false. The alleged interview sought to THE Saturday Evening Concert in Temperance hall under the auspices of Perseverance lodge, I.O.G.T., and under create the impression that the Canadian customs officials would not strictly enthe direction of Mr. J. G. Brown, was well patronized and a splendid pro-gramme rendered. These concerts are force the law, and that there seemed a chance of the 100 pounds exemption be ng extended, or at least that miners for a worthy object, viz., the reduction of the debt on the hall, and friends of temperance are asked to support the lodge in their efforts. Next Saturday coming from the United States with suplies next year would be dealt with very ntly. Mr. Milne denies that he has ever given anyone to understand such a thing. "Why," said he yesterday, "my position has been that the exemption evening the programme will be in charge of Mr. G. F. Mr. Milneinformed points were most favorable to fit out for the Yukon. The result has been a per-fect shower of letters of inquiry from the Old Country, besides letters giving some him that this would have to be decided by the customs officers on Tagish lake, but it might be depended upon that the law would be very strictly enforced. As valuable suggestions as to how best to circulate the information about British the visitor rose to retire he remarked casually that he used to be a member of the Oregonian staff, but now he was accomplished by one letter to a news-paper, and to encourage citizens of Vicgoing to try his fortunes in the Yukon. That was the only newspaper man Mr. Milne saw, and none of the information toria who came from outside places to that he gave to that gentleman could be distorted into the bogus interview that appeared in the Post-Intelligencer.
