Late War News

As many War Telegrams of importance and interest come in after the evening newspapers have gone to press, if sufficient subscribers are obtained we propose to establish an Information Bureau and will deliver copies of all the War Messages received up to half-past ten p.m. to any house within the city limits between that hour and midnight. On Sundays two deliveries will be made—one at 1 o'clock containing all the messages received from the time the papers go to press on Saturday to 12 o'clock noon on Sunday, and the second delivery as on week days.

THE CHARGE FOR THIS SERVICE WILL BE ONE DOLLAR PER WEEK PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. First delivery will be made on Wednesday evening next. Fill in the following coupon and send us with a Dollar Bill.

NOTICE TO MOTOR CAR AND MOTOR CYCLE OWNERS.

As there will be considerable work of all kinds to be done before the Contingent for Foreign Service can be ready for embarkation, I would be obliged if all owners of Motor Cars and Motor Cycles, who are willing to help the training camp in orderly and other work, will send in their names to the A. D. C., Government House: they will then be notified of days and hours during which they will be useful for duty.
