OBITUARY

Mrs. A. Cohoon

The death of Mrs. Cohoon, wife of Rev. A. Cohoon, D. D., took place at her home, Wolfville, on Monday, May 8th from a shock of paralysis. She had been in good health until Friday previous when the stroke came and all that medical skill and careful attention could do was of no avail.

Mrs. Cohoon was formerly Miss Lavinia Bent of Paradise and was a widow (Mrs. Phinney) when she married Dr. Cohoon. Since coming to Wolfville she has won the hearts of all by her quiet and beautiful character, and devotion as a wife, mother and worker in every good cause.

The funeral took place on the Wednesday following at 4 p.m. and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Chute Mr. Harkness and Dr. A. C. Chute. The floral offerings were many.

Mrs. John Carroll of Kentville is a sister of deceased.

Charles W. Strong

Charles W. Strong, for many years a resident and merchant of Wolfville died on Monday, May 8th, after an illness of several months. The funeral services were held on Wednesday conducted by Pastor Harkness assisted by Rev. M. P. Freeman. The large attendance testified to his popularity in this community.

Mr. Strong was a native of Canada and moved to Wolfville from the farm there over twenty years ago. He was engaged in the grocery business and was a man strictly conscientious in a big business, a consistent Christian and member of the Baptist Church and a worker for all that was for the good of the community. He was 68 years of age.

Deceased leaves a widow and four children, Mrs. E. F. Betts (Harriet) of Saskatoon; Wilfred L., with Clint & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.; Lillian also in Saskatoon and Alice, wife of J. T. Roach, Dentist, of this Town. The two married daughters were home at the time of their father's death. The family have much sympathy in their bereavement.

The members of the family of the late George L. Webster, Cambridge, wish to thank their friends for kindnesses shown and sympathy expressed at the time of their recent bereavement.
