

OBITUARY

Mrs. W. R. MacLaren. The death occurred at Grand Falls, yesterday of Bertha, wife of W. R. MacLaren, after a short illness of typhoid fever.

Mrs. John O'Brien. Many friends in this city and elsewhere will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. John O'Brien, which occurred yesterday afternoon at her residence, 42 Mill street, after a brief illness.

John C. Arnold. Woodstock, April 2.—John C. Arnold died last night. He was taken sick on Saturday and pneumonia developed on Monday.

Mrs. Sarah Sheppard. A large number of friends will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Sarah Sheppard, wife of John L. C. Sheppard, retired pilot of this city, which has occurred after a long illness at her residence, 51 St. James street.

Rev. Dr. E. Strong. Boston, April 2.—Rev. E. Strong, D. D. for twenty-five years editor of the Missionary Herald, died today in his eighty-second year.

Murray B. Keith. Murray B. Keith, whose death occurred in Halifax on Wednesday, had not been in the best of health for some time, but continued his usual activities until the last.

Mrs. Mary Illiffe. The death of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Illiffe, wife of G. W. Illiffe, occurred yesterday morning at her home, 205 Brunswick street.

Gabriel J. Worden. The death of Gabriel J. Worden, one of the oldest residents of Evangeline, Kings county, occurred at his residence yesterday morning after an illness of only a few days.

Mrs. Nell McNevin. Sad news for the many friends of Mrs. Nell McNevin, of Grand Falls, and Queen streets, came in a letter from her announcing the death of her mother.

Andrew McGregor. Halifax, April 2.—The death occurred at 62 Brunswick street, on March 30, of Andrew McGregor. He had been ill for a long time, but only continued to his bed for two weeks.

Children Dead. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Johnston, King street east, will have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant son.

Miss Anna L. Blair. Many friends will hear with regret of the death of Miss Anna L. Blair, eldest daughter of the late Hugh Blair, which occurred yesterday at her home, 248 City road.

Miss Sarah Sharp. The death of Miss Sarah Sharp, daughter of the late Thomas and Mary Sharp, occurred yesterday after a lingering illness.

Thomas Kane. Word of the death of Thomas Kane, aged 66, at Chipman on Thursday morning has been received here.

David Cowie. Frederickton, April 3.—The death of David Cowie occurred from heart disease at Marysville this morning.

Mrs. Ward C. Hazen. Woodstock, April 3.—The death took place last evening at her home in Upper Woodstock, after a lingering illness.

William P. Lynch. Sussex, N. B., April 3.—(Special)—The death of William P. Lynch occurred this evening. Deceased was born in St. John, seventy-six years ago.

Mrs. W. Rex McLaren. The death occurred at Grand Falls on Thursday, 2nd inst. of Mrs. W. Rex McLaren, aged twenty-nine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Merrick. The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Merrick, wife of William Merrick, has occurred at her home in Brussels street, after a lingering illness.

Harold DeLong. New Germany, March 30.—On Saturday morning he passed to his eternal rest one of New Germany's brightest young men.

These Are Genuine Army Goods and in Excellent Condition. Army Grey overcoat $3.00 with cloak $2.50.

ARMY AND NAVY GOODS. These Are Genuine Army Goods and in Excellent Condition. Army Grey overcoat $3.00 with cloak $2.50.

Newman Estey. Word has been received in the city telling of the death of Newman Estey, a former resident of Florenceville, N. B.

A Sad Case. "I suppose your baby sister cries now and then" asked one of the neighbors. "Yes" said Mary. "Why, she just seems to look on the dark side of things all the time!"—Exchange.

CONDENSED NEWS, LOCAL AND GENERAL

St. Stephen's church has received $600 from the estate of Mrs. Laurence MacLaren.

Dr. G. G. Melin, M. H. O., conducted some early work in the city last Saturday morning.

Miss Agnes Sutherland, nurse for the Tuberculosis Association, has returned from a three months' trip to her home in Scotland.

