"You are hesitating," Vera said, half

THE WOMAN'S CORNER

ADVERTISER PATTERNS BEAUTY PATTERN COMPANY

$606—LADIES' DRESSING SACQUE.—A PRACTICAL AND DESIRABLE

PRACTICAL AND DESIRABLE MODEL.

A few comfortable dressing sacques are absolutely necessary to a woman's comfort. An exceedingly effective development was made from the design here shown, in blue French flannel with white stitching for a finish. The model is equally appropriate for lawn, dimity, flannelette or silk. The pattern is cut in six sizes—32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 inches bust measure. It requires 4 yards of 27-inch material for the 36-inch size. material for the 36-inch size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to address on receipt of 10 cents silver or stamps.

PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE ADVERTISER. *

Please send above mentioned patterr, as per directions given below, to Measurement-Bust...... Waist..... Age (if child's or misses' pattern).....

LONDON ADVERTISER.

F.ASHIONS

of velvet ribbon, half an inch wide. It is passed around the neck and tied low down on the waist-not at the neck. A bunch of ribbon loops and ends hang from the joining.

Veilings that meet with the most favor are the finer meshes in filets, bexagon and fancy meshes, and the cobweb effect.

Ribbon flowers of white silk flatly applied to the hat of black beaver Zibelines are having a modish renewal for gowns and coats.

Coats close above the line of the bust rather than below it, as last year. New corsets are quite low in the bust and have more fullness above the Barbaric effects in beadwork trimming are much seen on chiffon over-

Wide velvet hair ribbons are in vogue for children. Tartan plaids are Muffs of fur-trimmed material matching one's costume are extremely

The stock and tie have come back into fashion, affording relief from the monotony of the stiff collar.

Ostrich feathers were never in such togue as they are this season.

quently and kept her scalp much cleaner by wiping it each night with a clean soft towel. The hair is parted from the temples to the back of the neck and the scalp rubbed thoroughly with the towel; then a new part is made and the process repeated until the entire head has been gone over. After the scalp treatment is finished the hair is brushed with a moderately stiff brush, which is kept scrupulously clean. Another way to keep the thing. scalp clean is to annoint it with a young man, to execute a partnership little sweet oil about an hour or more deed, and creep out of it, just when you before the shampoo. The oil loosens think you will. But as your young wobefore the shampoo. The oil loosens the dandruff, cleanses the scalp and man hates me like poison I'm not going greatly adds to the results of the

A large marble boiled in sauces custards and milk will do the stirring as they cook. All chance of burning will be prevented.

A few drops of turpentine sprinkled where cockroaches congregate will exterminate them at once. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain and guaranteed cure for each and every for monitoring, bleeding and protruding and protruding and protruding neighbors about it. You can use it and eur money back if not satisfied. Sc. at all are of EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto. DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothir. Syrun is been used for over TRIRTY YEARS Mr. Varden," Vera said, three days after MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their MLDREN WHILE TEETHING, with ILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with ILDREN THE GUMS, ALL. FAIL, PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC Is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold over the world.

Wera's Plans.

Wi fear I am a great trouble to you, Mr. Varden," Vera said, three days after John Russell's dismissal, "but I have no one else to whom I can turn. The infinite consolation I have received from your friendship has helped me to face my trouble without flinching."

"I am glad to be your confidant, my dear child, if not your adviser." The

CYNTHIA GREY'S CORRESPONDENTS

Dear Miss Grey: 1. What causes blushing? 2. What will cure enlarged pores? 3. What will cure a sore that has been lanced? Will cocoa butter heal the scar? R. F. D. Nervousness. Embarrassment. Lack of self-confidence. 2. Wash the thoroughly without too rough friction. Use very hot castile soap suds. Rinse in cold (or ice) water. Moisten the areas affected with half strength lemon juice. After five minutes rinse with cold water and apply cold cream sparingly. 3. If still open dress only with boric acid powder and sterile gauze. Do not use cocoa butter if still open. If closed this solve will improve the scar, but will not heal.

