J. A. Newton, W. P. Dymond, J. H. Argue, H. C. Pope 110 BINKS ARE IN ACTION GREAT BOWLING TOURNEY OPENS

Half of the Aspirants Have Been Defeated in Opening Rounds and Magnificent Battle for Blue Ribbon Event Is On-Flannelled Knights of the Bowl Own London City.

The great trophy race is on.

More than half the aspirants for the blue ribbon of the bowling world are now classed among the defeated, and in a few hours more a still greater number will lose their chance for the magnificent cup. Yesterday practically all of the rinks entered came to town, and the defaulters were few in number.

A MAGNIFICENT SIGHT.

After the preliminaries of the afternoon, the rinks were not long in getting into the game, and in a few minutes all the 32 greens were occupied. It is a rare sight to see 110 rinks in action at one tourney, a sight seen at no tourney in America, and perhaps nowhere else. The white-flannelled knights of the bowl, with their cheery words of encouragement to the members of their own rinks, and their appreciation of fine play, no matter by whom, have the best of sport, and there is nothing to mar the pleasure of the outing.

The opening play of yesterday was good. It took some time to get the greens, but they are in good shape, thanks to the untiring efforts of Dick Sparrowhawk, and very little Brilliant Games.

As a consequence the bowling was better than is the custom on opening day, and many truly brilliant games resulted. The games in which Dr. Wiley, J. S. Willison, C. Carrick, Armitage, Booker, Lind, Hoover, Dick Gos- nell, Bill Smith, and a score of others, took part, were the finest exemplifica-tions of the great game. The quality will improve, too, as the nervousness wears aff, and the bowlers W become accustomed to their surround- A. Gillean
