BASEBALL.

JONES HAS MADE A HIT.

Detroit News: Of the young players picked up by the Detroit management this year none is more favorably regarded than Charles C. Jones, the outfielder. By some clever work in the field and a nice way of going at the ball when at bat, Jones made himself solid with the club and patrons on the start, and Manager Stallings announces that he will play regularly on the 1901 team. Jones is 25 years old, stands about 5 feet 11 inches, weighs 165 pounds, and is a well-proportioned young man, besides being one of the best-looking players in the league. His home is at Butler, Pa., where he started playing on an independent team in 1896. The next year he was with the same club, and later with Irwin, Pa. In 1898 he came up into Canada, and played with London and Chatham, and in 1899 he played with the London champions of the Canadian League, ranking second among the outfielders, and 31st in batting. This year he was with London, and until two weeks before the season closed on Aug. 3, he had batted over 300. "I was impressed with Jones the first time he went to bat for us," says Manager Stallings. "The pitcher had got two strikes on him, and then, instead of showing nervousness, and shortening his grip on the bat, he cut loose at the next good one and sent a fly to the outfield. He is a natural hitter, and I think he will rank high among the batters next year. He is also a splendid judge of fly balls, and about as good a youngster as I have seen this season."

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Brooklyn, Sept. 26.—The Brooklyn baseball club has drafted Anderson and Paine, of the Milwaukee American League club, for next year.

CRICKET.

A London correspondent writes: The cricket season now ended, has in some respects been a remarkable one. For the first time in the history of the summer game, we have had eleven centuries scored by one individual in first-class cricket. Even the redoubtable "W. G." himself never achieved the distinction, although for 25 years he has remained the only man who had ever scored ten hundreds in a single year. Prince Ranjitsinghji has proved himself head and shoulders above any of his confreres in the cricket field this season, and the honor of being the first to score eleven centuries in one year could fall to no worthier player. He held the record, however, for one day only, for Abel, the Surrey professional, also scored eleven centuries this season. The Indian amateur can, however, lay claim to a feat which Dr. Grace himself has never accomplished—that of scoring five hundreds of over 200 in one season. On the other hand, "W. G." record of three hundreds of over 200, made in 1876, has still to be beaten. In the number of centuries scored, Dr. Grace, of course, stands without a rival. During his career he has completed over 100 centuries, whereas Abel has made only 50, and Ranjitsinghji and Hayward about 30 each.

Distressing

Diarrhoea.

Can Be Promptly Relieved and Cured by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

The pain and suffering, the weakness, and sometimes colic associated with an attack of Diarrhoea make it a disease to be dreaded, and for which prompt relief and a ready cure are greatly to be desired.

The salutary action of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in giving almost instant relief from the pain, checking the too frequent and irritating stools, settling the stomach, and bracing up the weakened rectum, render it without a peer for the treatment of bowel complaints of young or old.

Mrs. Peter Christensen, Parry Sound, in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have been very much troubled with Diarrhoea the last three summers, and have always had to have the doctor before I could get it stopped. This summer I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and it cured the Cramps and Diarrhoea promptly. I have given it to my little girl for the Colic and she got relief at once. I can highly recommend this most valuable remedy."

Always ask for Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and be sure you get the genuine, many of which are worthless and some of them highly dangerous.

The census bulletins confirm the truth of the statement that the growing American cities are those where manufacturing can be carried on economically.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over FIFTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, CURES ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Beware of cheap imitations. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

CANADIAN CANDIDATES

For Seats in the British House of Commons.

Michael Davitt Tells Hon. He Was Deceived by the Boers—Braconing—Breeds in Iceland.

120 MILES AN HOUR.

Edinburgh, Sept. 27.—News has been received of a hurricane at Odford, Iceland, Sept. 20. The wind, it is said, blew 120 miles an hour. Nearly all the fishing smacks were driven ashore, houses were wrecked, and several persons were killed.