Dear Miss Grey: 1. Is the brides- Escalloped Clams. maid the first to congratulate the Baking Pow bride? 2. What is the proper thing to say to the bride and groom MARY SWEET. A .- 1. No, the bridegroom comes first, the parents next, then the maid and best man. 2. Wish her happiness and prosperity, and congratulate him.

Dear Miss Grey: 1. How long before

2. What should be served? 3. Would a canned fruit shower be all right? 4. What should the hostess do to entertain the guests? 5. Should the bride of the day of the should the should the bride of the should the should the should the bride of the should t tain the guests? 5. Should the bride attend?

A.—1. Any time up to a week of the wedding. 2. Coffee or fruit punch, small sandwiches, (a salad, if you wish less simple refreshments, may be added), wafers, nuts and small candies. 3. Yes. 4. A transposed letter word-contest is always interesting.

Present each guest with a pencil and a should be added to the words flowed passionately from her lips. Present each guest with a pencil and a sheet of paper on which is written 12 names of objects in the bride's touseau. The letters in the names are transposed, and the correct spelling is to be written after each one. The first one answering correctly is given a prize. "Petticoat" transposed is Tepcoitat. "Gloves," vogels—and so on. 5. Yes.

DAILY MENU

TUESDAY'S MENU.

BREAKFAST.

Creamed Finnan Haddie

Sliced Cucumbers.
Potato Patties. Graham Rolls.

Coffee.

Word-contest is always interesting. Her eyes were sombre, and the words flowed passionately from her lips.

"There, there! I didn't want to remember that. You must curb these lamentable fits of temper. I will stand by you at any cost, Miss Lynn, and you may safely trust Mrs. Varden and me to be your lifelong friends. When I receive Mr. Tredcroft's letter I will answer it to his and your satisfaction, and I will make immediate arrangements to store your belongings at the vicarage. When would you like them removed?"

"Today, if possible: I hate being here upon by Mr. Corston and his creatures. The man who brought the inventory is still here—a foxy, wicked-looking wretch."

The man who brought the inventory is still here—a foxy, wicked-looking wretch."

"It is just as well," said he. "This man shall check the goods as we remove them and sign the schedule. Now, what more "Oh, nothing—nothing. I think that I have put sufficient tax upon the schedule." A.-1. Dilatation of blood vessels of to be written after each one. The first safely

LUNCHEON. Vegetable Salad. Baking Powder Biscuits.

Pecan Nut Cake. DINNER. Cream of Celery Soup. Broiled Trout. Hashed Browned Potatoes. Stewed Potatoes. Gooseberry Jelly.

Deep Plum Pie.

By Bertha M. Clay, Author of "The Ironmaster's Daughter," her bosom heaving tumultuously.

"Poor little girl!" he said at last. "The trouble has upset your head. I am no tool of Corston's. I am an equal partner with him in the Midland colliery don't owe him a shilling. But what's the use of talking?" "We have talked too much already, John Russell." Her voice Russell." Her voice guavered, her were very mournful. "It must be eyes were ver good-by now." good-by now."

"Must it? You heap any amount of vinsult upon me and coolly show me the door! I refuse to be got rid of so cheaply. Oh, Vera, Vera!" The tears started to his eyes. "What evil has taken possession of you? No, I will not believe it." His manner changed to one of fury, and he beat his hands together in his utter impotence.

"Please go!" Vera pleaded.

"You will let me kiss you, sweetheart?"

CAUTION.—Be careful to inclose above flustration and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark it 32, 34 or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26 or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents in cash or in postage stamps.

Utter impotence.

"You will let me kiss you, sweetheart? Timps may be different by and by."

"No, no! Leave me: I can bear this no longer. I hate and loathe Glastonlee—the village, the people, the associations—even the home of which I have been cheated. I dislike you because you are of my enemy's creatures. Good-by, John Russell."

