific, died tonight. He was speaker of the Ontario legislature from 1873 to 1880, sat in the commons 1882 to 1887, representing East Bruce.
