RANDOLPH CHURCHILL RETURNS.

Treaty Between Germany and Italy.
COMMON CAUSE AGAINST RUSSIA.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 4.
Lord Randolph Churchill has returned to London.

The treaty between Germany and Italy pledges that if either be attacked by France, the other will send three hundred thousand men to the French frontier.

The Austro-German treaty has just been published; both pledge themselves to make common cause against Russia, should Russia attack either. St. Petersburg papers declare that Russia does not want to attack either.
