The Daily Tribune.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 15.

Many towns in Northumberland and other counties are refusing to vote money for the support of schools.

The school meetings. The refusal is caused by a petty feeling of opposition to the Government.

Madest. The gentleman who did most of the speaking at the Board of Trade on behalf of the diplomatic abolition treaty, known as the draft Reciprocity Treaty, writes that "so far as facts and arguments were concerned."

Dangerous Streets. To the Editor of the Tribune. Permit me through your columns to call the attention of the Street Directors to the dangerous state of streets caused by the snow drifts in the locality of Waterloo and Brussels, they being the worst thoroughfares in the city.

Border Troubles. The warlike Border journalists are going for each other's scalps with knives in each hand, instead of following the example of brotherly love set them by the St. John fraternity.

Novas Scotia News. The Grand Jury of Cumberland County, by a vote of 14 to 3, refused to grant licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

THE death is announced of John Fleming, one of the oldest of the Halifax pilots. He was 84 years of age and had been a pilot for sixty-five years, having commenced work in such when he was eighteen years old.

THE death of a young child, recorded in our obituary at that time, was caused in this way: The infant was only a few weeks old. It was sitting in its mother's lap, while she was engaged in dressing it, when an older child, but also infantile in years, approached and in that spirit of mischief which often actuates children, struck its little sister on the head with a spoon with such force that the skull was fractured, and the infant died from the shock.

THE thermometer stood as low as 23 below zero on Tuesday morning at St. Stephen. In Fredericton it was 20 below.

THE Borden's now notices the arrival of a butterfly in its sanctum. Mrs. McEwen, who kept an inn on the post road midway between Buctouche and Richibucto, and who was well known to the travelling public, died suddenly at her residence on Monday last.

Delicious Bivalves are to be had at George Sparrow's only, head of King Street. Call in and try them.

Thermometer at noon to-day—10°. The Western train arrived about 12 o'clock last night. The delay was caused by snow on the Montreal end of the line.

The St. Andrew's Curling Club commenced playing for the Polaris medal yesterday. About twenty members played, and the highest number was made by A. O. Skinner, who scored 9, which is a small number for him.

The Baptist Mission Union held a very pleasant meeting yesterday in the vestry of Brussels street Church. The ladies served tea at 6 o'clock, and the children's choir was well heard.

The Halifax British Colonist has been re-commenced, and the Daily Morning Herald has been started in its place. The new paper begins well, and maintains the staunch Opposition tone that marked the Colonist.

The remains of R. B. Weldon, Esq., were conveyed by the 7 o'clock train this morning to Dorchester for interment in the family burial place. Quite a number of temporary men and friends followed the remains to the station.

A party numbering about thirty enjoyed a supper at the One Mile House last evening. The evening was passed by the conversation of the guests, and Mr. Ward was applauded as a caterer.

The severe cold-to-day and snow drifts render it almost impossible for travel, and in consequence Mr. Boyd will not leave the Sheriff's office this evening. It will take place next week, of which due notice will be given.

Accident at the Skating Rink. Mr. George Morrison, Jr., met with quite a serious accident at the Rink last night. He fell while skating, and another skater struck him on the knee with his skate, splitting his knee cap. Mr. Morrison was conveyed home to a coach, and will be laid up by the accident for some time.

Les's Opera House. The entertainment passed off very pleasantly. Mr. and Mrs. Ware won additional applause, and Bernardo and Sassy Sal could not be surpassed. The programme will be repeated this evening.

To Singing Parties. Mr. M. Sprague has two commodious sleighs which will comfortably seat twenty to twenty-five persons each. These sleighs will be behind for sleighing parties, and provided with good teams and careful drivers, at moderate charges. Orders left at Messrs. Lewis & Allington's will receive prompt attention. Jan 15/74

The Carnival. Active preparations are being made for the Carnival at the Skating Rink on Tues, day evening, and ladies and gentlemen are puzzling their brains to get up something original in the line of costumes. The Directors offer a prize of $20 for the most original costume, and it is expected there will be a lively contest. As usual there will be a committee of ladies to receive the fair masqueraders. The rink was never better patronized than it is this winter, and perfect order is maintained.

The Drug Store on fire. At least one would have thought so last evening, for the crowd around it was so great. It seems, however, that it was only the people purchasing the great remedy for Catarrh—Reder's German Sulfur.

