Coalition to be formed

By DAVID MOGILEVSKY

All the universities in New Brunswick are in the process of forming the N.B. Coalition of Students. This is the climax of many meetings to discuss the coalition. There have been two meetings this academic year. One of these was of a general nature and the other was to draw up a constitution. UNB has taken a leading role in the formation of the coalition.

While writing the constitution, two major problems were the voting procedure and the dues for membership. One idea was to have each university giving a certain amount of money to the coalition per student. Voting in the coalition, however, would be one university one vote. This idea would have been detrimental to UNB. Fortunately, a more equitable solution was reached. The N.B. Coalition dues are going to be one hundred dollars per university. Each university will be given one vote in the coalition.

This coalition will be an independent body and not a member of the Canadian Federation of Students. John Bosnitch, President of the Student Union, explains that "By not being direct, members of the CFS but by being allied with them, we save the UNB students $24,000 in membership fees" to the Federation. It was felt that a New Brunswick coalition could more accurately reflect the needs and wants of New Brunswick students than the CFS.

The first priority of the coalition is to gain direct influence in the affairs of government that concerns students. By having a N.B. Coalition of Students, there will exist an organization to represent all N.B. students in a loud and united voice.

Even in its infant state, the coalition has already had some success. The press conference during the last provincial election is sighted as an accomplishment. This press conference showed to the people of New Brunswick that the students care about their present state. Issues that are the immediate concern of the coalition are tuition and rents.

There was an Atlantic Union of Students a few years ago. It was discontinued partly because of the disunity between the different provinces. Since this coalition is a provincial group, it should unite the group under a common cause.
