FRENCH OFFICIAL.
 PARIS, Nov. 8.—(Official.) Yesterday, between the North Sea and Lys, fighting was less violent. Attacks by the enemy were directed to the northeast of Ypres. In almost all of this front we, in turn, advanced, notably in the region of Messines. In the neighborhood of Armentières the British troops progressed slightly. Between La Bassee and Arras the attacks of the enemy were repulsed.

GERMAN DETACHMENTS SURRENDER.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—During an action against the position known as Grand Crown Nancy, according to a French semi-official announcement issued in Paris to-day, one German battalion alone left three hundred dead on the battlefield. Many prisoners yesterday were made along the whole front. In some instances entire units being captured. In the district of Lenz, where thick fog prevailed, two German detachments took the opportunity to surrender voluntarily. One of them included one officer, three non-com. officers and fifty men. The Germans, so the announcement says, were weary of the hardships imposed on them. They were confident the French would treat them well.

THE BEARS ONWARD MARCH.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 8.—(Official.) On the Prussian front our troops have dislodged the Germans from the region of Wirbalen, which was very strongly fortified, and have progressed as far as Stallerponen, 16 miles E.N.E. of Gumbrienen. In the region of the Rominto forest and Lysk, our troops continue to press on the heels of the rearguard of the enemy. On the left bank of the Vistula our cavalry has penetrated German territory, damaging the railway near Pleschen, to the northwest of Kallaz. On the road to Cracow on Nov. 6th, we attacked the Austrian rearguard, along the Nida river, and the next day were operating on the river Nidezia in Galicia, where our troops are continuing their offensive movements. In the latest engagements in the San River, we captured 125 officers and 12,000 soldiers, as well as rapid fire and munitions of war. South of Przemyel on Nov. 6, we took more than 1,000 prisoners.

FOUR TURKISH STEAMERS SUNK.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The Russian Embassy has received a supplementary statement to the official despatch, given out at Petrograd, which says: In the Black Sea our fleet bombarded the Turkish port of Sanguidak, and sank four Turkish transports, three with supplies and clothing for the Turkish army, and one, presumably with troops.

ST. PIERRE BULLETINS.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—The Polish and Galician victories mark a new phase in military operations in the Eastern War theatre. The Japanese have captured Tsing Tau. In France several German attacks were repulsed in the North. Elsewhere the Allies are making progress or maintaining their positions.

RUSSIANS MAKE BIG CAPTURE.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 8.—The left wing of the Russian army in engagements between Oct. 23 and Nov. 4, on the front in the vicinity of Cracow, took prisoners 274 officers and 18,500 men. This information was given out at Petrograd to-day.

In addition to these prisoners the Russians captured three howitzers, 40 pieces of artillery, 38 rapid firing guns, and a large quantity of material for making cartridges.

MOUNTING HEAVY GUNS.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Engineers from the Krupp works are mounting heavy guns at Ostend, pointing them seaward.

"HOLY WAR ON RUSSIA."

PETROGRAD, Nov. 8.—The entire northern part of Persia is being flooded with placards, printed on Turkish presses, urging the Persians to unite with the Turks in the present warfare against Russia. According to these despatches the placards refer to the Persians as "Brethren in the Faith" and make use of the term "Holy War on Russia." The Persian Government, however, is strongly opposed to any action at the present time on the part of Persia.

FAO OCCUPIED.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Admiralty announces the occupation of Fao, a port of Asiatic Turkey, on the Persian Gulf.

SAILED WITH SEALED ORDERS.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 8.—The Chilean steamers Valdivia and Chiloe, flying Red Cross flags, have sailed with sealed orders from the Government. The transport Matpo, was despatched earlier. It is assumed that the mission of these vessels has to do with the report that the British cruiser Monmouth was driven ashore on the Chilean coast during last Sunday's naval engagement.

WINSTON CHURCHILL.

ABERDEEN, Nov. 8.—Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, has been elected Lord Rector of Aberdeen University in succession to Andrew Carnegie.

