

ADVERTISERS ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

- A stands for Allen who keeps a book-store.
B stands for Brown the Jeweler next door.
C stands for Cahill who'll Shave you quite well.
D for Dow Windsor, of the Royal Hotel.
E for F. Elliot who can tog out a swell.
F stands for Fraser who runs a good hack.
G stands for Grant whose Leather don't crack.
H stands for Heckman, you know who I mean.
I stands for Inglis, who drives for the "Queen."
J stands for Jennett, whose delf is sold low.
K stands for Kelly with Glassey in Co.
L stands for Longard who will please without fail.
M for McDougall who makes Ginger Ale.
N stands for Newcombe on Barrington Street.
O stands for Oland whose Ale's hard to beat.
P stands for Pond—please pond-er it o'er.
Q stands for Quinn, who will please you I'm sure.
R stands for Ruggles, who keeps on Argyle.
S stands for Smith who will fit you in style.
T stands for Thomas where Hats are sold low.
U for Umbrellas to LePine's you can go.
V stands for Vinegar, from Wier you can buy.
W for Wallace, who to please you will try.
X for the X-sell-ent goods you will find.
Y and Z—well I guess about these I won't mind.