

The Weekly Colonist.

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1911.

A FOOLISH BILL.

A look of honest astonishment and incredulity came over the countenances of the members of the legislature last evening as the bill was introduced.

THE DOMINION ESTIMATES.

The estimates of expenditures for 1911-12 reached Victoria yesterday. They show a marked decrease as compared with the estimates of the previous year.

THE C. P. R. MAIL SUBSIDIES.

An evening contemporary says The Colonist takes exception to its remarks concerning proposed mail subsidies to the Canadian Pacific Railway.

THE RECENT VOYE.

The majority obtained by the Dominion government in the recent division was the largest yet gained in Canada on a matter of want of confidence.