THE CANADIAN WEST.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The Hon. Robert Rogers returned from the West to-day, after purchasing large quantities of oats for the Imperial Government. He says that the people of the West are eager to serve the Empire, and that this is true of the foreign-bred population, especially of the Poles, many of the latter being trained soldiers. The wheat crop of the West has been increased, and the weather conditions being favorable. Prospects are good for an enormous crop next year.

GREAT REJOICING IN JAPAN.

TOKIO, Nov. 9.—The Japanese are still celebrating the fall of Tsing Tau. Extraordinary enthusiasm is manifested throughout the Empire. In every city there are lantern processions and merriment nightly. Every house supports a flag. Cheering crowds serenaded the high officials of the army and navy and the diplomatic representatives of the Allies. The popularity of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance is shown by the recognition every where of Britain's share in the victory. Imperial orders congratulate British as well as Japanese warriors. The Admiralties of Britain and Japan have exchanged congratulations. The municipality of Tokio cabled congratulations and thanks to King George, and stated the combatants who were captured during the final assaults upon Tsing Tau will be surrendered formally on Nov. 10th. Every steamer in the harbor of Kiao Cho was sunk, and navigation had been made perilous by mines. It is understood the terms of surrender are practically unconditional. Emperor Yoshihito and Empress Sadako have sent messages of appreciation to the forces of the Allies which participated in the operations. To the Japanese His Majesty expressed gratification for the faithful discharge of their duties by officers, and men of the army and navy. The following was sent by the Emperor to the British forces: "Emperor deeply appreciates brilliant deeds of the British Army and Navy which, co-operating with the Japanese, fought bravely and achieved the object of the war." The Empress expressed similar sentiments in two messages. Our casualties on the night of Nov. 6, and on the following morning (when Tsing Tau surrendered), were fourteen officers wounded, four hundred and twenty-six soldiers killed and wounded. We took 2,300 prisoners in the battle.

WILL LIKELY HAVE A LONG WAIT.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 9.—The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, commenting on the German defeat at Tsing Tau, says: Germany will never forget the heroic fighting at Kiao Chow and those who defended the Colony. Never shall we forget the brutal violence of the yellow robbers, nor England who instigated them. We know that we cannot settle our account with Japan at present. Our mills will grind slowly, but even if years should pass before the right moment comes at last, then joy will resound through Germany. Woe to you, Nippon.

C. M. B. C.

Rev. Canon White lectured to a large gathering at the Cathedral Men's Bible Class yesterday afternoon. The subject of his discourse was "The War" which he dealt with in an interesting manner. He reviewed the causes leading up to the declaration of war, and clearly showed Newfoundland's interest in the struggle and the duty of her sons towards the Empire. Some eighteen members of the Class have gone to the front and it was decided that they will each receive a Christmas present from the Class funds for which have already been started.

Portia Back.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. J. Kean, arrived from western ports last night. The round trip was made in good time considering that the ship called at North Sydney for bunker coal. The Portia brought a small freight and the following passengers:—Rev. G. Hall, Rev. M. McGuire, H. Condy, F. Donnelly, W. Fleming, M. Finn, Miss L. Fleming and 42 second class.

Fishery Reports.

Oct. 31st. From T. Soper (Channel to Port aux Basques) the total catch 1,204 qts. and for last week 20. Fifty dorics and skiffs and 4 boats are fishing. No bankers or schooners from the grounds have arrived. Prospects are poor, bait being very scarce. Owing to the high winds prevailing and the shortage of bait during the week very little was done by the fishermen, hence there is little improvement to report.