Snow-Shoeing. The Snow Shoe Club had their first tramp last evening. The party left King's Square at 7.30, walked to the railway bridge, then through Winter street and along the brow of the hill, striking Lovers' Lane a little this side of Gilbert's Island. They followed Lovers' Lane some distance, then struck across the marsh towards the cemetery, followed the road to the One Mile House, then through the fields south-westerly to the Leach Lomond Road, re-entering the city by that road. The party enjoyed the tramp hugely, and nothing stopped their onward march. Fences were vaulted, creeks and ditches crossed, hills scaled, white marsh and hilly ridge supreme. The party were much interested in the vagaries of one of their number who insisted on several occasions on walking on his hands. The rest found it hard enough to walk on their feet. Their next tramp will come off on Monday evening.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellew's Hypophosphites he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, while man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

The Circuit Court.

Yesterday afternoon the Court was engaged with the case of Wright vs. Dolan. At 5.30 the counsel had concluded their addresses and the Court adjourned. His Honor charged the jury this morning and after a short absence they returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $651.50. In making up the verdict Dan Godfrey was valued at $720 when the accident occurred. To this they added the bills incurred by Mr. Wright during the horse's illness, and subtracted the present value of Dan Godfrey, which they put at $150, leaving the above balance.

Ladd vs Vernon was the next case, and the fact that it was to come on attracted a large number of spectators. All the seats were occupied, and outside the rail a large number were standing. D. S. Kerr, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff and S. R. Thomson and Chas. Duff, Esq., for the defendant. Mr. Kerr occupied a seat at the right of the table and nearest the jury. In front of him was a row of eight or ten legal authorities. From each of these protruded a paper marker for convenience of reference. These books he glanced at the apple of his eye, and would allow no one to touch. He had a large number of papers which contained the evidence given at the former trial. Messrs. Thomson and Duff had no such formidable array of books or documents. They sat at the end of the table, the former, perusing some minutes, and the latter, as is his wont, twirling his spectacles and laughing and chatting with the recorder. A special panel of fourteen had been summoned, but only five put in an appearance, and there was a long delay. One of the jury was out in the hall, but would not go into the Court room. On this being announced to the Judge he said he could do something with him if he was inside, but there was no way to bring him in. It was cold outside, but Mr. Murray did not mind staying there a bit if by so doing he was not forced to serve. The five on hand were Charles Hillyard, commission merchant, unmarried; P. P. Clark, married; E. D. Wata, dry goods merchant, married; M. C. Barbour, do.; and George A. Barker, druggist, married. The patience of the Court was exhausted at length and the Sheriff was directed to call takersmen. Isaac Olive was first called. He is a good looking young man, but, after a consultation between Messrs Ladd and her mother, Mr. Kerr preemptorily challenged him. With a look of delight he stepped down. C. F. Tilly was next called and accepted. He smiled on one side of his mouth. Samuel Clark, a Councillor of the city, and a professional juror, was the next. A peremptory challenge gave him the privilege of being absent from the Court House for a week. Henry C. Littlehale, a clerk from Carleton, was as summarily dismissed. "Asa D. Blackie," called the Sheriff, did up stepped the plaintiff, an experienced jurymen. "He must not go on," said Miss Ladd in a loud whisper. "Mother, tell Mr. Kerr that he over the Commercial Bank." The information was conveyed to Mr. Kerr, and a hurried conversation took place. Mr. Kerr had, however, challenged peremptorily all he had a right to, and he declined to challenge for cause. He stated his objection, but the counsel on the opposite side refused to hear anything but a proper challenge, which, said Mr. Thomson, "I will be prepared to meet." These two were, therefore, sworn, and took seats of honor with the five specials.

Mr. Kerr opened the case for the plaintiff, and had not finished his address when the court adjourned at 10 o'clock. This is the case arising from the suspension of the Commercial Bank. The plaintiff claims damages from Mr. Vernon for an alleged assault in her own house. It was tried two years ago and the jury disagreed.

Skating Carnival. To the Editor of the Tribune. Would you please inform me what the Directors of the Skating Rink mean by "original character." It is getting up a dress which has never appeared before, or is it hiring a fancy dress from a costume which has never been worn before, or is it getting up your dress and carrying out the character in full by giving your opinion on the subject you will oblige yours. CARNEVAL.

