THE WHEAT SLAVE TRADE.

For the information of those who may not know that this slave trade is not only a traffic in grain but also a traffic in young girls for immoral purposes, that it has attained a large proportion, that the promoters of this business have their agencies on both sides of the sea, and that the places in America where the awful traffic is most largely carried on, are New York, Seattle and Montreal.

GOOD ADVICE.

"Go into your own pockets for college endowments, and let Rockefeller and Carnegie alone," was the advice given to the recently held Presbyterian General Assembly of State of New York. The Moderator of the Assembly, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Williams, said: "Work out your own salvation in the church, and do not depend on the generosity of others."

SHOULD GO ELSEWHERE.

Rev. Archibald Black, a young Edinburgh theological graduate, who, although he declares he does not believe in the biblical account of Adam and Eve, the Virgin Birth of Our Lord, or the Resurrection, (except as figures, was, on June 14, admitted to the pulpit, by the New York Presbyterian ministerial board, after a warm debate on behalf of "The first thing," says the Montreal Star, "that a teacher of pure ethics would be expected to do, would be to dissociate himself from error. Why then does this young man desire to enter a church, the vast majority of whose members profess what he must believe to be a delusion? He would be like a man who should begin to preach veracity by letting his hearers suppose that a slight-of-hand performance was a supernatural exhibition."

GOD A PRESBYTERIAN.

"A little Scottish girl away visiting in England was taken by her hostess to a church. When they passed the corner where the Presbyterian church stood the child said: 'That is the church where Jesus was born.' 'Where are you going?' she asked. 'Where Jesus was born,' she said. 'You are going to worship in the House of God, my child.' 'Presbyterian is not a church name,' said the hostess. 'The little girl said: 'It is an Episcopal church.' 'No,' returned the little girl.

DEATH OF FATHER CHISHOLM.

The Presbyterian Witness refers to Father Chisholm: "As one of the most widely known and esteemed priests of the diocese of Antigonish, Father Chisholm was for some years stationed at Pictou, and was esteemed by both Protestants and Catholics. He was a man of scholarly tastes, a true gentleman, kind and courteous. He was in his seventieth year, and was a native of Antigonish."

THE CALVIN ANNIVERSARY.

The 400th anniversary of the birth of John Calvin is being commemorated at Geneva this week. An international monument is to be erected in this city, the cost of which will be $250,000. Conciliar Calvin, the Venetian ambassador at the Court of France in 1561, writing to the Doge, speaks thus: "A Frenchman and a native of Geneva, is the principal minister of Geneva, and possesses great power and influence in this kingdom. He is a man of extraordinary authority, who, by his mode of life, his doctrines, rises superior to all the rest."

MORE CHURCHES PROTEST AGAINST SUNDAY TRAINS

Addressing the congregation of the Portland Street Methodist Church last night on the subject of Sabbath observance, Neil McLoughlin took occasion to vigorously denounce the policy of the C. P. R. in the running of Sunday trains.

"It is somewhat of a delicate undertaking," said he, "to arraign an undertaking of the character and magnitude of the Canadian Pacific. The railway has done and is doing much for the development of the country, but Canada has done more for the C. P. R. than she will ever do again for any commercial institution."

Continuing, the preacher protested that the Sunday train was not the result of a public demand, but evidenced, he thought, by the small number who operated to create a demand, however small. He said that the railway was operated to create a demand, however small. He said that the railway was operated to create a demand, however small.

CANADA NORTHERN BRIDGE DESTROYED

MONTREAL, Q., July 12.—The big Canada Northern bridge over the Du Loup, between St. Paul and Charrette Mills, was completely destroyed by fire this morning. This is the second fire in this locality during the present week, the fire over a ravine at Burrill's sliding bridge by fire on Thursday. STRIKERS HOLD UP A MINER AT POINT OF PISTOL

INVERNESS, C. B., July 12.—The story of the day of the strike here has already appeared in the Sun. On the second day there were considerable men at work on account of intimidation and threats, especially by the Belgian element. On Friday evening four Belgians held up one of the night engineers, one of them drawing a revolver. On Saturday afternoon, a crowd of two or three hundred men and boys and some forty or fifty Belgian women met the men as they were going from work and demanded that they "seab" and be epithets. Soon sticks and stones began to fly and Douglas MacPherson, a P. W. A. miner, was struck on the side of the head and received a bad cut. It is believed that the stone was thrown by a Belgian woman. Among the men who were taken to the station were some half a dozen special policemen, the two regular town policemen and mayor, but it would have been arrested anyone in such an immense crowd.
