

- 308; clears out S. Eustatius, ii. 57
- Roosevelt, President Theodore, on the mob of New York, ii. 111, 115, 152
- Ross, John, Congress places a spirited order with, ii. 71, 72
- Roxbury, near Boston, i. 69
- Rutledge, Edward, i. 213, 215, 218; one of the delegates to the Howes, ii. 151
- Ruville's Life of Lord Chatham quoted, i. 271
- Rymer, Jas., surgeon, on the work of the pressgang, i. 316, 317
- Sabine, on the treatment of the Loyalists, i. 33, 38 n.; quoted, i. 42, 129; quoted ii. 95
- Sackville, Lord George (later Germaine), at Minden, 1759, ii. 221, 222
- St. Clair, General, at Ticonderoga, ii. 305 ff.
- St. Eustatius, ii. 57
- Sandwich, Earl of, i. 246
- Sandy Hook, ii. 140; arrival of Sir William Howe at, 1776, ii. 142
- Salem, Mass., i. 49 n., 156
- Saratoga, ii. 224 ff., 321 ff.; convention of, ii. 337; patriots' rejoicings following their victory at, ii. 347; news of, how received by English Whigs, ii. 348
- Schuyler, Gen., ii. 5; his treatment of New England officers, ii. 24 n.; on Washington's address at Newburgh, ii. 45; on the condition of the troops, ii. 51, 321 ff.
- Scots Greys, North British Dragoons, i. 282
- Seabury, Dr., afterwards Bishop, i. 31, 32; ii. 98, 99
- Search warrants, i. 78, 79
- Sewell, Chief Justice, "The Selling of Joseph," i. 51 n.
- Shay's Rebellion, i. 120
- Shelburne, Earl of (Marquess of Lansdowne), i. 222, 244
- Sherman, General, his conduct of the Second Civil War in Georgia and the Carolinas, ii. 214 ff.
- Shipping Laws, i. 58 and n., 59
- Skene, Colonel, also called Major Skene, ii. 216
- Skenesborough, ii. 307, 309 ff.
- Skirmish at Boundbrook, ii. 209; at Concord, i. 158 ff.; Harlem, ii. 167; Lexington, i. 159 ff.; ii. 138
- Slavery in New England, i. 51 ff.
- Slavery, black and white, i. 52; hardships of, i. 55, 56; petition of Boston slaves against, i. 52 ff.
- Slaves in the Patriot army. (See Negroes.)
- Smallpox, i. 181; parties made up for infection, ii. 86 ff.; virulence of, in December 1775, ii. 93
- Smith, Rev. Thos., his Diary quoted, i. 28, 29 n., 70, 71, 188, 228
- Smuggling, i. 12-16, 35
- "Sons of Liberty," i. 31 ff.; at the "Bunch of Grapes," Boston, i. 123; rob Portsmouth (Me.) Fort of stores and arms, i. 145; ii. 135
- Sparks, President Jared, quoted, ii. 281, 282 and n.
- Stamp Act, details of, i. 19; Franklin on, i. 20; opposition to, i. 25; outrages in connection with, i. 29 ff.; ii. 119 ff.
- Standish, Miles, i. 47
- Stark, John, gives his fortune for the Patriot cause, ii. 201
- Staten Island, Lord Howe off, ii. 158 n.
- Stedman, Charles, Commissary, his History of the American War quoted, ii. 143, 145, 149, 157, 162, 181, 325
- Stenton, James Logan's house at, ii. 261
- Stephen, Maj.-General, drunk on duty, ii. 267
- Steuben, ii. 14; appeals for army equipment, ii. 39, 40; describes destitution of officers, ii. 51
- Stillwater, near Saratoga, General Horatio Gates at, ii. 324
- Stirling, Lord, otherwise Major-General Alexander and Continental paper money, i. 229; capture of, ii. 150
- Sugar Hill, capture of, ii. 306
- Sullivan, Major-General, the clothing of his troops, ii. 76; capture of, ii. 150, 197; at Brandywine, ii. 241 ff.
- Tar and feathers: horrible outrages on Loyalists, i. 40 ff.; sufferings of James Smith, i. 40; of Captain Davis and Colonel Willard, i. 43; of Customs Officer Malcolm, i. 44; Lord William Campbell describes outrages on a gunner for loyalty, ii. 134; Mr. Roosevelt describes treatment of Loyalists, ii. 152; Mr. John Adams' mild disapproval of, ii. 188
- Tarleton, Banastre, in command of British Legion of American Loyalists, ii. 270 ff.
- Taxation, Colonial impatience of, i. 9-