

THE FREDERICTON HERALD IS PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON,
FROM THE OFFICE,
CORNER QUEEN AND ROBERT STREETS,
FREDERICTON, N. B., BY
THE HERALD PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO. LTD.
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $1 PER ANNUM.

Having a large circulation in the Central Counties of New Brunswick, THE HERALD is an excellent advertising medium for the business men of Fredericton.

JOE PRINTING
Of every variety, executed promptly and satisfactorily, at reasonable prices.
Address THE HERALD, Fredericton, N.B.

THE HERALD.
FREDERICTON, APRIL 24, 1895.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

The speech from the throne at the opening of the Dominion parliament admits the existence of a deficit in the current year's operations—how large it may be, we are not yet informed, but it is evident from the speech and from Mr. Foster's apologies that it will be one of stupendous proportions—one that must thoroughly alarm the country. We are, therefore, to pay very dearly for the honor of having Mr. Foster at the head of the Finance department.

The debate on the address brought out some lively speeches. Hon. Mr. Laurier especially was in good form, and his address aroused the enthusiasm of the Liberal members. Mr. Foster, who leads the house for the first time, apparently did not do himself justice, and proved that he is several times too small for Sir John Thompson's chair. Sir Richard Cartwright was sarcastic and effective and Sir Hibbert Tupper was evidently feeling somewhat worried by his recent experiences. He expected to go back to Ottawa with the prestige of a victory in Antigonish, but this was denied him. He also comes in for a good deal of banter on his "walk" of a few weeks ago, and altogether receives little comfort from even his party associates.

It is a matter for sincere congratulation that the damage to the railway bridge is not of so serious character as at first anticipated, and that the highway bridge without the great pressure upon it without injury.

His Holiness the Pope has issued another invitation to the English church, asking its members to return to the fold. Mr. Mills seems to have poked fun at Mr. Foster for his desertion of Kings county and his advent to York in the hope of finding a safe retreat. Our Mr. Temple was not heard in the debate, but no doubt he will show up when the weighty questions of the session are under discussion.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT.

The Liberals of Canada are more than satisfied with the results of Wednesday's bye-elections. They carried their two candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and in Quebec West, the candidate whom they supported, and who, although nominally a Conservative, is a supporter of the Liberal trade policy, polled more votes than McGreevy, although he is counted out. The Liberals were not in the fight in Haldimand, but they voted for Dr. Montague, protesting in that way against the introduction in Canada of the P. P. A. It was a good day's work therefore, for the Liberals, and the results have very seriously alarmed the government. The latter imagined that the remedial order in the three Roman Catholic constituencies would carry everything before it, but it is clear that the electors are going to judge the administration on their general policy and record, and that no "side wind" like the school question, is going to blow the Liberals off the track which leads to the government's overturn in the general election.

The greatest victory of the day was won in Antigonish by Mr. McIsaac. That constituency was represented for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson, who had the large majority of 227 in 1891. Mr. McIsaac not only wiped this out, but piled up a majority for himself of 118. Sir Hibbert Tupper directed the government campaign, and felt sure of victory for Mr. Chisholm, but the electors of Antigonish were not to be cajoled into returning another Tory to parliament, and the Minister of Justice must have gone back to Ottawa considerably crestfallen. The member elect is a lawyer under forty; has been in the Nova Scotia assembly since 1886, and in Mr. Fielding's government since 1891.

In Vercheres the fight was a bitter one. Mr. Ouimet, Minister of Public Works, went into the county bound to carry it for the government. He was met by the redoubtable Mr. Tarte, and the latter scored a notable victory against all the influences of the government and the church. Mr. Geoffrion, the new member, is one of the leading lawyers in Montreal, and with Mr. McIsaac, will be a welcome addition to the Liberal ranks in Parliament.

Altogether, Wednesday was a great day for the Liberals, and encourages them in their preparation for the general election a few months hence. The temper of the people is well illustrated in Antigonish and Vercheres, and we believe, and the Tories themselves believe, that the corrupt government at Ottawa will be swept out of existence as soon as the electors have the opportunity.

A SUGGESTION.

We hope the road committee of the city council this year, will give its attention to the street openings and see that they are put back in shape after the work of digging up has been completed. The streets are opened at many points during the season by the water department and the gas company, and usually the holes are very carefully filled up. Often a trench runs the top of the returned earth; sometimes when the openings are made the gutters, the cobble stones are not properly returned to their places. The council should pass an imperative order that all such operations shall be conducted under the direction of the road-master, and not without his consent. We believe His Worship Mayor Vanwart, is earnestly desirous that the smallest details in the city business should be conducted on a proper and systematic basis, and if he will give his attention to this matter, he will deserve the thanks of the people, who take pride in seeing our public streets kept in a respectable condition.

The Herald very cordially welcomes Rev. Dr. Partridge to citizenship in Fredericton, and we trust both he and his family will soon feel thoroughly at home amid their new surroundings. Dr. Partridge is already well known in this part of the city as an able preacher and a successful pastor; a gentleman full of enthusiasm, and capable of imparting it to those around him. He also brings a large and interesting family, and to Mrs. Partridge and the other Partridges, little and big. The Herald offers a warm welcome.

HITTING HIS OWN FRIENDS.

Our esteemed friend, the Tory organ, in decanting on the wickedness of good Liberals like the Hon. Attorney General Blair and Hon. F. P. Thompson, investing their money in Ohio oil wells, neglected to mention the fact that these gentlemen have associated with them in the enterprise, our good Conservative friends, Willard Kitchen of Fredericton and John D. Chipman of St. Stephen. We think Mr. Kitchen's claim as a leader in the Conservative party in this county is indisputable; in fact he seems to have been an energetic worker for the Conservatives, when the editor who now assails him for investing his money in American oil wells, was on the other side of politics. Then, as to Mr. Chipman, he has been a Conservative candidate in Charlotte, is likely to be the nominee of that party in the coming elections, and no doubt will have the support of the Tory editor, notwithstanding Mr. Chipman has been so unpatriotic as to invest his money in Ohio oil wells.

Then there is one distinguished friend Mr. Temple, M. P., a prospective Tory senator. The organ of his party must have a slap at him in its efforts to discredit Mr. Blair and Mr. Thompson. It is well known that Mr. Temple invested a considerable amount of his private means in building a railway for the people of Maine, while he left the people of York county living along the river St. John between Fredericton and Woodstock, suffering for railway facilities.

We submit that the next time the Tory organ sets out to reflect on the business enterprises in which Mr. Blair and Mr. Chipman are engaged, it should first be sure of its ground; first discover who it may hit, in its efforts to make capital against political opponents. Mr. Kitchen, Mr. Temple and Mr. Chipman will have to straighten the Tory organ out a bit.

Our parliamentary report in another column carries the debate on the address up to Monday night. Yesterday it closed with speeches from Mr. McIsaac, Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Costigan, the latter discussing the school question at length. Tomorrow Mr. Foster will move the House into supply.

It is a matter for sincere congratulation that the damage to the railway bridge is not of so serious character as at first anticipated, and that the highway bridge without the great pressure upon it without injury.

His Holiness the Pope has issued another invitation to the English church, asking its members to return to the fold. Mr. Mills seems to have poked fun at Mr. Foster for his desertion of Kings county and his advent to York in the hope of finding a safe retreat. Our Mr. Temple was not heard in the debate, but no doubt he will show up when the weighty questions of the session are under discussion.

Concert Friday Evening.

The citizens of Fredericton are promised a rare musical treat on Friday evening, when the celebrated Hemo family give a concert in the City hall under the auspices of the Women's Aid Association of the Methodist church. Joseph Hemo is one of the most celebrated violinists of the day, his control of that instrument being remarkable. He has played all over the world, before crowned heads and other potentates, and his performance in vocal solos and violin duets, and the young lady in both roles is a great success. Mrs. Hemo plays the piano very artistically, and altogether the family are gifted musically, and draw large audiences wherever they appear.

One Hundred and Two Years Old.

Capt. John Barker, who died at his home in Upper Kingsclear, this county, Monday, celebrated his 102nd birthday last October, and was, without doubt, the oldest resident of the county, and possibly of the province. His Highness learns that Capt. Barker was a native of Canning, Queens County, but lived in Kingsclear for one hundred years. He has not been out much during the past twelve years, and for a month has been bedridden. Up to a very recent period, however, he was able to receive and converse with his friends, and could readily recall events belonging to the opening of the present century. The deceased leaves two sons, George and Walter, both residents of Kingsclear, and two daughters, Mrs. Geo. Duggan and Mrs. M. A. Atkinson of Houlton. Capt. Barker many years ago was active in the militia, and it was from that he obtained his title. The funeral took place today.

