Why All Need Life Insurance

Life Insurance not only protects those dependent upon you as no other investment can, but it is the surest preventative of poverty in old age that civilization has produced. There is no better "old age pension" fund, the payments for which are largely at your own disposal.

You need it for the protection of your business; it has often proved a man's greatest friend. You may have it payable in a lump sum to provide for unforeseen losses through business troubles, or it may be paid in equal monthly sums as a guaranteed support to your family after death.

You need it when the storms of life are about to lift the waters of adversity above your head. Whether you be poor or rich, young or middle-aged, you need life insurance NOW. Now is the only time to take out your first policy, or add to your present security.

To get into the Ark of Safety see one of our agents or write to-day for particulars of our inexpensive, liberal policies, giving age and date of your nearest birthday.