He stood immovable for a while. He felt rooted to the spot. His brain seethed and he wondered if it were all a hideous dream. "You will let me kiss you, sweetheart? Tings may be different by and by."
"No, no! Leave me: I can bear this no lenger. I hate and loathe Glastonlee—the village, the people, the associations—even the home of which I have been cheated. I dislike you because you are one of my enemy's creatures. Good-by, John Russell."

He stood immovable for a while. He felt rooted to the spot. His brain seeth-

"Very well," he said at last. His voice was hoarse. "You will come to your senses when it is too late. I never believed that you were capable of so much jealousy and hatred, and perhaps it is a lucky escape for me. I've given you all the love—" He broke off savagely. "Good-by!" Good-by!"

He turned and walked to the door, then

He left the room, furious and despairing. Even as he stepped across the hall he saw Mr. Corston entering by the front door. The wealthy brewer was being shown in by a servant, and he nodded smilingly at Russell. His pleasantry, however, was ficeting. "Something wrong?" he said. "You mustn't mind Miss Lynn's pride. In the circumstances it is very natural. I am here by appointment—she made it herself. I intend treating her with every consideration."

ynn was a knave and a foo!"

He placed a kindly hand upon the young nan's shoulder, but Russell shook it off mpatiently, saying: "Till wait."

He paced the drive restlessly, his hat swinging in his right hand. The heat of the day seemed to be suffocating. Oh, it wouldn't be possible for him to endure Glastoniee after this, and he would settle with Mr. Corston that very day. He gave a convulsive sob, and then glared fiercely in front of him with blurred eyes. He heard the crunching of the gravel under quick feet, and the voice of Jabez Corston was speaking:

"Tve seen her, and I left her raving. She called me a thief and a murderer."

The vicar felt that he was being car-

The seen her, and I left her raving. She called me a thief and a murderer. I offered to forego the whole of the interest, and she turned upon me like a tigress. She said that I knew all along that her father had no power to mort-gage the property, and that I was a criminal of the lowest sort. It appears that my character is as black as the bottomless pit! I hold a bill of sale over the furniture—every stick of it—and I destroyed the document in front of her. CLEANSES THE SCALP.

A girl who had to travel much on dusty street cars found she needed to have her head shampooed less free.

Uestroyed the document in front of her. She laughed me to scorn, and would accept no favor at the hands of a thief and a murderer! Then my lady told me that I should be free to take possession within a week."

"I can't bear it," groaned John Russell. He turned savagely upon Mr. Corston. "Have you coveted this poor little estate at any time?" "Good heavens, no! From a business point of view it's a loss. I've lent twelve thousand pounds on it, and it wouldn't fetch more than eight in the most favor-

Russell was silent "Now," continued Mr. Corston, "what's the bee in your bonnet? It seems that Miss Lynn is determined to upset every. It isn't as easy as you imagine to stand in your way."
"What are your intentions regarding Hazlebank?" John Russell asked, irrele-

"Oh, hang Hazlebank! I must take possession for my own protection, but it will be purely nominal for a year at least. A couple of the old servants shall remain any form of deception, no matter harmless that deception might be. to take care of it.'

"Miss Lynn has chucked me over," said Russell, "bag and baggage. You must get me out of Glastonlee if the partnership goes on."
"Simple enough, my lad! You can live within easy reach of the colliery, and it will be a good thing for one of us to be on the spot. There are plenty of pleasant places outside Wellingham." "That settles it, then," John Russell said. His face had cleared marvelously.

"Yes," answered Jabez Corston heartily.

They gripped hands.

CHAPTER VI. Vera's Plans.

She turned to him appealingly. "You won't negative anything I have determined upon, and you must promise ab-olute secrecy."

