GOSSIP.

R. J. Laurie, Wolverton, breeder of high-class poultry, reports trade good during the past season, having supplied customers from British Columbia to Prince Edward Island. Young birds are now for sale; also pure-bred Tamworth hogs.

Mr. H. J. Davis, Woodstock, Ont., who has been in Scotland and England making selections of Shorthorns and Yorkshires for importation, writes under date July 25th, 1902, from Ashbourne: "I am shipping per SS. Kastalia, from Glasgow, August 2nd, 25 head of Scotch Shorthorns, comprising representatives of such families as Orange Blossoms, Village Maids, Clementinas, Marias, Broadhooks. All are heifers or four-year-old cows, excepting four young bulls, sired by such noted bulls as Cornelius, Villager and Fitzallan. Also included in the lot is the finely-bred bull, Viceroy, two years old and bred by Lord Lovat. Have also secured eleven head of Large White Yorkshires from the herds of Sandens Spencer and Lord Roseberry, Dalmeny. The British herds are in better shape than last year, and prices are higher, especially on animals of merit."

Jas. M. Kenan, of Vancouver, B. C., in an interview with the Toronto World, says that the prospects for owners of sheep on the Dominion side of the line are very promising at present, though at a disadvantage since the advent of the McKinley bill, which was designed especially to encourage the production of wool on the American side. It was practically a barrier to competition from the Canadian sheep-owners, and gave the American sheep-owners a differential of 10 per cent. and the added freight from Australia, against competition from that direction. Mr. Kenan said some owners of sheep on the Canadian side had taken their sheep into the States, but they were now coming back. His experience had been that the tariff had not very largely increased the production of wool in the Western States. The flocks in Western Canada were largely increasing and he thought the general era of good times in the Northwest Territories would result in much greater prosperity for the owners of Canadian sheep.

Southdown sheep and collie dogs are the stock specialties of Mr. Robt. McEwen, of Byron, Ont., five miles from the City of London as intimated in his advertisement in this paper. Mr. McEwen has for many years maintained on his Alloway Lodge Stock Farm a high-class flock of Southdowns, which have been kept strictly up-to-date by the use of first-class sires selected from the best importations and bred in the most popular prizewinning blood lines. Stock sent out from this flock has invariably given satisfaction to purchasers and made a good record at the shows. Mr. McEwen's collies are noted as being of the most approved type and breeding, and have been widely sought after by readers of the "Farmer's Advocate," who have noticed that those sent out as premiums for lists of new subscribers to the "Farmer's Advocate" have been selected from the Alloway Lodge kennels. Note the advertisement, and write the Colonel for prices and particulars of his Southdowns and collies.

IMPORTED STOCK FOR CANADA.

A. W. Smith, Maple Lodge, Ont., has secured a noted Border Leicester ram, the all-round winner for 1901, from Mr. McIntosh, near Brechin, Scotland. The figure was a long one; this ram only coming into possession of his previous owner a year ago at £80.

Arthur Johnston, H. J. Davis and R. S. Nicholson are now in Scotland making selections of Shorthorns. H. J. Davis is also importing a number of Yorkshires from Lord Roseberry's herd at Dalmeny Park.

W. B. Watt, Salem, Ont., has now in quarantine a lot of Shorthorns of good pedigree and evenness of type.

Jas. Bowman, Guelph, recently landed with an importation of Angus cattle from the well-known herds of Powie, Auchmaguie and Birtley Hall. A bull from Ballinloch is to follow by a later shipment.

By the same boat, SS. Martha, are a few sheep for Mr. Bowman and three Leicester gimmers for J. M. Gardhouse, Highfield.

Alex. Isaac, Romanton, Ont., is importing some Shorthorns from Scotland, which have been selected for him by Geo. Campbell, Whitehouse. Among the Isaac lot are some very good things, notably a roan cow, one of the Kinellar Marys; a Moss Rose cow from Tilthouries, a prizewinner got by a Collymoe Nonpareil; and a red cow, Rosemary Nonpareil, from Kilbreen, from which herd came the noted White Heather, last year's Royal champion female, recently illustrated in the F. A.
