Still Crying For Sops. Some of the fresh young men on the city press [The Empire this time] have been claiming "privileges" for the ladies accompanying them in connection with the O.J.C. panying them in connection with the O.J.C. meeting. The World has been trying to teach these young men that they have no "privileges" and that only fresh hands claim them. But as the crop of juveniles is persistent and continuous, there are always some of them running foul of some unfortunate official or member of a committee who will not recognize their pretensious. When newspaper men cease to claim privileges, when they get their news by enterprise, civility and industry, then they will be able to hold their own in the race. But to cry "privilege" and make the concession of favors the measure of their reports so long will people try to get at them with a sop. Don't cry for sops.

This is Derby Day.

LONDON, May 26.—To-morrow the Derby will be run at Epsom Downs. Common, who won the Two Thousand Guineas so easily for Lord Arlington and Sir Frederick Johnstone this joint owners), appears to have the Derby in safe keeping. The betting about him is 3 to 1, with Peter Flower second choice at 5 to 1. Knowing sports a e backing Deemster, a dark horse being carefully nursed. The betting lists give the stable a chance to unload money for the Oaks, to be run Friday. GRAVESEND'S ATTRACTIONS. St. Florian's American Stakes and Russel' Brooklyn Derby.

BROOKLYN, May 26 .- The big attractions to-day were the rich Great American Stakes for 2-year-olds and the Brooklyn Derby for 3-year-olds. Messrs. J. A. & A. H. Morris captured both events. The first, with St. Forlan, was an easy win over Victory and Lester, while G. Chardt's high-priced colt, Canvass, which has ruled a strong favorite, wat unplaced and made a poor showing.

The Brooklyn Derby went to Russell, with Ambulance a good second. Both horses are owned by J. A. & A. H. Morris. The summary:

Hat, He is wear-ing the same old Hat. He is foolish when he can buy a new one for half the price at James Harris'. The latest styles in straw and felt hats always on hand. Buy a new hat for the races and be in line. Their First Shoot.

In their first contest for the McDowall medal the members of the York Gun Club did some good work, no less than four scoring 13 gut of 15. There are to be eight shoots with five scores to count. Score:
