DR. SWANN, Dentist, Gold Medalist, visits Watford every Friday. Land system porcelain work a specialty.

FIREMEN'S concert in the Music Hall, Tuesday, Jan. 16th.

SEE the whirlwind prices for ordered clothing at Swift Bros. Do you want a fine beaver or melton overcoat?

THE new Watford council will be composed of insurance, agent, 1 auctioneer, 1 banker, 1 blacksmith, and 1 marble dealer.

We have a few dinner and tea sets left which we will clear out at less than cost.—DODDS BROS.

SUBSCRIBERS can obtain the GUIDE-ADVOCATE, and either of the Toronto, Montreal or London weekly papers one year for $1.75.

The finest 25c tea in the market at Wash. G. Collins.

MR. O. E. BRANDRETH, of Watford, student of the Ontario Veterinary College, will be with Dr. Prudham, Alvinston, during the coming season.

Don't fail to hear Miss Dewart the famous Toronto vocalist, at the Firemen's concert.

MUNICIPAL Councils of 1894 will meet for the first time next year at eleven o'clock on Monday, Jan. 15th. The time and date is fixed by statute.

MR. W. CLUTTERBUCK has opened a shoe making shop next door to Wash. G. Collins. All orders receive prompt attention. Repairing of all kinds neatly done.

We have got hold of a few more bags of canton flannel, 20 yards for a dollar.—Swift Bros.

We are indebted to Mr. W. S. Fisher, agent of the North America Life Insurance Co., for a handy memorandum book, and J. H. Hume for a supply of calendars.

T. A. BAKER, the funny man, will make you forget hard times with his comic songs and impersonations. Firemen's concert.

WANTED, white ash, rock elm and red elm, and basswood logs at Dewar's saw mill, Watford. Custom work promptly attended to.

TAKE advantage of Wash. G. Collins' big discount sale. Big cut all along the line. Extra out in boot and shoes.

It is said that some of the ladies in town who voted on the Plebiscite did not mark their ballots as they intended doing. Some of the male voters also made the same mistake.

We have a choice line of uncolored Japan tea put up in twenty pound caddies, our own importation, which is giving good satisfaction and selling very low. Every caddy warranted.—DODDS BROS.

WHEN the whirlwind gets money those flannels at 10 yards for $1.00 and 10 yards for $1.50 will be a thing of the past.—SWIFT BROS.

MISS MARIA HILL, who resided with her sister, Mrs. John Griffith, in town, died on Friday of last week in her 67th year. The funeral took place on Sunday, interment at Warwick cemetery.

MISS DEWART, of Toronto, the talented soprano singer, has been secured for the Firemen's concert, Tuesday, Jan. 16th.

CARD OF THANKS.—Not being able to meet personally the many friends of Watford and vicinity who assisted so kindly in the hour of trial and need, we take this means of publicly acknowledging our gratitude and appreciation to them all.—MRS. Wm. GARDNER, E. SEDWICK.

NOTHING gives Wash. G. Collins that "tired feeling" like being over-stocked with crockery. He is letting these goods go at ridiculously low prices during his big discount cash sale.

FINAL NOTICE.—All parties having past due notes or accounts will please call and pay same before the 15th of this month, as after that date they will be placed in court for collection. Now do not have us to put you to any unnecessary trouble or expense out call and pay same.—DODDS BROS.

THE midwinter clearing sale at Shannon & Co.'s is genuine. When they advertise such you may depend upon it that you will not be humbugged.

At the request of a number of friends Mr. W. J. Hastings has arranged to organize a singing class in Watford. This is a good opportunity to receive musical instruction at a small cost. All interested are requested to attend a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Monday evening, Jan. 8th.

ALL parties indebted to Dr. McLeay are kindly requested to call and settle their accounts by cash or note as soon as possible. Cash is not asked, unless convenient, but a new set of books are being opened on account of Dr. Meldrum entering the firm and the old accounts must be closed.

FOR SALE—Large quantities of cedar posts and long cedar of different lengths and sizes. Having finished cutting cedar on the Indian Reserve under our license from the Dominion Government we would recommend all parties in want of cedar to secure what they require this winter, as we purpose clearing out the lot. Now is the time to secure cheap posts to fence your farms.—JONES, COUZIS & Co., Forest.

MR. PAUL KINGSTON headed the poll for councillor in Brooke.

THE report of the annual meeting of the Bachelor's Club is crowded out of this issue.

ED. SANDERS has lost his grip, and is at work again, prepared to make or mend for the good of your soles.

LADIES at the whirlwind sale at Swift Bros. you may buy a good mantle for four or five dollars.

OVER 50 Willoughby road carts have been sold during the season, and all gave the best satisfaction. When you want the cheapest and best cart buy the Willoughby.