St. Andrew's Beacon.—There is a rumor in the air that Premier Fleming has had all the trouble he wants in connection with the government of the province and that he proposes retiring June 1.

The plans for the new Presbyterian church in Wolfville, have been approved by a committee in charge and the contract for its erection awarded. The price is $18,000 and the work is to be completed by November.

Eleven deaths were reported to the health officer last week. Two were from apoplexy, appendicitis, lobar pneumonia, uraemic coma, cancer of breast, urethral stricture, pernicious anaemia and pulmonary tuberculosis.

Rev. W. T. Suckling, rector of St. George's church, Palmouth, has resigned from the ministry in Nova Scotia to take effect March 31.

Robert Wade, of Donegal, Ireland, who came to New Brunswick to investigate the climate and general conditions of the country with a view of locating here, has been advised that the most desirable place, after visiting a large area of territory in the maritime provinces, decided to make his home in Sussex.

Timothy Mahoney, of Churchill, near Sussex, while roaming around in the woods the other day, came across two sheep which had been missing from his place since the first of November last.

Rev. J. H. MacDonald, late of Ottawa, has arrived in the city to take up his new duties as editor of the Maritime Baptist. He is registered at the Clifton House.

R. E. Armstrong in tendering his resignation to the St. Andrew's board of trustees, in response to the offer of the board of trade at St. John, said he did so with regret.

New Freeman.—The Catholic congregation is building a new church in Clifton House. They purchased the land from C. Darrah. The lot is recognized as one of the best building sites. They expect to start on the building in the near future.

Campbellton Graphic.—Miss Charlton of St. John has taken up a position here as teacher in Grade II, rendered vacant by the illness of Miss Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. MacKenzie of Dalhousie announce the engagement of their only daughter, Estelle Evelyn, to Walter Margus of Campbellton, N. B.

Mr. Black complained that owing to the bill having been brought in the dying hours of the session members had not had a sufficient opportunity to familiarize themselves with its provisions and obtain the views of their constituents and other employers and workmen upon it.

WEDDINGS

Vancouver, March 27.—A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Randall, 936 Spruce street, on Monday evening.

Mrs. W. Rex McLaren. The death occurred at Grand Falls on Thursday, 2nd inst. of Mrs. W. Rex McLaren, aged twenty-nine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Merrick. The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Merrick, wife of William Merrick, has occurred at her home in Brussels street, after a lingering illness.

Harold DeLong. New Germany, March 30.—On Saturday morning he passed to his eternal rest one of New Germany's brightest young men.

These Are Genuine Army Goods and in Excellent Condition. Army Grey overcoat $3.00 with cloak $2.50.

ARMY AND NAVY GOODS. These Are Genuine Army Goods and in Excellent Condition. Army Grey overcoat $3.00 with cloak $2.50.

Newman Estey. Word has been received in the city telling of the death of Newman Estey, a former resident of Florenceville, N. B.

A Sad Case. "I suppose your baby sister cries now and then" asked one of the neighbors. "Yes" said Mary. "Why, she just seems to look on the dark side of things all the time!"—Exchange.

WOODSTOCK MAN BADLY INJURED BY HORSE'S KICK. Woodstock, N. B., April 6.—(Special)—John Bagley, hotel proprietor, was kicked in the stomach by a vicious horse yesterday, and so badly injured that his life was despaired of.

ARCHBISHOP HAMILTON TO RESIGN IN JUNE. Ottawa, April 2.—Most Rev. Charles Hamilton, Anglican archbishop of Ottawa, in a circular letter to the clergy, and members of the church today, announces his resignation to take effect on June 22.

CHEW PACIFIC PLUG TOBACCO. It's the best yet boys! Advertisement featuring a cartoon illustration of a man in a suit and hat, pointing towards the text.

EXTORTION CHARGED

member from St. John county, to whom all honor was due for having moved such an amendment. He heard complaints of excessive legal costs in recovering under the provisions of the act.

