Death of Prominent Y. W. C. A. Official.
Many Y. W. C. A. women will hear with keen regret of the death of Miss Charlotte Suffice, for many years general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Ottawa, and at the time of her death one of the western field secretaries. Miss Suffice was a prominent delegate at the convention at Hamilton two weeks ago. For six months in 1918 Miss Suffice traveled in the eastern field and the associations at Halifax, St. John and Quebec were quickened to further service. Afterwards she spent 18 months in the western field from Salt Lake City to the coast.

Clearing for the Week.

J. Hessehauser and Son Dispose of Their Business.
This morning J. Agnew, Ltd., purchased the stock and good will of J. Hessehauser and Son. Being forced to move from their present store, this was a necessary step.

Mr. John and Mrs. Hessehauser will remain in charge of the store for Agnew's, Ltd., and old customers will find them there as usual.

In the near future the old store will be closed, and the two stocks put into one.

Social Dance by Laf Lot Klub.
The Laf Lot Klub held a most successful dance in the Masonic Hall last evening, guests being present from Waterloo, Galt, and other cities, and all voted it one of the finest ever given under the auspices of the Klub. Krug's orchestra were at their best and the large crowd were delighted beyond measure.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wolfhardt, they having just returned from their honeymoon trip and they received a most hearty welcome. The Klub are making preparations for the holding of another dance on Christmas night which promises to surpass anything they have ever attempted.

BRIDGEPORT
The many friends of Mr. Menno Heekendorn are sorry to hear he is laid up through sickness and trust he may have a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hinburg and family have returned home from Hamburg where they attended the Wankin-Dietrich wedding.

Mr. Herman Underwood is wearing a broad smile, it is a girl. (Congratulations.)