A Destructive Fire.

Victoria Corner, Carleton county, was visited by a terrible fire about noon Monday. It started from a fire in Mr. Oldright's house. Oscar Thistle's house and barn caught. Then it spread to the P. C. B. church and completely demolished it. Mrs. Moore's handsome residence was next to catch and it was burned to the ground, the piano only being saved through a hole cut in the side of the house. An unoccupied house and barn owned by G. W. Boyer were destroyed, and the fire crossed the river and destroyed two barns owned by Alex. Nevers. The church was insured for $1800 and cost over $5000.

Oscar Thistle went into the barn to take his cows. The wind, which was blowing a gale, blew the door after him and the fire and smoke inside almost overcame him. After groping around he managed to crawl out through a hole, but his overcoat was almost burned off his back and his hands and body were badly burned. It is hardly thought he can recover.

A judgment of the Supreme Court yesterday still further reduces L. A. Curry's costs in the Ellis court-right case some $200 or $300, and a gentleman on hearing the fact, suggested that if this thing goes on much further, Curry will be brought out in debt to the other side.

Rev. Dr. Partridge, Miss Partridge and some young members of his household, arrived from Halifax Friday evening, and registered at the Queen hotel. They are now moving into their new home on Charlotte street.

The residence at present occupied by Sir John Allen and W. K. Allen, M. P., has been purchased by St. John parties, and the former will move the first of May into the Hart house, next below St. Dunstan's church.

Alex. Gibson's new saw mill at Blackville, the machinery for which was manufactured at the New Brunswick foundry as an able preacher and a successful pastor; a gentleman full of enthusiasm, and capable of imparting it to those around him. He also brings a large and interesting family, and to Mrs. Partridge and the other Partridges, little and big. The Herald offers a warm welcome.

LOCAL NEWS.

P. O. Inspector King was at the Barker Saturday.

Hon. H. R. Emmeron is registered at the Queen to-day.

Hon. W. E. Perley, M.P.P., of Oromoco, is among the visitors in town today.

The highway bridge without the ice jam without injury of any importance.

Hon. A. G. Blair left St. John Monday night for a trip to Boston and New York.

The Aberdeen made her first trip to Woodstock yesterday and returned today.

Victoria Lodge, I. O. O. F., now occupy the hall in Chestnut's new brick building, opposite the City hall.

As foreboded in The Herald, Dr. D. C. Montague succeeded L. W. Johnston on the Victoria Hospital board.

W. B. Coulthard, the genial teller of the People's Bank, has been laid up for some days with an attack of pink eye.

Miss Lettie Golden, sister of W. H. Golden of this city, died last week at Torriburn, near St. John, aged 18 years.

W. R. Racey, inspector of the Merchants' bank, has been here officially this week, and went to Woodstock yesterday.

The young men who were members of the Fredericton football team last year have organized themselves into an athletic club.

H. C. Rutter, the popular and efficient captain of No. 4 hose company, entertained his men to an oyster supper Friday evening.

City Treas. Moore has retired from the presidency of the Central Fire Insurance company and is succeeded by E. Byron Winslow.

The ice jam broke Thursday afternoon and the river was pretty well clear of ice Saturday evening when the David Weston arrived from St. John.

Rev. Dr. Partridge preached at the Cathedral Sunday evening, and created a very favorable impression on the large congregation present.

Hon. P. G. Ryan and Mrs. Ryan are at Bathurst this week getting their household effects ready for conveyance to their new residence in this city.

Two large panes of plate glass, while being placed in position in Willard Kitchen's new store Wednesday afternoon, were broken to pieces.

The bicycle and boating club are to meet at Oddfellow's hall, Chestnut's building, Friday evening for organization including the election of officers.

Thos. Elliott who with his wife occupied the Stopford property on Maryland hill during the past year, left for England last week accompanied by Mrs. Elliott.

John Anderson, ex-M. P. P., of the Barony, is in the city to-day and is warmly greeted by his numerous friends. He returns home by the Aberdeen tomorrow.

