A Steamer's Load of Copper Recovered From the Bottom of Lake Huron.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 30 .- The steamer H. A. Root, which has been engaged for some time in raising the cargo of copper of the sunken steamer Pewabic, off Alpena, in Lake Huron, has arrived in Milwaukee, having in her hold 600 tons of copper.

The Pewabic lies in 165 feet of water. One lump of mass copper raised weighs 11,600 pounds, and the second in size weighs 5,766 pounds. The others run from 300 to 400 pounds up.

A large amount of copper ingots and milled copper has been taken out. The a reporter. "And then she might see it.
