

DUDES AND DADS.

Congressman U. S. Hall of Missouri is the largest farmer in the state.

Adam Badeau is getting very corpulent and looks less and less like a general the older he grows.

Edison is to connect a telephone with the arm which will bring the music of it, motions to our ears.

Three of the principal surgeons at the London hospital are, curiously enough, respectively called Eves, Reeves and Treves.

Ex-Senator Dawes is living quietly in his Pittsfield home. Strangely enough, he seems perfectly contented with a quiet life after about 30 years of an unusually busy public career.

Mr. Satelli, the papal ablegate, writes his speeches for public use in Italian. They are then translated into English, after which he commits them to memory and delivers them.

Mr. Neary of Newark, N. J., recently received from the treasury department a new $5 note for one that was eaten by his goat, which he killed to recover the fragments that accompanied his affidavit.

John C. Eno makes a tour every day of the popular cafes up town in New York, beginning at the Fifth Avenue hotel and extending as far northward as the Metropole. It takes him about four hours to make the journey.

J. F. Deland of Boston, who is an expert counselor to business men, was the inventor of the "flying wedge" in football, which has caused so much havoc among college teams. Mr. Deland never played a game of football in his life.

John W. Mackay leads a very retired life in New York. Rising early each morning, he exercises with dumbbells and Indian clubs for an hour or more. He takes a very late breakfast and spends the morning on the papers or a magazine.
