3--2 Score Gives Wolves Visit To London and Chance To Bunccaneers Have To Work Tie Up Series Today.

BAY CITY, Mich., Sept. 12.—Left Gardener Bill Whaley was pressed into service in the pitcher's box afternoon in the play-off series with the London Cockneys and succeeded so well in the sur-roundings that he has often decorated with glory in the past that the Bay City Wolves came out on the long end of a 3 to 2 score in the fifth game of the series. Whaley started out in great fash-causing Stutz, Crichlow Schaefer to whiff the air in the first inning, and from then on until the fifth inning the Cockneys only got one hit, a single in the fourth by

The Wolves were the first to score, when after two were out in the third inning Hegedorn slung a double into right field, and Koehler grove him in with a single to center. In the first canto Knoll doubled with two gone, but Whaley was an easy out. In the initial frame Oakes received all three chances to retire

In the Chirper fifth Malmquest, first up, drive a single to center field and was promptly sacrificed to sec-ond by Oakes. Vandyke hit a single to Koehler, near second base, on which Malmquest went to third. Laabs picked one to his liking and drove the ball into right field. The agate took a bad bounce just as Sauer was about to take the ball, and rolled to the fence, both Malmquest and Vandyke scoring, and Laabs pulling up at third base. Laabs was caught at the plate on the next pitch, when Delotelle hit to Karpus, who threw to Reinhart, getting the Cockney catcher sliding into the counting station, Delotelle being safe at first on the fielder's choice. Stutz slammed a single to Stutz slammed a single to right field, Delotelle going to third on the hit. Whaley caught Stutz off first base and started to run him down, but threw to home when Delotelle made a break for the plate, the elongated Chirper hurler being an easy out, Whaley to Reinhart, an easy out, Whaley to Reinhart, ending the inning.

A run behind the Wolves made things interesting in the out at the initial sack. Whaley himself helped a lot when he grabbed Stutz's hot liner in the eighth inning with one gone. Kelly also contributed a fielding stunt when he knocked down Kuhn's hot drive and threw him out at first to Whaley, who covered the bag.

Both teams left for Canada tonight to stage the sixth game of the series, with the probable pitchers being Matuzak for the Wolves and Herbst twice winner in the present series, for the Cockneys.

But Game Is Billed For Sure-Teams in Top Form For Crucial Series.

Public Utilities meet Hamilton here at Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon in the first of home and home matinees for the Plenty cup, according to an announcement made

Whether there is baseball at Tecumseh Park Saturday or not, and it's about as uncertain, ini view of the baseball possibilities as a homebrew jag, the soccerites are going to get in their first game. If there is baseball then the footer men go on in the second act. If there isn't they fill the whole Saturday sport bill of the city with a game that is bound to make soccer history for this district.

Will Prevent Staleness. Further delay is looked upon with disfavor by both clubs, who fear their teams will go stale if the series is put off. Further delay, too, would not clear up the possi-bilities of having the local park all to themselves, as Ludington may be playing here a week from Sat-urday, or on any one of the week

Hamilton District produced Dominion champions in Westinghouse last year, and have some of the best talent in the Dominion cornered within easy view of the far-famed "Mountin." If Public Utilities should win it will mean an honor for London almost as great as the Dominion championship

The soccer fans are warmed up now to the Plenty series follow-ing the two splendid games between Ottawas and the locals over the week-end, and Saturday will see a record soccer crowd.

JUST BETWEEN US

With the adoption of the C. R. U. rules by the Intercolnains to make it unanimous is the approval of the fans. Rugby fans have been demanding insistently and clamorously for a set of Canadian rugby rules that would be uniform, for years past. This year they will get them, an admixture of all the rules that have been in force up to the present, the return of the snap-back and twelve men a side instead of

Aside from the game the new rules are likely to produce, and speculation from this angle is varied, rugby should receive an added boost from the from this angle is varied, rugpy should receive an added boost from the standardization of the game itself. This has long been a drawback. Fans with no particular allegiance to either Intercollegiate or O. R. F. U., or Interprovincial, but who wanted to see rugby in any form, often found that the game they were watching was a new one. To see intercollegiate one Saturday, and then go out and see Interprovincial the next, was rather more likely to product a headache than thrills.