"You know that I cannot stay herehis is no longer my home. Everything belongs to Mr. Corston, lock, stock and barrel. He has been good enough," her ip curled with something more than disdain, "to schedule the furniture upon which he lent his money, and to inform me that all that is not described in the inventory is mine absolutely. How very kind and considerate! The creature is entitled to a halo, I should imagine!" Only a matter of business, Miss Lynn." "But how am I to know that he isn't claiming more than his due. The man is capable of any roguery."
"You can insist upon seeing the original. Your solicitor would advise you; but I should not investigate," he added, hastily the strength of God?" the clergyman said gravely. "I would rather see you said gravely. "I would rather see you hopeful and self-reliant than giving way to useless tears, but I can hardly reconcile your new self with the lovable and beautiful girl I hope always to remember."

He turned and walked to the door, then looked round.

Vera's back was to him, and she gave no sign. He did not know of the agonized strain at her heart. Life held little enough for him now, and he resolved there and then to break with Jabez Corston and go away anywhere form.

Shelter me? Even the man who calls himself my lover has gone over to the enemy. He has no real strength of mind, no individuality. He prefers the Corstons to me. Not that I would care to see him again in any case. It is impossible, Mr. Her voice was vibrant; her goet has a woman, her features, character and appearance were those of appearance laugh.

"You say nothing-nothing."

mustn't mind Miss Lynn's pride. In the circumstances it is very natural. I am here by appointment—she made it herself. I intend treating her with every consideration."

"If you don't I'll shoot you!" Russell snapped. "See here, Corston, I have already repented of that partnership—"

"Stuff and nonsense! Wait outside for me: I won't keep you long. I wonder if everybody is going mad because Harry Lynn was a knave and a foo!"

He placed a kindly hand upon the young. "We's a way the enough money to go on "You have lost of the young the day and tragedy hand in hand. But how inconsiderate I am—how selfish! I am so money a man have a man how selfish! I am so money to money they are the day and tragedy hand in hand. But how inconsiderate I am—how selfish! I am so money to go and tragedy hand in hand. But how inconsiderate I am—how selfish! I am so on the day and tragedy hand in hand. But how inconsiderate I am—how selfish! I am so on the day and tragedy hand in hand. But how here along the day and tragedy hand in hand. But how here already and tr with."

"Yes, yes. And then?" "Oh, I am going into a situation." Her face became tense. "And I am going to change my name—I have changed it. I Vera placed in his hands. "Um!" said he at last. "You have advertised for a situation as companion to a lady, and letter the first demands your qualifications. A Mr. Julian Tredcroft qualifications. A Mr. Julian Tredcroft wants a strong young woman to care for his aged mother. She must be a lady and fairly well advented. Julian Tradcroft? his aged mother. She must be a lady and fairly well educated. Julian Tredcroft? The name is that of a great financier. And what about your qualifications?"

"Oh, I am strong and healthy, I hope that I am a lady, and my education hasn't been neglected. I am also adaptable. The second letter asks for further able. The second letter asks for further particulars, and the third regrets that I have only one reference, but the writer is willing to give me a trial."

I observe that he writes from Tredcroft Hall, Kinver, and that your stipend is to be twenty pounds a year, payable monthly. Um! Now, what do you want this address?"

"Of course, Mr. Tredcroft has "Of course," said Vera quickly.

have known me for any number of years, and that you can thoroughly recommend Mr. Varden was very quiet and very Mr. varden was very quiet and very grave. He did not object to the responsibility, but the affair was not exactly to his liking. He hated being a party to John Russell stood speechless for a full clergyman spoke rather sadly. "I have ninute. Vera faced him, her eyes ablaze, hastened to obey your letter, you see." "Yes, you are kind, more than kind."

"Lovable!" Vera's eyes flashed. "Beau-tiful!" she scoffed. "Have I not been de-ceived, disgraced and ruined by the one whose natural duty it was to protect and shelter me? Even the man who calls there and then to break with Jabez Corston and go away—anywhere—from Glastonlee.

