MINISTERIAL ALITANCE

Services for Firemen Discussed Paper by Rev. Dr. McCrae.

The Ministerial Alliance met this norning at 10:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A., Very Rev. Dean Davis presiding, and the following being present: Revs. Canon Richardson, George Cox, G. B. Sage, George J. Bishop, C. T. Scott, A. K. Birks, R. D. Hamilton, W. J. Clark, J. G. Stuart, A. J. Mac-Cillivray, Dr. McCrae, Hector Mackay, James Rollins, Francis Ballantyne and J. Little, of Birr.

An informal discussion took place in regard to Sabbath services for the firemen, also in regard to a hospital Sunday. On the latter no action was taken, but in connection with the first matter, the previous committee was reappointed.

A very able and interesting paper vas read by Rev. Dr. McCrae, Westminster, giving a synopsis of the recent book by Dr. Daly on "The Death of Christ." A discussion followed in which all took part.

PLEASED WITH THE PASTOR

Rev. S. B. Culp, of Elizabeth Street Church, Asked to Remain.

An interesting meeting of the men pers of Elizabeth Street Christian Church was held yesterday, when it was almost unanimously voted to invite their popular pastor. Rev. S. B. Culp to remain in charge for the third year. Out of the 64 votes recorded 52 were for retaining the pastor. The church is in a prosperous condition, having during the past ten months met all obligations and having also in about ten minutes provided for the liquidation of a floating debt of $58 50. The provincial convention of the Christian Church will be held at the Elizabeth Street Church in June, continuing three days. B. L. Smith, corresponding secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be one of the chief speakers on this occasion.

A young man named Semple, who formerly resided in the south end of the city, had a close call from serious injury at the Grand Trunk depot between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Semple was going east on No. 2 stead of getting on the train before it started he waited around with some friends until it began to pull out. Semple and the conductor reached for the same hand rail, and while Semple managed to catch it he could not pull himself on to the step. Hanging on with one hand, he was dragged to the Clarence street crossing before the train was brought to a stop by the conductor, who fortunately had turned to see if Semple had boarded the car
