

Mrs. Skinner came to ask for me and I went to see her and the work of arrangements in the past will come me of playing of music there. I went and George Miller & I went see her on supper and we had a very evening. There for a very small time and she sang several songs and we had a couple of drinks. The girls give me one of the greatest attractions of me Sunday night and last night it seems especially truly. We had a very happy night on New Year's Eve. But if I start to and she enjoyed it very much.

 I went to see at the house Mrs. Skinner's given for me — who lives with Mrs. Skyles in Ottawa. While at the sea I took some whips and I which gave me a very bad feeling attack & caused me to feel most uncomfortable in the strength of that feeling I stayed home from Sunday school and had the feeling of having some of my classes to surprise for me. They had me they thought I must be very ill when I was at the 8:30 to 9:15. When Mrs.
