Have Hard Things to say Colonel Otter:

Call Him a Martinet Who Made Them Do Unnecessary Work-Treat .. ed Like Navvies.

Montreal, Aug. 28. - The following is from the Lindsay Sun's correspondent, a wellknown Montreal military man, who came up from Rimouski with the boys:

"Wait until the crowd gets out of "Wait until the crowd gets out of uni-form and have their discharges in their pockets, and the people of Canada will hear something that will make their hair stand on end."

stand on end."

The speaker was one of Canada's "Gentlemen in Khaki," among the 120 or so landed at Quebec by the Lake Ontario. Scores of the returning soldiers made similar predictions, and related detailed accounts of the grievances they had against the officers, or most of them. The great majority of the men, he adds, have no hesitation in declaring that they have no use for Lieut. Col. Otter, the regular commanding officer.

ing officer.

One of the men back from the front remarked: "Otter is a martinet, pure and simple, always trying to stand upon a dignity which is altogether above him, and trying to invent new burdens for the men, instead of endeavoring to lighten those they must necessarily bear in campaigning."

paigning."
One of the group of returned soldiers drew attention to the hardships Col. Otter submitted them to, unnecessarily, at Belmont. He had the men toiling continumont. He had the men toiling continuously and laboriously at the construction of trenches which the Imperial army officers, on inspection, declared to be perfectly useless, and "all poppycock." The men did not mind doing necessary work, as the record they made in track-laying showed, but they resented the absurdity of making them work like navvies, in such

Grand Trunk Satisfies Conductors' And Trainmen's Demands.

Detroit, Mich, Aug. 27 —An important conference of Grand Trunk Railway officials and representatives of the Order of Rail-way Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, which has been in session in this city at different times for the past eight weeks, came to an end on Saturday evening.

The men will be permitted to live in Port Huron, instead of moving to Battle Creek, as the company has directed, and the wage question also was settled satisfactorily. Hereafter the men will receive what is call ed in railway parlance "standard pay."
Conductors will receive three cents a mile for their work, and brakemen will get a cent less for the same time. The general superintendent, F. G. McGuigan, cf Montreal, represented the company. The men are well pleased with the result of the conference, and say that the company has been very fair with them.

The West Enders at the Eau held their farewell jollification last even-ing, when all were present and enjoy-ed themselves. The occasion was cele-brated by a monster taffy-pull and bonfire. Llangallen Lodge, the sum-mer residence of Supt. Jones, was chosen as the central point for the gather-ing and the fire and during the day Capt. Bert Jones, Leslie Snyder, Will Tackaberry and Gan Brackin collected wood. They secured the most of it on the far shore of the Eau, sailing thith-
