

greatly enjoy having Jim Lee. Early in Dec. I go to Italy to winter quietly on the Riviera - my sister, & Her sisters perhaps, joins me there & I hope, if Fate will only leave me alone for a bit, to get back to quite normal vitality & power of enjoyment.
So much for myself - & I hope some day I may hear as much, & perhaps even more of yours. My tankers address remains always the best mode of reaching me.
If I address you wrongly do correct me, for I don't know what you really are, though I am as ever most faithfully & gratefully yours resided & refused - but then I started off on an ill-starred motor trip through Scotland with a cruiser. I had looked forward to it so greatly, for I had never been to Scotland, & we were to start from London & see some of the great Cathedrals on the way. This we did, but she ruined it so, going such long distances each day & giving so little time to the Cathedrals that it became more fatiguing to me than a pleasure - & at last, he-
