

Our Children's Corner.

Barrow Song.

One more song before we sever,
One last song and then we part,
Friends of youth and friends forever,
Linked so fondly heart to heart;

Waiting.

Remember, brother, that it is not the laboring
but the waiting you will find hardest
and most necessary; and a reverend Father of the church,
to a young minister just setting out for a pastorate in the West.

Waiting.

Remember, brother, that it is not the laboring
but the waiting you will find hardest
and most necessary; and a reverend Father of the church,
to a young minister just setting out for a pastorate in the West.

Waiting.

Remember, brother, that it is not the laboring
but the waiting you will find hardest
and most necessary; and a reverend Father of the church,
to a young minister just setting out for a pastorate in the West.
