

	PAGE		PAGE
Irish representative Peers . . . . .	66n, 67-70	King's eldest son, by birth Duke of Cornwall . . . . .	67
Irregular Messages . . . . .	310	King's consent to presentation of a petition, how given . . . . .	281-2
James I. gave Universities the privilege of sending Members to Parliament . . . . .	74	..... subjects are all impeachable . . . . .	330
..... tears Commons' protestation from the Journals . . . . .	55	Kingsale Lord, peculiar privilege of . . . . .	24n
Joint Address of both Houses . . . . .	304	Kingston, Duchess of, her case . . . . .	27n
..... Committees of both Houses . . . . .	297-98	Knights of the Shire, wages of . . . . .	44n
Jones, Sir Thomas . . . . .	18	Land-tax assessment or redemption, a qualification to vote at Elections . . . . .	75
Journals of the House of Lords . . . . .	321	Lawyers, attempt to exclude from Parliament, App. p. xvi.
..... Sessional Com. to inspect . . . . .	286	Leaving out words by amendment . . . . .	137
..... of the House of Commons . . . . .	321	Legislative Council, Members of, exempt from Militia service during peace . . . . .	23n
..... manner of making entries in . . . . .	322	..... as to their franking . . . . .	33n
..... misentry . . . . .	321	..... may not vote at Elections for Members of Assembly . . . . .	78
..... transcribed and printed . . . . .	322	..... may be naturalized aliens . . . . .	69n
..... distributed, to Members, &c. . . . .	322n	..... oath to be taken by, before sitting in the House . . . . .	69n
..... Committee to search . . . . .	296-7	Legislative measures to be law, must come from the three Estates . . . . .	47
Judges, form of examination of, in House of Commons . . . . .	315	Lenthall, Mr. Speaker, anecdote of . . . . .	61n
..... how far they may take cognizance of privilege of Parlt. 17, 45, 46 . . . . .	81	Letter-missive from Chancery to a Peer	25
..... may not sit in H. of Commons . . . . .	81	Letters Patent bills, special proofs required to be given before Committees on . . . . .	202
..... their places, in attending on the Lords . . . . .	27, 28, 70, 71	Libels, Seditious, privilege from arrest does not extend to . . . . .	38
..... Estate bills referred to, for legal opinion on . . . . .	236	..... Members expelled for . . . . .	ib.
Judgment, proxies not to be used in giving . . . . .	18	..... Attorney General ordered to prosecute . . . . .	39
Judicature of the Lords . . . . .	30	Lie on the table, question ordered to . . . . .	136
Judicial cases, Proxies may not be used in, though by bill . . . . .	18	Limitation, Peers claiming by, to be introduced . . . . .	69
..... persons (except Judges, &c.) not ineligible to sit in H. of Com. . . . .	82	List of Committees sitting to be hung up in certain places . . . . .	253
Jurisdiction of Parliament . . . . .	13	Lives, &c. of Peers not to be posthumously published without consent of heirs, &c. . . . .	28
Jury, Members of both Houses exempt from serving on . . . . .	27, 39	London, Bishop of, his precedence in the House of Lords . . . . .	65
..... privilege formerly possessed by Peers, in trials by . . . . .	26	..... Corporation of, form of receiving petitions from . . . . .	280
Justice, Courts of, see Courts of Justice .		Lord Chancellor, see Chancellor, Lord .
..... the first duty of Parliament . . . . .	49	Lord High Steward, duties of . . . . .	331
Justices of the Peace, when Peers are, need not be resident . . . . .	25	Lords, House of, what bills must have their origin there . . . . .	160
..... may not vote at Elections . . . . .	78	..... as a Court of Judicature . . . . .	30
King, has sole right of summoning Parlt. . . . .	121	..... Journals of, Committee to search . . . . .	296, 297
..... opens Parliament . . . . .	122-3	..... may not alter or amend Supply Bills . . . . .	32, 33n, 270
..... cannot adjourn either House without their consent . . . . .	151	..... Messages from . . . . .	307
..... proceedings on breach of privileges committed by . . . . .	40	Lords Spiritual—their number . . . . .	62
..... breach of privileges for him to make member of Commons a sheriff . . . . .	83	..... right by which they sit in the House . . . . .	62, 63
..... breach of privileges for him to notice proceedings in Parliament . . . . .	39	..... Baronial tenure of . . . . .	63
..... Speaker presented to, for approval . . . . .	54	..... their privileges . . . . .	ib.
..... free access to, a priv. of Parlt. . . . .	56	..... their rank and precedence . . . . .	65
..... messages from . . . . .	305	..... do not vote in cases of life and death . . . . .	63, 64
..... disorderly to report his opinion in debate . . . . .	97	Lords Temporal—their number . . . . .	66, 67
..... pardon by, not pleadable in an impeachment . . . . .	335	..... sit in Parliament as Barons . . . . .	66
..... see James I.		..... their privileges, see Privileges of the Lords .
King's of England careful of the rights of the people . . . . .	48
King's deer, priv. of Peerage to kill . . . . .	28
..... evidence, Peers may not be . . . . .	27
King's presence, striking in, Peers have no privilege for . . . . .	29		