The report also gives the officials of the crown land department and the outside service, as follows: OFFICERS OF THE CROWN LAND DEPARTMENT.

W. H. Berry, Fredericton, superintendent of scales. C. E. Fish, Newcastle, chief lumber scaler. A. B. O'Leary, Richibucto, chief game warden.

WOODSTOCK MAN BADLY INJURED BY HORSE'S KICK. Woodstock, N. B., April 6.—(Special)—John Bagley, hotel proprietor, was kicked in the stomach by a vicious horse yesterday, and so badly injured that his life was despaired of.

ARCHBISHOP HAMILTON TO RESIGN IN JUNE. Ottawa, April 2.—Most Rev. Charles Hamilton, Anglican archbishop of Ottawa, in a circular letter to the clergy, and members of the church today, announces his resignation to take effect on June 22.

REAL ESTATE WANT INFORMATION FROM MR. GOULD. Auctioneer F. L. Potts offered two building lots in Douglas avenue for sale at Clubb's corner on last Saturday.

WOODSTOCK COUNCIL WILL DEAL WITH HIS POWER APPLICATION When He Discloses Names in Local Company. Woodstock, N. B., April 6.—(Special)—At a meeting of the town council to-night the application of the Maine & New Brunswick Electrical Power Company for permission to enter upon the streets of the town for purposes of carrying on electric light and power business was dealt with by a resolution calling on the company to give the names of the local company which would be likely to distribute the current from the applicant company.

Building. Recently, a large honored name had passed into new ownership. Little was left but the good and strong stores all. The first thing that was to be done was to get the matter straightened out. The names of the various advertisers were advertised in the local newspapers.

TRAGIC HA. Miss Lillian Killed by Body Found Beheaded In Her S. Young Woman W From Her Stu house Univers ingham, Her Her Graduating the Fatality O.

Halifax, N. S., Apr most horrible fatalities red at Rockingham too when Miss Lillian was killed by a train, after from the car on its ation. Her head was from her body.

A particularly sad tribulation happened in the body of the young woman, who was killed by a train, after from the car on its ation. Her head was from her body.

Just how the accident definitely known, as the witnesses of the district believe it was a case of the train she was thrown under a car, passing over her neck.

Some One in C It Lit a Match Followed—Fo Milan, Italy, April 6.—A ballroom dance was built by public subscription for the army and navy.

Woodstock Council Will Deal With His Power Application When He Discloses Names in Local Company. Woodstock, N. B., April 6.—(Special)—At a meeting of the town council to-night the application of the Maine & New Brunswick Electrical Power Company for permission to enter upon the streets of the town for purposes of carrying on electric light and power business was dealt with by a resolution calling on the company to give the names of the local company which would be likely to distribute the current from the applicant company.

Building. Recently, a large honored name had passed into new ownership. Little was left but the good and strong stores all. The first thing that was to be done was to get the matter straightened out.

WOODSTOCK MAN BADLY INJURED BY HORSE'S KICK. Woodstock, N. B., April 6.—(Special)—John Bagley, hotel proprietor, was kicked in the stomach by a vicious horse yesterday, and so badly injured that his life was despaired of.

ARCHBISHOP HAMILTON TO RESIGN IN JUNE. Ottawa, April 2.—Most Rev. Charles Hamilton, Anglican archbishop of Ottawa, in a circular letter to the clergy, and members of the church today, announces his resignation to take effect on June 22.

REAL ESTATE WANT INFORMATION FROM MR. GOULD. Auctioneer F. L. Potts offered two building lots in Douglas avenue for sale at Clubb's corner on last Saturday.

WOODSTOCK COUNCIL WILL DEAL WITH HIS POWER APPLICATION When He Discloses Names in Local Company. Woodstock, N. B., April 6.—(Special)—At a meeting of the town council to-night the application of the Maine & New Brunswick Electrical Power Company for permission to enter upon the streets of the town for purposes of carrying on electric light and power business was dealt with by a resolution calling on the company to give the names of the local company which would be likely to distribute the current from the applicant company.