New Year's was observed very quietly in town, the election being the only excitement. The day was mild, and quite a contrast to a year ago when it snowed all day.

ALL parties who have not arranged for settlement of their accounts with Willoughby & Son are hereby notified that January 20th is the last date. After that costs will be added.

T. A. Baker, of Toronto, the popular comic vocalist, has been engaged for the Firemen's concert, Music Hall, Jan. 16th.

OUR old townsman, Mr. W. S. Calvert, has been re-elected Reeve of Metcalfe for the ninth time. His majority this year was 75. We extend congratulations and hope he will be elected warden of the county.

In case cholera or some other epidemic should strike Watford we are pretty well supplied with medical men. We have six at present with three polling divisions to hear from.

At the whirlwind sale at Swift Bros. you can buy boys', youths' or men's overcoats cheap. Just think of a good overcoat for a man for $4.50.

An Arkona man purchased a ticket at the station Monday intending to take the Erie flyer for the west. He stopped to chat to a friend, and when he looked around saw the train going out of the switch. There is quite a difference between the pace of an express train and Frank Hooper's miles.

LAWRENCE & SONS have billed and shipped from Watford station 275 car loads of material. This includes their shipments from Kingscourt, 12th line siding and Watford, and consisted principally of staves and heading. This is not a bad record for one firm, and is excelled by few in the west.

At the whirlwind sale at Swift Bros. see those dress goods. Just look at the prices. Did you ever see such fine goods so cheap.

THE annual meeting of the E. L. C. of E. was held in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening when an entire staff of new officers were installed for the management of business during the ensuing year. They are as follows:—Honorary Pres., Rev. A. G. Harris; Pres., James Hicks; 1st Vice Pres., Miss Annie Moore; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. Maxwell; 3rd Vice Pres., James Hindson; 4th Vice Pres., W. J. Hastings. Rec. Sec. H. Willoughby; Corres. Sec., Miss Moor/Tress. A. Lovell.

THE Golden Lion is beginning to roar this week. Wash. G. Collins has inaugurated his big discount sale, which applies to all the leading lines in the store. Drop in and see what he can do for you in the way of a bargain.

EDWIN SEDWICK, Esq., whose illness was referred to last week, died at Goderich on Saturday. The remains were brought to Watford and interred in the new cemetery on Sunday. The service was conducted by the Rev. Glen McLaughlan. The Squire was well known here, and general regret was expressed at his death. He went to Goderich to consult Dr. Whitley regarding heart trouble, with which he had been troubled for some years. Deceased was in his 78th year.

In December last James Smith, a 16-year-old lad from the Barnardo Home, left the employ of D.M. Ross, Warwick, with whom he was apprenticed, and went to Mr. McIlroy's. The authorities of the Home made a demand on Mr. Ross for $31.66, claimed to be due the Home for the boy's services, and on payment of this amount they would relieve Mr. Ross of further responsibility in regard to him. A portion of this amount had already been paid, and Mr. Griffin, the agent of the Home, came up this week, settled the matter and took charge of the boy.

THE Wingham Times of last week has the following complimentary reference to Dr. Meldrum who has recently located in Watford:—"A large number of the citizens attended the complimentary supper given to Dr. Meldrum, on Tuesday evening, at Mr. Jas. McKelvie's restaurant. The doctor was presented with an address, expressive of the high opinion entertained of him by our townspeople generally. The doctor replied in suitable terms. Short speeches were made by a number of those present, all testifying to their high appreciation of the doctor as a citizen, and regretting his departure from town. The doctor left on Wednesday for Watford, where he will practice his profession."

WE are pleased to learn that Dr. James Newell, of Detroit, has purchased the practice and proscriptions of the late Dr. L. Harvey. Dr. Newell does not come here unknown as he was a student of the doctor 20 years ago, and followed his profession for a number of years in Wyoming before he went to Detroit. Dr. Newell has achieved a reputable position in his profession amongst the physicians of that city, and has for some time been Professor of Therapeutics in the Michigan College of Medicine and Surgery, and physician to the Detroit Emergency Hospital. Dr. Newell will occupy Dr. Harvey's office and will get moved by the first of February.

THERE is a good demand for houses at present.

A CAR load of nice clean potatoes just received at Howden & Cameron's.

THE Rev. Mr. Hay is very low and the physicians have little hope of his recovery. SHANNON & Co. are having a midwinter clearing sale of all dry good for 30 days. See advertisement.

D. A. MAXWELL is still in the cart business, manufacturing a road cart that pleases old customers and makes new ones.

DR. D. B. BENTLEY has opened an office in Watford, in the building opposite the post office where he can be found night or day.

ALL accounts due must be settled before the 15th January. After that date interest will be added.—C. B. ANNETT.

THE annual meeting of the Lambton Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Co. will be held in the Music Hall, Watford, on Thursday Jan. 25, at 1 p. m.
