Hospital Trust Visit Victoria

Express Pleasure at Alterations to Increase Accommodation.

Members of the hospital trust who esterday inspected the new addition to Victoria Hospital, expressed the greatest pleasure and appreciation at ed not only to give an increased lavaory accommodation to the main building, but to supply the demand for a higher-priced room than the ordinary run of hospital accommodation. The board also inspected the new signal service, lights having been substituted for the old electric bell method.

It is likely that an advance in the maximum rate for the general hospital ooms will be increased, Chairman Gartshore reporting that the Victoria prices were away below the average. Superintendent T.
