Has the vaccine taken, or, in other words, is your left arm sore! Does anybody think that the Old Boys' Reunion will not be a success?

I guess that Old Boy's Reunion on July 1st will be the sensational fea-ture of the year in this city.

I don't notice that many of the churches are increasing preachers' salaries at this annual meeting time.

Col. Rankin seems to be of the opinion that the general excellence of the First Presbyterian Church needs

There would have been many a slip on the city pavements, had not the Board of Works scattered sand on the icy walks. 'Twas a thoughtful act.

A street fair, mardi gras and a hundred and fifty other attractions are being discussed, as means of entertaining the Old Boys when they come to Chatham Reunion.

This is the season of the year when all the civic committees meet industriously on the appointed nights. In about six months, these committee meetings will be forgotten.

The latest Canadian contingent is completely at sea now. In a couple of months the Boers will wish that the Canadians had stayed at sea and had never seen South Africa.

This general vaccination proclamaation seems to have created a sore ness in many quarters, especially, however, in arms. Some citizens are up in arms against it, while other are up with arms for it.

Amother silly enactment is the Public Libraries Act, passed by the Legislature. It provides that the free librarey board shall meet and hold its inaugural meeting before half the members of the board are appointed.

Let us see; didn't we mention be fore that N. H. Stevens was going down to West York to do something? We are wearing our prophetic laur-els again, which we lost when we predicted the civic committee slate.

Marconi's claim to the discovery wireless telegraphy seems to me to be ridiculous. Professor McEwen apridiculous. pears to have a system of wireless telegraphy that he has been using for many years. All who attended entertainments in the Grand Opera House, will vouch for this.

Our only consolation, if any solace there be for us in the election of Archie Campbell, lies in the fact that the new member for West York comes from Chatham. Candidly, we don't see, under these circumstances, how Archie could be defeated. Politically, we see that there must be something radically wrong.

It was a hard pill to swallow, but after the heat of the battle was over, how could Archie Campbell help winning. He came from Chatham, and was assisted by N. H. Stevens and Dr. Fleming of this city. We are speaking as loyal citizens of Chatham, and was assisted by the complete of the complete ham, not politically, when we make the above assertion.

"Dick" and I were out spending the evening, recently, when it began to rain. The girls, not liking the idea "Dick," who lived about four miles down the river, going home in the rain, asked him to stay all night. Dick, who takes everything so seriously, replied "all right, but I'll have to go home and tell the folks first."

Chili wants the Boers. We say give Chili what she wants, and all she wants. Now they have a revolution in Chili every two weeks; when the Boers get there the revolution would occur daily. Doctors not seldom give up a case, but a mother never does. While life lasts, while there is a spark of vifality which love's labor may fan into a flame, she toils untiringly for the child she brought into the world. And sometimes where the doctors fail the mother succeeds. She has no prejudices. Any means she will use which will save her child.

The mother's prescription given below is a case in point. Her daughter was given up by physicians as suffering from an incurable disease, called "wasting of the digestive organs." The mother prescribed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Pavorite Prescription," and had the happiness of seeing her daughter restored to perfect health.

Dr. Pierce's

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics,

It is a true temperance medicine. It is a true temperance medicine.

"My sister (of Arlington, Washington Co., Nebr...) was taken very sick and had several doctors, "writes Mrs. C. I. Harrison, of Elk City, Donglas Co., Nebr. They could not do her any good, and told my mother they would not come any more, as no doctor could help her, that she could not get well. She had 'wasting of the digestive organs.' My mother said to my sister: "Well, I almost know that Dr. Pierce's medicines will cure her.' So she bought six bottlestines of 'Golden Medical Discovery' three of 'Favorite Prescription,' and some of the 'Pelets;' and now my sister is a well woman. "We thank you for your medicine."

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less Than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty millions it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article, to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that to-day it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of adverising was necessary in the first in stance, to bring the remedy to the attention to the public, but everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition, absolute, undeniable merit, and this, the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked de-gree. Physicians, who formerly de-pended upon inhalers, sprays and local vashes or oitments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain, in pleasant, convenient form, all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics.

They contain no cocaine, nor opiate and are given to little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Reitiger, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and of-tem extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggists, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and they way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last win-ter and spring and consider myself free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling,

W. Va., writes: "I suffered from ca-tarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throats so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter, My bro-ther who was cured of catarrhal deafther who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrhal Tablets, 'urged me to try them' so much that I did so and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of tablets in the house and at the very first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

CRUSHED AGAIN.

Dear Satellite,-You are laboring under a sad, serious, solemn second hand impression. The Macaulay Club (to whom all honor) did not set out to erect a monument to Tecumseh. The Club merely passed a resolution to the effect that the erection of such a monument would be very desirable. There was no undertaking in the matter, the resolution being no more than an expression of sentiment, and your recent remarks on this sub ject are therefore ill-timed and out of place-besides being impolite in that they tend to rudely disturb the hitherto seemingly interminable repose of this worthy and highly intel-lectual but somewhat effete assembly. Often an oatmeal gruel is valuable in a sick room menu. A trained nurse taught one housekeeper the perfection of its compounding. The coarse oatmeal was used, and was pounded before it was put in a bowl and the latter filled with cold water. Then the meal was stirred, allowed to settle, and the water carefully poured off three times—the water thus obtained making the gruel. cooked in this way, the natural sweetness of the fruit is brought out. Other dried fruits need soaking.

Since it is the dry quality of the heat that is supplied in our homes that seems its most pernicious quality, it is worth while emphasizing every means by which I hay be fessened. It is possible, when the hot-air feed-pipe reaches a room by the side wall, to set a small pan that is kept filled with water just inside the registrar. Occasionally, even in a floor register, the pipe will make a turn just below, and then a resting place for a similar water pan is secured. The effect on fine furniture and on plants of the dryness of our houses is well known; the injury from the same cause to the delicate membrane of nose, throat and lungs is as great, but is more often unh

BAKED SALMON.

Clean the fish, rinse it and wipe it dry; rub it well outside and in with a mixture of pepper and salt, and fill it with a stuffing made with slices of bread buttered freely, and moisten with hot milk or water; add sage or thyme-to the seasoning, if liked. Tie a thread around the fish so as to keep the stuffing in, but remove it before taking to the table. Lay muffin rings in a dripping pan; put bits of butter over the fish, dredge flour over and put it on the rings; turn a pint of hot water in the pan to baste with; bake one hour, if a large fish, in a quick oven. When the fish is taken up, having cut a lemon in very thin slices, put them in a pan and let them fry a little, then dredge in a easpoonful of flour, add a small bit of butter, stir it about and let it without burning for a while, then add half a teacupful of boiling water; stir it smooth, put the slices of lemon into the gravy boat, strain the gravy over.
