Paris, Feb. 29.-An official, who for two years past had been studying the condiions in the Balkans, has just arrived in Paris, and made an interesting statement of the situation. He said:

"I am satisfied Turkey will not declare war. She has been informed by the powers that even if she does engage in hostilities she will gain absolutely no results therefrom, and even may suffer from a military occupation by the powers, and that, perhaps, they may result in the separation of Macedonia from the Turkish Empire. It is true that Turkey but this is due to the prospect of an outbreak of another insurrection and possible interference on the part of Bulgaria, now that Russia is occupied with Japan; but the Sultan has everything to ose and little to gain by a war, and if t comes you may depend upon it that Bulgaria will be the aggressor. Should war come, I am satisfied that Bulgaria night. The estimates for the comin able to put 200,000 men in the field. The Turks can quickly throw double that number into Macethem if necessary. "It has been said that Russia and Tur-key are discussing the question of the passage of the Dardanelles by the Rusgained some concession in the Balkans, such as dealing with Bulgaria as she saw t. But Russia could not make such a oncession, because she would thereby forfeit the preferential position which sh d Austria hold in consequence of having been designated by the powers to act their representatives in dealing with the question. Moreover, Russia under-stands that if she ceased to be a representative of the powers, other power ould intervene. But granting that assia may take the risk and induce would intervene. Turkey to permit the passage of her fleet, this would be a violation of the Berlin this would be a violation of the Berlin treaty, of which Great Britain is a signatory power. It would mean, furthermore, that Turkey and Russia had entered into an understanding which might be inter-preted as bringing into play the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The Indian Equipment.

London, Feb. 29. - War Secretary Forster's explanatory statement of army estimates was issued Saturday will be beaten. Bulgaria claims she is year will be $144,500,000 against $172, 500,000 last year. The principal reduction is in this year's estimates for South Africa, which totals $3,070,000. Secretary Forster's estimates make no provision for expenditures in Somaliland, owing to the impossibility of forecasting the duration of operations sian Black Sea fleet. Turkey would not give her consent, if asked, unless she decided to concede the priority of India in the supply of new pattern rifles and quick-firing equipments for horse and field artillery. The equipment of the whole army will be completed in March, 1907.