Her voice was vibrant, her great vibration and despair—the left the room, furious and despair—the hall that she said, but she broke into a vexed

You have bidden me to ask no ques-"You have bidden me to ask no questions, and to negative nothing, Miss Lynn. I will say that I heartily approve of your courage."
"Which is first cousin to despair. Com-

The vicar felt that he was being carried along in the grip of a whirlpool. He read every line of the three letters is willing to give me a trial."

"So I gather," sighed Mr. Varden. "I should like to know more about this Julian Tredcroft—his private life, I mean.

signed my letters with my new name. You must answer him nicely when his letter of inquiry reaches you. Say that you

Oh, nothing-nothing. I think that I It seemed to be a trifle at first, but the responsibility is growing—growing!" Here eyes shone through a mist of tears. "You will forgive me if I have been thoughtless and unkind?" Warmly he pressed her hand, [To be Continued.]

WOMEN WHO HAVE PASSED AS MEN

Many Have Done So Most Successfully and Enjoyed It.

London, Nov. 28.—The extraordinary case of Marie Leroy, who masqueraded as a man for nearly 25 years at Ponder's End, is not an isolated one, by any means. This particular case is all the more extraordinary in that "his" daughter did not know of her 'father's" secret till after "his" death, though she had been brought up and educated by "him."

Some five or six years ago a girl named Shilson was arrested for fraud. She was dressed in man's clothes and was noted for being a very heavy smoker. No one suspected her identity until she jumped from the railway carriage in which she was travelling and was killed by a passing train.

Many of these male impersonators have taken to men's clothing for the purpose of swindling the innocents of the world, and they succeed more easily, as a rule, than the stronger sex. Some do it, however, merely as an odd craze, or because necessity compels them to.

customary to it; but in this particular instance they issued a license early last year giving her permission to go about in male attire.

She is 25, and is so masculine in her general appearance, gait, and demeanor that she has been several times arrested on suspicion of being a man in woman's clothing! Before attention of the multitude in trousers than in petticoats. A still more remarkable case was that of Nicolas de Roylan, whose secret was only revealed on her death, four years ago. She was secretary to the Russian consulate in Chicago, and held her own with the men she met in drinking and smoking. She was noted, too, for being a most daring and expert rider-riding, of course astride. Not only in these things did she imitate man, but she followed it up by being three times married.

Another woman who married a woman was a Londoner, Catherine Coombs. She posed as a man under the name of "Charlie Wilson," she married and lived with her "wife" for 11 years before she gave herself up to the police, and told them the amazing story of her life. Only as recently as last January, a the New as a male helper in a hotel kitchen. the clothing of the lords of creation, not for any fraudulent purposes, but One of the best known of comfort. in male attire. Another well-known Frenchwoman who has rejected petticoats in favor of trousers is the Marquise de Morny. She has published a great number of books, and has travelled all over Europe as a man, after obtaining the necessary permission from the French Government. Madame Diculator, the wife of the famous explorer and engineer, is another famous male impersonator. Her nusband was sent, in 1883, on a hazardous archaeological expedition to the valleys of the Tigris and Eu-phrates, and Madame Diculatoy, who not only dresses like a man, but has cut her hair short to enhance the resemblance, accompanied him. French Government recognized her services, granted her special permission to wear male attire, and, furthermore, decorated her with the Order of the Legion of Honor.

CHURCH CENSUS

Anglicans Are in Majority in Toronto According to Figures.

Toronto, Nov. 28.-There are more Anglicans in Toronto than any other denomination, according to the recent church census. Returns for six wards out of the seven were handed out by Executive Secretary George P. Bryce last evening. He says they are not quite complete. except ward two, but nearly so. total adherents to the Church of England in wards 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 were recorded at 53,208. Methodists are second, with 40,-892, with Presbyterians a close third at 40,570. Roman Catholics are fourth, with 21,535, and Baptists next at 11,304. An analysis shows a fairly large representation of Jews in each ward, showing that these people are not so much segregated as was generally thought.

