

be given to the Treaties at this time.

~~It is to be understood that~~ The approval by the ^{two} Houses of Parliament of these Treaties does not imply their immediate ratification by Canada. ^{To this end,} Two steps must thereafter be taken. First, a submission must be made with the approval of the Governor in Council to the King, asking for the execution by His Majesty of Instruments of Ratification. Second, the Instruments of Ratification signed by the King must be deposited as provided for in the Treaties.

The final Articles of each of the Treaties provide that in the first instance the entry into force of the Treaties will depend upon the deposit of Instruments of Ratification by certain of the Great Powers which are members of the Council of Foreign Ministers. In the case of Italy, these are the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, and France. In the case of Hungary and Roumania the deposit of Instruments of Ratification by the Soviet Union, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America is required. The Treaty of Peace with Finland will ^{come} ~~enter~~ into force when the Soviet Union and United Kingdom have deposited their Instruments of Ratification. The