Transport Florizel Back

The S. S. Florizel, Captain William Martin, which was engaged as a transport to convey the First Newfoundland Regiment to the Old Country, returned here yesterday from Liverpool, having successfully completed her mission. The ship steamed slowly into port thousands of people rushed to the waterfront eager to hear something about our volunteers. The Florizel, it will be remembered, left here at 10 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 4th. At noon the following day other transports with 32,000 Canadians on board were met. The entire fleet of convoy numbering 36 ships then left. H. M. S. Talbot acting as a scout, took the lead while the Florizel brought up the rear. The sight was wonderful. The weather was a little rough during the voyage, though only a small percentage of the volunteers suffered from sea sickness. Plymouth was reached on Thursday morning, the trip across occupying eleven days. After a delay of a few days at Plymouth the troops landed and were met by a most enthusiastic reception. They then proceeded by train to Salisbury Plains, a distance of 140 miles, where they are now in training. The day after the troops disembarked the Florizel left for Liverpool where she went on dock for an overhauling, after which she bunkered and sailed for St. John's, arriving as mentioned. The ship brought a small mail.

Before the troopships reached their destination Capt. Martin was presented with the subjoined address by the officers of the Newfoundland Contingent:—
 Captain W. J. Martin,
 Captain of His Majesty's Transport "Florizel."

Dear Captain.—We are about to complete to-day one of the most unique and memorable voyages on record. At this present time the whole world is looking upon the most stupendous war in history and waiting the result with greatest concern. And what a war! A whole Continent in arms and the world's greatest nations involved! And what concerns us most our beloved Empire is in danger. It is in answer to this call to her Colonies that we find ourselves here to-day on our way to place our arms and our lives, if need be, at her disposal.

You, Captain, are in command of the first troopship to leave the shores of Newfound, and the first of the Newfoundland Regiment, an event of a kind which we hardly think will occur again; fine weather has prevailed all along. We form part of a fleet of transports such as the world has never seen before, a fleet of some forty ships all told crossing the mighty Atlantic, and we think it fitting to express to you, your officers and crew, Sir, our deepest appreciation for the way in which everything has been carried out for our welfare in relation to the navigation of the ship and to the safety of all on board.

We congratulate you heartily, as Captain of this troopship, and trust that you will long be spared to continue your career on the sea.
 Signed:—
 Con. Alexander, Capt.; Walter F. Bendall, Capt.; George T. Curry, Capt.; A. E. Bernard, Capt.; Augustus O'Brien, Capt.; J. W. March, Capt.; L. Paterson, Capt. and P.M.; G. J. A. Leitch, Lt.; Norman H. Alderice, Lt.; Chas. R. Ayre, Lt.; R. Rowsell, Lt.; Robert H. Tait, Lt.; Charles Wighton, Lt.; Joe Nunn, Lt.; B. Butler, Lt.; M. Frank Summers, Lt. and Q.M.; H. H. Goodridge Lt.; A. W. Wakefield, Lt. and M.O.

GERMAN PRISONERS AND PRIZE.

On Thursday, the same day as the transports reached Plymouth, four Holland Oil tankers, flying the Dutch flag were brought in and their Captains, who were Germans, arrested as prisoners of war; also a German barque which was captured by an English ship, was seized.

WOUNDED BELGIANS AT PLYMOUTH.

While the Canadian and Newfoundland Volunteers were disembarking 200 Belgian soldiers, who were wounded at the battle of the Aisne, were brought into Plymouth and conveyed through cheering crowds to the Naval Hospital. Only 50, however, of the 200, were seriously wounded and those were conveyed in cots.

Farewell Week.

SERPENTILLO AND FROG MAN.
 This being the farewell week of the Frog Man and Serpentillo, they will appear to-night in a complete change, singing and dancing. Young Nicholson has some of the funniest parodies you ever heard, while they will also do some dancing. There are all new pictures, and the best that money can buy. There is coming across the sea another fine act, Kelly and Mack, good singers, dancers, musicians, burlesque and pantomime artists, the boys from Ireland. Those performers are well known as two of the best dancers in the business. Mr. Rossley is progressing nicely with his little new West End theatre and he will be supplying a long felt want in that direction, besides giving work at this dull season to quite a few of our own workmen and trades people.
