NEWBORO.

NEWBORO.

Monday, Jan. 27.—On Wednesday last, the messenger of death spread its wings over this locality and gathered in the services the sum of $10 per month for whatever time he worked. He left before his time was out on account of abusive language and responsible this case, it appeared that he made an agreement with defendant's son, Patrick Connors, to work for him in the year 1886. He was to receive for his services the sum of $120 in cash, a 3 year old heifer, use of a house, and a reasonable amount of spending money, and if they could not agree he was to have at the rate of $10 per month for whatever time he worked. He left before his time was out on account of abusive language and responsible voters if this is a right epirit. If there is any honor in it, let others share it; or if there is any backling to the share a reasonable voters if this is a right epirit. If there is any honor in it, let others share it; or if there is any backling the political or religious, which seems now to take with some. I think this matter might have been settled on provided the parameter of the p wings over this locality and gatherel in two of its old inhabitants in the persons of Mr. Allen Preston and Mrs. Bennett. Mr. Preston, as a devout member. will be much missed by the Methodist denomination. Mrs. Bennett, who has been a resident of Newboro for the past two or three years, was formerly a resident of Singleton's Corners.

Mr. Richard Leech and Mrs. John Draffin are both seriously ill. It is the earnest wish of the entire community that they may recover.

The bodies of Mr. Allen Preston and Mrs. Bennett were placed in the vall here on Friday last.

It is to be hoped Mr. Geo. Taylor's bill on the protection of our fishbors, who seem to have more privaled and and with the candians, especially along the Rideau waters, may meet withevery success at this gession of parliament.

DELTA.

We sympathize with the friends who are mourning the sudden death of Mr. Madden, Sr., on Sunday last. He had been suffering from grippe, but his sudden death undoubtedly resulted from his heart. He is to be buried under the Masaghic Order, of which he is as old member.

Mr. Mitchell White, formerly of St. Regis, died from the grippe last Wednerday. His kindness had won the good feelings of all.

Wm. Sexton is being very successful with his fishing speculation in upper Beverly.

Division Court was held here on last Wednesday. There were more than thirty cases. The commotion in Delta on court day is not unlike a circus.

Both Lakes afford good crossing, although a buggy is necessary on landing.

Mr. Baken is very busily engaged repairing Shedd's fence. Thank fotune.

Mrs. Beadle is at present very sick from the grippe.