BANK WAS ROBBED. Richmond, Me., Nov. 28 .- The First National Bank was entered by burglars early today and the vault was blown open. The safe door was forced into such a position that the bank officials were unable to reach the cash box for several hours, and could not at once determine the loss.

Sale of Fancy Linons

Hundreds of Pieces Specially Bought, Offered Tuesday at 29c, 39c, 49c and 69c

Only by a personal visit will you comprehend the extent and beauty of this great sale of Fancy Piece Linons we submit for Tuesday's early buyers. This sale is the result of an unusually fortunate purchase and comes just in time for the Christmas trade. We have all the approved new things in Lunch Cloths, Dresser and Sideboard Scarfs, Centrepieces. Shams and Pillow Cases. To enumerate this lot in detail would easily fill this page, so we'll content ourselves by saying that though former sales have been marked by great bargain giving, this linon sale for Tuesday eclipses any similar event on record. Prices like these, associated with such qualities, should prove attractive to anyone with Christmas gifts to buy.

Fancy Embroidered Pieces at 29c, 39c, 49c and 69c See Our Window Display

HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS WINTER QUARTERLY IN STOCK.

GRAY & PARKE

150 DUNDAS AND CARLING STREETS

GO SLOW AND AIR IS SAFE AS ROAD

Orville Wright Says Accidents Occur Only When One Gets Reckless.

Berlin, Nov. 28 .- Orville Wright, the aviator, wishes to show his German associates the improvements the parent aviation company of America One such case will easily be recalled the progress of the Germans themof a woman who was allowed to dress in male attire. The German police planes, had a great deal to do with the sex must wear the clothing that is Prince Henry of Prussia recently coming of the Euler machine, on which practiced and won a certificate as an expert.

Mr. Wright strongly denies that his visit was at the suggestion of the german ministry of war, or that has anything to do with these authorities. "I think I can say," he asserts, "that in the Wright machine one can travel today with the same security through the air as in an automobil along the highways.

Naturally his interviewers recalled the fatal accident to Lambert, which appearance were those of a man, and Wright explained that on that occasion the aviators were vieing with each other in doing stunts which he as their instructor would never have tolerated. He said

"They pass from daring feats to foolhardy ones, and one or the other has to pay the penalty with his life, but there is the same danger in automobile races and other sporting events, and just as one can travel at a moderate pace along a road so one can travel with equal confidence today ### through the air." FOUR DROWNED

Big Power Schooner Was Wrecked in Far North.

Juneau, Alaska, Nov. 28.-Four members of the crew of the power schoon smart young girl was brought before er Sea Light, which was wrecked near York magistrates on a Cape Ommaney, at the southern end charge of dressing in male costume. of Baranof Island, are believed to have She had been employed for some time been lost in a storm that swept the Many famous women have taken to Light, which had eight men in her crew, was wrecked five days ago. The men set out in two dories, four because they prefer it for ease and men in a boat. One of the boats arrived at Silka yesterday with the report them was Rosa Bonheur, the famous of the wreck of the steamer and the animal painter, who for years lived probable loss of the men in the other When last seen the missing was being tossed by a a heavy dory sea and appeared to be sinking. The four who reached Silka were in

famished condition. SERIOUS OUTBREAK

Chicago Is in Throes of Terrible Diphtheria Epidemic.

[Associated Press.] Chicago, Nov. 28. - Chicago is in the throes of a diphtheria epidemic. There are approximately 800 cases in the city at present, and for the last month the number has been increasing steadily. That the situation is dangerous was recognized yesterday by council committee on finance, which, at the request of Health Commissioner Evans and Dr. Leman Spalding, superintendent of the contagious disease department, voted to give the department an extra $10,000 with which to fight

MAY BE MURDER. Mount Pleasant, Iowa, Nov. 28.—The bodies of Charles Habeus and wife were found in the ruins of their home, which was destroyed by fire yesterday. A re-yolver was found near the body of the man, and neighbors say they heard shots shortly before the fire was seen. The couple had frequent quarrels, and investigators believe a murder and suicide pre ceded the burning the home.

