

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 18

- Seizure before Judgment, ordinance concerning, 860.
- Shelburne, Earl of, references to, 132, 147, 150, 153, 159, 276, 281, 285, 287, 288, 294, 297, 299, 326, 372, 393, 394, 458, 474, 478, 509, 844.
- Shelburne, Earl of, President of the Board of Trade, note 2, p. 159; appointed Secretary of State for the Southern Department, note 1, p. 276; letter to, from Carleton on state of province, 281; letter to Carleton re improvement of the constitution, 281; letter to Carleton re defects in system of judicature, 287.
- Sheridan, Richard, comments on the powers vested in Governor, note 2, p. 767; thinks the British ministry guilty of neglect in adjusting the laws of Canada, note 1, p. 955.
- Sheriffs, proposed appointment of, instead of provost-marshal, 359; annual election of, by assemblies, unconstitutional, 981; to be appointed by governors for each district, 995, 1010.
- Shoolbred, John, merchant of London, is granted land on Baie de Chaleurs for purposes of fishing trade, 828.
- Sills, Samuel, grand juror at Quebec, 214, 215.
- Simcoe, Lieutenant-Governor, note 2, p. 953.
- Simmonet, Fr., signs petition for retention of old laws and customs, 508, 510, 511.
- Sloane, Hans, member of Board of Trade, 724.
- Smith, Chief Justice William, references to, 816, 841, 843, 846, 847, 854, 857, 858, 860, 864, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 1006, 1007, 1017, 1018, 1020, 1024, 1025.
- Smith, Chief Justice William, letter to Nepean on the Quebec Act, 841 (see p. 846); remarks on the Court of Common Pleas, 842; his draught of an ordinance for the better administration of justice, 847; summary of an ordinance for the relief of the poor by providing for the dispensation of justice in small causes, note 2, p. 850; censure of his speech considered by Lord Sydney to be an attack on the freedom of debate, 864; bill "to secure the Royal Revenues and to regulate the Proceedings in Crown Causes, and to give the subject the benefit of Appeal from large fines," note 1, p. 867; assists Carleton in amending the first draught of the Constitutional Act, 1006; draught of a clause for the Constitutional Act re the boundary between Quebec and New Brunswick, 1017; letter to Dorchester concerning plans for a general government of the British dominions in North America, 1018; draught of additions to the Constitutional Bill for a general government, 1020; re trial of criminal offences, 1024, referred to, 1005, 1018.
- Soldiers, grants of lands to be given to, 155.
- Solicitor General. See Attorney and Solicitor General.
- Sorel, Seignior of, to be allotted and granted to the Loyalists who withdrew from the colonies after the signing of the Treaty of Peace (1783), 831.
- Speakers of the Council, to be appointed or removed by the Governor, 994, 1009, 1035.
- Spencer, Robert, member of Board of Trade, 704.
- Spry, Captain, engineer at Quebec, 48.
- Stanhope, Admiral, takes possession of Isle of Minorca, 482.
- Steel, Mr., master of the King's vessel "Mercury," council requests information from, re the navigation of the St. Lawrence, 901.
- Stewart, Charles, member of the Council (1765), 279.
- Stuart, Andrew, member of Board of Trade, 724.
- Stuart, Dr. John, missionary to Mohawk Indians, first clergyman appointed in Upper Canada, note 2, p. 944.
- Suckling, George, Attorney General of Quebec, dismissed from office, note 2, p. 256.
- Superior Court, established, 205; appeals from, allowed to Governor in Council where value of contested matter is over £300, and from there to King in Council where value is £500 or over, 206, 329; judges to adhere to Custom of Paris, 269; slowness of proceedings in, 353; suggestion for composition and powers of, 436; ordinance of 1777 creates the Governor and Council a Court of Appeals in matters exceeding £10, their judgment to be final in cases under £500, 680. See also King's Bench.
- Supreme Court, of Criminal Justice, ordinance establishing a third term for sittings of, 250 (see also p. 253); power given the Chief Justice to hold, 273; established by ordinance of 1777, 690.
- Sydney, Lord, referred to, 777, 778, 793, 795, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 863, 865, 874, 946, 949, 952, 954, 956, 958, 969, 971, 985, 988, 991, 1004, 1030.
- Sydney, Lord, holds office of Secretary of State, note 2, p. 777; despatch to Hope, indicating the policy of the British Government in the struggle between the Americans and the English to secure influence over the Indians, 805; despatch to Hope re proposed increase in the number of Canadian members in the Legislative Council, 807; letter to Joseph Brant, concerning British support of Indians in case of land dispute with the Americans, 809; letter to Brant, concerning compensation to Indians for losses sustained during the war, 809; despatch to Hope, announcing Carleton's appointment as Governor General and offering Hope the Lieutenant Governorship of New Brunswick, should Colonel Carleton Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick assume that office for Quebec, 810; letter to Carleton, on the attitude of Attorney General Monk towards the judges of the Common Pleas, 863; is of opinion that the Canadians have a right to retain the laws guaranteed them by the capitulation, 863;