ON PROHIBITION.

Rev. B. H. Spencer the Sunday

Night Speaker. The temperance mass meeting in As eciation Hall last evening, although the attendance was somewhat interferred with by the weather, proved interesting. George H. Lees presided, John Carr conducted the congregational singing, and Gilbert Hutton contributed sacred cornet solos. During the actions and Gibert Hutton contributed sac-red cornet solos. During the prelimin-ary service of song W. H. Collick gave a brief address.

The speaker of the evening was the Rev. B. H. Spence, of Toronto, Secretary of the Ontario Alliance, who in opening referred to the remarkable strides now being made by prohibition. Howevelund referred to the remarkable strides now being made by prohibition throughout the civilized world. The British Government had promised local veto. Seveneighths of Scandinavia was under prohibition, the Gothenburg system where it existed proving a failure and giving way to something better. In United States the number of people living under prohibition, either State or local, was about 40,000,000. Canada was not lagging behind. Prince Edward Island was a whole Province under prohibition. In Nova Scotia the only exceptions to universal prohibition were the city of Halifax and one license in Richmond County. In New Brunswick prohibition predominated, Quebec was dargely of the Following are the prices paid at outpredominated, Quebec was dargely of the same complexion, and rapidly becoming more so. The local option wave in Ontario was yearly gaining momentum. Already 318 municipalities in old Ontario had driven out the bar.

SPECIAL TICKETS.

Miss Lewis Makes Announcement About Them.

In an advertisement, which appears in nother part of this paper to-day, Miss Jeanette Lewis calls the attention of the public to the fact that if they desire to patronize the fund for the Sick Children's Hospital all tickets for Bennett's must be bought direct from her, or from the places where she has them on sale. These stores are named in the advertisement. Many people have the dea that if they buy a ticket at the box office at Bennett's during the next six weeks a portion of the money they pay n will go to the hospital. This is no in will go to the hospital. This is not so. The special tickets Miss Lewis issues must be bought. They can be had at stores quite adjacent to the theatre. Miss Lewis is looking forward to a big week. The bill promises to be satisfactory in every way. She received a cheque this morning for a sufficient number of matinee tickets to enable the orphans in all the institutions which have accepted the offer to go to Bennett's this week,

COSTS CUT DOWN. Windsor, Feb. 3.—The taxation of costs in the Canadian Mining Co suit has been completed by Mr. Cleary, with the result that the bill of witness fees put in by Joseph Boyle, of Woodstock, against the Detroiters, who were defendants, is cut from $4.400 to $2.790.

LOST HER ALL.

Windsor, Feb. 3.—Fire totally destroyed the boarding house owned by Mrs. Shehan near shaft No. 4 of the Michigan Central tunnel, last night. The woman, who is a widow with four children, lost all her belongings, including $300 which she had hoarded in her home.