CANADIAN CANDIDATES.
London, Sept. 27.—Among the candidates who are seeking election to the British Parliament are two Canadians who have come to the front on this side of the Atlantic. Gilbert Parker, the distinguished Canadian author, whose name is familiar to the whole British reading public, will contest Gravesend in behalf of the Conservative party.

Forster Boulton, another prominent Canadian, has presented himself as a candidate in North Faversham, Kent. Mr. Boulton is a former Toronto lawyer, who has been practicing for ten or twelve years in London. He is the son of the late Forster Boulton, of Toronto, and a great-grandson of the late D'Arcy Boulton, once judge of the King's bench for Upper Canada.

Hon. Edward Blake, a native of Midland, Ont., and for several years leader of the Liberal party in Canada, but more recently representing South Longford in the British House, is also a candidate for re-election.

BOMBAY SPINNERS AFFECTED.
London, Sept. 27.—The cotton crisis, according to the Bombay correspondence of the Daily Express, is paralyzing the Bombay spinners, who had hoped to purchase cheaply on a full crop. Prices, the correspondent says, are rising; 35 mills have closed and others are restricting their output.

DAVITT'S LESSON.
London, Sept. 18.—The Pretoria correspondent of the Standard, in a recent dispatch throws new light upon Michael Davitt's experiences in the Transvaal and his feeling towards the Boers. It is as follows:

"Mr. Michael Davitt left Pretoria on the 15th of May, broken and sick at heart, according to the words he himself used on the railway platform. The Rev. Batts, Baptist minister, has recorded them, and they are testified to by the Rev. Henry W. Goodwin, Congregational minister. He said, 'Mr. Davitt, that he had that morning advised the Transvaal Government if they would commend themselves in the eyes of the world and obtain the sympathy of European nations, that they should at once wire Lord Roberts to this effect: "Now that the Free State is conquered, and we are quite unable to resist alone the might of England, in the name of humanity and to prevent further bloodshed, we will surrender."'

"Instead of doing this," said Mr. Davitt, "they have sent a message of a threatening character, telling Lord Roberts that they will blow up the mines or destroy Johannesburg, if some terms are not made. What the terms are they do not state, and they do not really mean to carry out the threat. Their whole action will cover them with ignominy and contempt before the civilized world. They purpose prolonging the business without seriously meaning to fight, for the only object of heaping up the bars of the mine is to keep the world from knowing of their treachery and of accumulating and hoarding them in obedience to the direction of that old man, Paul Kruger."

"That old man, Paul Kruger," continued Mr. Davitt, "is engaged in a sort of spiritualist science business, with some blind boy predicting events that are to happen on certain days. I came out here at my own expense; it has cost me £200. I was not enthusiastic for these people. They know me, they know my feelings, but they have never trusted me. Today they refused to give me any information as to the situation for my papers; I go away broken and sick at heart. I am thoroughly disillusioned. For me to remain in this atmosphere is no longer possible; I cannot endure it. They ask me: "Why go away so soon? Things are not bad as you think." "What?" said I, "when 10,000 men retire at Koonstad, and practically run away without firing a shot?" I went down to Koonstad and saw their positions. They were excellent. The Boers thoroughly deceived me. They assured me that they would dispute every inch of ground, and would sell their liberties with their lives. What happened you all know. All along the line I have been refused their confidence and have been thoroughly deceived. I wrote to my papers this rubbish about the grand stand that was to be made at Koonstad—speaking through them to Europe. I would have given £100 to withdraw myself. I go away today, but do not know that I can get a British passport from Delagoa Bay."

"But," interposed Mr. Batts, "there are other English journalists besides yourself."

"Yes," replied Mr. Davitt, "but I am journalist plus politician. There is a difference."

"A French baron came up at this moment," he said. Mr. Davitt, "fought through the whole. He has given up everything for their cause. Now he is going away a pauper, utterly neglected, without money enough to pay for his fare."

Your best friend can give you no better advice than this: "For impure blood, bad stomach and weak nerves take Hood's Sarsaparilla."