Years of Suffering A Desperate Case of Catarrh in the Head.

"My father had catarrh in the head for a leng time. It was such a desperate case that he didn't know what to do, but one of his friends recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla. He got a bottle immediately, and as soon as he commenced taking it he felt relief and after the use of two other bottles he was completely cured. He was so well pleased he has ever since recommended Hood's Sarsapartila." Delle Affine Begin, Levis, P. Q. Get Hood's Sarsapartila today. Sold by all druggiets everywhere

There is HEALTH and STRENGTH in every cup of nameless sugar

Children thrive on

of all ages. Rich in cocoa butter, and FREE FROM CHEMICALS. GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING

Does all granulated sugar look alike to you? Then you haven't tried

St. Lawrence Granulated Order a 20 pound cotton bag of St. Lawrence Granulated and see the big difference which there is between it and the ordinary,

St. Lawrence Granulated is 100 per cent pure. It is made from the finest cane sugar not from beet-root. It is the sweetest, cleanest, whitest and altogether choicest granulated sugar you can buy.

awrence Is Choicest

and Best THE ST. LAWRENCE SUGAR REFINING CO., Limited

Why not get the best—especially as it costs little if anything more Cleans silver - without rubbing Madam! That's the reason for WONDER-

SHINE. Simply dip articles, silver, gold or plated-ware, in WONDER-SHINE, then rinse and dry with a soft cloth. All tarnish disappears instantly—the beautiful lustre of new silverware returns. Try it—Remember to ask for WONDER-SHINE. At your dealer's, 25c. package. Household Convenience Co., Ltd.

Toronto - Ontario having run in after losing most of her Tobermoray, Nov. 28.-The steamer load of lumber in Wednesday's storm Alaska, owned by W. J. Pulling & Co., in Lake Huron. She was bound with Windsor, was totally destroyed by fire early on Saturday. The Alaska was lumber from Owen Sound to Windsor The crew is safe.

Headache

sheltered here during yesterday's gale,

STEAMER BURNED.

"My father has been a sufferer from sick headache for the last twenty-five years and never found any relief until he began taking your Cascarets. Since he has begun taking Cascarets he has never had the headache. They have entirely cured him. Cascarets do what you recommend them to do. I will give you the privilege of using his name."—E. M. Dickson, 1120 Resiner St., W. Indianapolis, Ind. Pleasant, Pelatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Steken, Weeken or Gripe, 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold lubulk. The genuine tabler stamped CCC. Guaranteed to

THAT BALD SPOT

Don't let that bald spot grow! Go to your druggist at once and get bottle of Parisian Sage, and if that don't check the falling hair, and cause new hair to grow, nothing will. Dandruff is the cause of balaness landruff germs cause dandruff. Parisian Sage kills the germs, eradicates dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp. We will refund your money, if it fails to do this in two weeks. Parisian Sage will cause the hair grow, if the hair root be not dead. It causes the hair to grow thicker, more luxuriant, and puts new life into it. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package of Parisian Sage. It is sold for 50 cents by all druggists. sent postpaid by The Giroux Manufacturing Company, Fort Erie, Ont., on receipt of price. Sold and guaranteed by Carrneross & Lawrence.

Saves floors—saves carpets—saves Furniture. Far superior in every way to old-fashioned Casters. Always in place—makes moving and sweeping easy. Just as suitable for Heavy Furniture—the Piano and Sideboard—and saves tugging and Straining.

When buying new Furniture, insist on having Onward Sliding Shoes instead of casters. They cost no more. ONWARD MFG. CO.. Factories at Berlin. Ont. and Menasha, Wis-

Baggage to and from Station Free Send 2c stamp for N. Y. City Guide Book and Ma