At the Temperance Hall, Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. C. Hartley delivered a thoughtful and eloquent address on "Why a young man should be a Christian."

Samuel Owen has become the owner of the lot of land on George street, next above Rev. Canon Roberts' residence, and will build a residence thereon for himself this summer.

W. B. Mackenzie, assistant engineer of the I. C. R. at Moncton, was here Saturday consulting with the railway bridge authorities on the damage done to the bridge by the ice jam.

R. A. Estay was the purchaser of the harbor dues and wharfage at $401, and Samuel Cook continues in charge of the market and weigh scales, for which he pays this year $278.50.

Fredericton is to be visited by a big circus this summer, which will come in its own cars, forty-eight in number, arrangements for transportation having already been made with the railways.

Mrs. A. K. Kole, who lost her husband by death a few months ago, and Miss Kate Beck, are here from Bathurst and in future will make their home with their father, Auditor General Beck.

Capt. Duncan has retired from the command of the steamer Aberdeen and has settled down to home life at Woodstock. He is succeeded by Capt. Norwood, who is said to be a very capable man.

Henry B. Clarke has the plans prepared for the erection of a new house on the lot next above his present residence on George street. They are said to be of modern design, and the house when finished will be to let.

John C. O'Brien, whose serious illness at Everett, Mass., was noted in last week's Herald, died at that place Thursday, and his remains were interred there. Deceased was a brother of Mr. Martin, St. John street, and of Hugh O'Brien with Randolph & Sons.

The New Brunswick Telephone Company will issue a new list of subscribers about the 10th of May. Subscribers wishing any change made will please call at the office. This is a good opportunity for new subscribers, as their names will be placed on the list if orders are given at once.

The students of the Normal school gave a musical and literary entertainment in the assembly hall of the Normal school Monday evening, consisting of readings, music, tableaux, etc., and all were rendered in a pleasing manner. There was a large audience present.

Parties having old mahogany furniture, old silver or brass candlesticks or candelabra, old china or old iron or single pieces, old tea trays, tea caddies or caddie spoons, old pewter pitchers or mugs, old castors for decanters, or brass or copper andirons, may find a purchaser by enquiring at the office of Frank J. Morrison.

Bishop Kingston left yesterday for Kingston, Ont., to sit with his brother bishops on the appeal case from the Amherstburg church, the rector of which is in difficulty with his parishioners, some wanting him to resign and others desiring the continuance of his services.

G. S. Mayes, of St. John, who spent Sunday in the city, sang a solo at St. Paul's church in the evening, and completely captivated the congregation. His selection, "The Holy City," was well suited to his voice, a strong, full round rich baritone of wonderful compass and cultivation.

When the ice ran out Thursday afternoon it seriously damaged one of the channel piers of the railway bridge, moving it nearly four feet. The road bed and rails dropped down also, but the latter have since been raised and traffic resumed. The repairs to the pier, however, cannot be effected until low water in mid-summer.

Fire, caused by a defective fuse, broke out in the cell of the residence of Edward Owens on Charlotte street Monday forenoon. There was a high wind at the time, which spread the flames rapidly, and they had made considerable progress before the department arrived. The building was badly damaged. Mr. Owens carried $800 insurance on the house with Frank J. Morrison and the furniture was saved.

Ladies waterproof garments at Tennant Davis & Co.

A GREAT DAY.

For the Liberal Party of Canada.

They won Three out of Four Seats in the Bye-elections.

REDEEMING ANTIGONISH BY A SPLENDID MAJORITY.

The Handwriting on the Wall.

ANTIGONISH, McIsaac, Liberal. VERCHERES, Geoffrion, Liberal. QUEBEC, Dobell, Ind. HALDIMAND, Montague, Con.

This was the news that came over the wires Wednesday night from the four Dominion bye-elections held on that day, but yesterday McGreevy was counted in in Quebec West.

It was encouraging, joyful news to the Liberals and correspondingly depressing to the government, that the Liberal candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.

The Liberals put up straight party candidates in Antigonish and Vercheres, and won by handsome majorities, redeeming the former, held for the past ten years by Sir John Thompson. In Quebec West, Dobell, having declared himself in sympathy with the Liberal trade policy, received the Liberal support and beat McGreevy, although since counted out. In Haldimand the Liberals had no candidate and Montague beat the McCarthyite.