FRENCH LANGUAGE.—Mr. Bernard returns thanks to all those who have so kindly patronized him, and begs to state that he has a few hours to spare. Likewise after July he intends giving up teaching. Jan 15/74

An Important Decision.—Liquor Sales by Commission Merchants Illegal. Honey & Co., Commission Merchants, sued E. Buest, in the City Court, for the price of a cask of Canadian oil, payment having been refused on the ground that the sale was illegal. Mr. Buest, on the trial, Mr. Alward, for the defence, asked for a nonsuit on the ground that no one but a wholesale licensed dealer in spirits can recover for sale, and the question was fully argued. Mr. Huntington for the plaintiff. Yesterday the Court, Judge Peters and Alderman Peters presiding, granted the nonsuit and declared that commission merchants are liable to a fine of from $8 to $40 for every liquor sale they make. This is an important decision, as commission merchants have always been in the habit of dealing in spirits, and will create a flutter along the Market Wharves. The commission men must take out wholesale liquor licenses or always dispose of their spirit consignments by auction.

"I have Catarrh," says almost every one we meet in these days. Well, it will soon lead to consumption and then death if you don't purchase some of Fellew's German Sulfur, a medicine that always cures the most difficult of cases.

Shipping News.

The brigantine Wolfette, of Liverpool, N. S., at Vinery Haven, 12 days from St. Thomas, during a heavy N. W. gale, midnight of the 9th inst., dragged her anchors and went ashore. Having procured assistance from the shore she was got off the following day without much damage.

Sale of Wreck Property.—The wreck of the brigantine Helen, before reported ashore at Herring Cove Head, N. S., has been sold at auction, realizing $63.

The R. M. S. Nova Scotia, which arrived at Halifax Wednesday morning, reports having experienced very heavy W. and N. W. gales on the passage. Her rigging, sides and deck were covered with ice.

The Anchor Line Steamers.—A telegram from Messrs. Henderson Bros. to Messrs. Scammell Bros. announces the following sailings of steamers for the spring trade, and rates for freight:

The Acadia leaves Glasgow 27th February, Liverpool 3rd March; Sidonian and Tyrion succeeding at fortnightly intervals; India leaves London 23rd March. Rates for five goods 40s., coarser goods 30s.

The Acadia has laid forty feet dead to her length and is now capable of carrying a very large cargo. The Sidonian, Captain Edwards, which follows the Acadia, is one of the staunchest and best boats of the line, and her commander second to none. His many friends will be pleased to welcome him back to Saint John. Our merchants will avail themselves of this early information, and govern themselves accordingly.

The bark George Walker, of Pictou, N. S., at Liverpool 25th ult., from Bahia, reports that on the 11th she shipped a heavy sea, which washed away two boats, carried away a portion of the topgallant rail, smashed the front of the cabin house on deck, and had a number of sails carried away; was obliged to jettison part of the cargo. In lat 48 N., lon 5 W., they passed a large waterlogged ship with only her mainmast standing.

The ship Peter Maxwell, from Philadelphia for Antwerp, before reported put into Sydney, C. B., has been caught in the ice and is not likely to get away before the spring. She is owned by Messrs. J. & R. Reed of this city. Point Lepreau, Jan. 15, 9 a. m.—Wind N. N. W., strong, cloudy.

City Police Court. There were four occupants of the dock this morning, and at least two familiar faces.

John Moore, to a charge of simple drunkenness, pleaded guilty, and was fined $4. He sat once paid the money. Joseph Bally was arrested drunk in Dock street, and was also called upon to pay $4.

Patrick Collins, arrested drunk in Union street, was fined $4. William Gibson has done his best to get into the penitentiary. Three times within a few days he has sought protection, and claimed a home for six months under the vagrancy act, but he has always been sent away. Yesterday he started on a new tack and got drunk. He was successful this time, as the Magistrate fined him $6 or 2 months in the penitentiary.

Auction Sale. Lockhart & Chipman, at noon to-day, again sold H. R. Banny's note, in favor of C. A. Robertson, for $150. There was a large crowd, some of whom said yesterday's sale was a bogus one. Mr. Lockhart said it was no such thing. He sold the note, made a commission, and paid the money received from Mr. McKean over to the holder at once. What Mr. McKean wished to sell the note for he could not tell. The bidding was quite lively, but at the auctioneer's efforts could not bring it up to the price it sold for yesterday. It was finally knocked down to Freeman Wray Wisdom for $145.50. The note, it is said, will be sold again. At the same time the Kee property, at the south side of Queen's Square, was sold. It is the house on lot No. 1021, at present occupied by Mrs. Dr. Boyd, and was purchased by James Gordon Forbes, Esq., for $5000. The property in St. Andrew's street belonging to the same estate was sold to John Kee for $1650.
