Jess and Luis Fit For Fight GALT SOUEEZED To Produce Title Challenger

Popular Interest At High Tension Over Chance of Willard To Make Ring History.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, July 11 .- Fit and ready for their 12-round battle tomorrow night in the big pine bowl at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, Jess Willard, former champion of the world, and Luis Angel Firpo, the pride of the Argentine, will be the principals in what is expected to be one of the greatest ring dramas in years. Popular interest in the match has proken all records for a contest in which no championship is involved. The fact no championship is involved. The fact that Firpo and Willard will fight for the right to meet Jack Dempsey in a championship struggle has focused unusual attention on the bout. Tex Rickard has signed Willard and Firpo to contracts containing the stipulation that the winner fights Dempsey, and the promoter expects to come to terms with the champion's manager, Jack Kearns, within a few days.

The advance sale of tickets tonight approximated 35,000, it was announced, with the receipts close to $350,000. There remained, however, 27,000 reserved seats, together with 30,000 rush seats. All are expected to be sold.

Prominent figures in national, state and municipal public life, together with a throng of society folk and other notables, will occupy ringside seats. Willard may enter the ring a slight favorite, experts conceded tonight, despite the fact that a few weeks ago his opponent was favored by a majority of boxing followers. In ring prowess, stamina and hitting power, they are closely matched. Willard's advantages in height, weight and reach offsetting Firpo's youth and aggressiveness.

Both fighters had light workouts today. Neither did any sparring, but went through several rounds of shadow-boxing, bag-punching and exercise with the medicine ball.

Willard is expected to enter the ring around 240 and Firpo at about 214

Billings Goes Back In When McPhee Yanked-Galt Kid Stars.

Special to The Advertiser. Galt, July 11.-With a sensational ninth inning finish, which netted two runs, the Terriers beat the St. Thomas Saints here this afternoon in a return witnessed this year.

From a local standpoint, the feature of the game was the pitching of "Chuck" McCarthy, the local kid southpaw, who held the visitors to seven hits and had six strikeouts. He had good control and has proved a find to the Terriers, whose pitching staff at present is badly crippled. The team gave him fine support in the field. Dolson, playing third, also proved another find, turning in a great game. The Terriers were without the services of four of their regulars, Wilkinson, Hoffman. Oliver and Kinsman.

St. Thomas came down full strength. Bill Billings pitched the first five innings and pitched beautiful ball, showing a great burst of speed and allowing but two hits, and striking out seven. He then went to first base, McPhee going to the mound. An error by Watts gave St. Thomas their only run in the sixth, Barclay making the circuit on what was only a single. The Terriers fought back hard, and found McPhee an easter proposition than Billings. In the ninth Kress opened with a single and Dolson was safe on the hit and run play. A long fly to right field, two successive bad throws, let Kress go home and McPhee was yanked, Billings going back to the mound. A large number of spectators witnessed the game, and the excellent By ends the game resulted as follows:

Hand Wolves 7--3 Defeat On Own Twin City

Special to The Advertiser.

Kitchener, July 11.—The winning streak of the Twin City Wolves was stopped tonight here, when the Preston Riversides walked off with the long end of a 7 to 3 score in a senior intercounty game. The result was a surprise, but the visitors deserved their win, they having much better pitching and playing a steadier game in the field. They played errorless ball until the ninth, and then had two bobbles.

Heppler started out for the Wolves, but he was wild throughout and was derricked in the fourth with two men down. Owing to his wildness and Molson's error with two down in that inning the bags were loaded, and Hewer tripled. Then McGinnis, a junior, went in and the visitors got one hit from his delivery, that coming in the ninth frame.

Nichol was touched up for ten hits.

The Tecs staged another of rallies yesterday in the ninth inning, falling one run short of tieing the score, the Hams taking the odd game of the three on a 6-5 count. ten ninth with two laid away to rest, something like real eathusiasm broke out, but Schaefer varied the "Casey at the Bat" role by driving out to Blake instead of whiffing.

The Tecs lost the game first through errors, then ill-advised base-running and finally in the ninth when Zolla weakened and yielded two singles which were scored in as a brace of runs by Blake's ripping triple almost to the score boards. Hesitation by Barbelon on Carlin's fielder's choice in the first frame and finally a wild throw to first permitted Dollie Gray, who had singled, to take third from where he scored on Kaylor's smash past third. A fast double play. Zolla to churry to Boyle, retired the side. Again an error in the fifth turned into one of three runs, the infirm Hams gathered. Thut fielded Gray's bouncing smash with his chest, Carlin singled and Stutz drew a walk while chatting amiable to Churry and the umps. Kuhn's double to right drove in two runs, and Kaylor's sacrifice fly pushed Stutz across.

meantime the Tecs had pulled out three runs. Stimpson tripled to start in the first frame and was scored by Bloke's sacrifice fly. Thut took second on a wild pitched fourth ball, took third when Schaefer's hit carommed off Lupyfe's shins, but succumbed there when Churry popped and Barbelon forced Schaefer at second. Four hits and an error produced another pair of nicks on the local totem pole in the second. Mc-Namara singled to right, so did Getsie. Getsie was out, trying Joe Briger's pegout, and Zolla, lifted a sacrifice fly, scoring McNamara.

Stimpson singled to left and stole second and was scored by Boyle's single to centre, taking third on Blake's peg to the plate which bounced high over Briger's head. Boyle steamed in on a bold sneak of home plate, but as he apparently didn't let Thut in on the deal, was an easy out.

From then on Noonan's prayerful stuff fooled the Tecs until the sixth when, with two gone, Barbelon beat out a hit to Kuhn. McNamara whanged a single to centre, but was foolishly sent down to second and thrown out by Blake's peg. With two gone in the seventh Stimpson drew a pass, stole his second base of the day and went to third on Boyle's single, but Thut forced Boyle at second, and that opportunity was killed off.

Zolla rân into a small blizzard of hits in the minth, netting the Hams their in the Had Made Three Runs.
